12. It is not intended that service as a Mahomedan Registrar shall count as Government service, so as to give rise to any claim for pension or gratuity, or to leave allowances of any kind; but it is not intended by this to preclude the appointment of Sub-Registrars or retired Government servants to be Mahomedan Registrars.

Not entitled to pension.

13. The general control and supervision of the working of the Act shall be exercised by the present inspecting staff attached to the Department for the Registration of Assurances.

All fees received by a District Registrar shall be credited to Government in the same way as fees realized under the Indian Registration Act.

Disposal of fees.

18. When the attendance of a Mahomedan Registrar is required at the celebration of a marriage, the party requiring his attendance may make a written application to the Mahomedan Registrar, specifying the place and time of the marriage, and that officer may attend, provided the prescribed fees and expenses have been paid.

Attendance at marriages.

19. It shall be lawful for a Mahomedan Registrar to travel on circuit within his jurisdiction for the purpose of attending at the celebration of marriages, provided that at least 15 days before the beginning of each month he affix at his office a public notice specifying the dates on which he will be at the several places which he proposes to visit, and on a written application made by any resident of such place, not less than one week before the date so fixed, he shall be bound to attend at the house of such resident at the time fixed for the celebration of the marriage.

(2.) For attending the celebration of a marriage under rule 19 at a place and time fixed by the Registrar himself, Rs. 2. In such cases no travelling expenses will be charged.

22. The fees, together with the travelling allowance, must be deposited by the applicant at the time of applying for the attendance of the Mahomedan Registrar.

23. When a Mahomedan Registrar is present at the celebration of a marriage, he shall make an entry of the fact in the Register of Marriages (A), and a copy of such entry shall be included in the copies to be made under sections 12, 15, and 22 of the Act.

24. If all the persons who, by section 11 of the Act, are required to sign the entry of the marriage or divorce in the proper register are not present, registration shall be deferred until they are all present; provided that no marriage or divorce for registration of which application has been made within one month as required by section 9, shall be registered after the expiration of three months from the date on which the marriage or divorce was effected.

(1) by examining the parties to the marriage, or, if either or both of them are minors, their lawful guardians. If the woman be a purdah-nishin, her duly authorized vakil shall be examined, instead of the woman;

(2) by examining the two witnesses who were present at the marriage.

26. The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself whether or not a divorce, other than the kind known as khula, was effected by the man by whom it is represented to have been effected by examining that man; and if he be of the Sheah sect, by also examining the two witnesses to the divorce being effected.

27. The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself that a divorce of the kind known as khula was effected by the persons by whom it was represented to have been effected in the following manner:—

(1) by examining the parties to the khula, provided that if the woman be a purdah-nishin, her duly constituted vakil shall be examined instead of the woman;

(2) if the man be of the Sheah sect, by also examining the two witnesses to the divorce being effected.

28. The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself of the identity of persons appearing before him as witnesses of a marriage or divorce, unless they are otherwise personally known to him, by examining at least one witness to the identity of each person so appearing.

If a vakil so appear, the Mahomedan Registrar shall further examine witnesses to the fact of the vakil having been duly authorized to appear.

30. When the entry of the marriage or divorce has been made in the proper register, it shall be read over by the Mahomedan Registrar to the persons who, by section 11, are required to sign such entry. If they admit its correctness, the entry shall then be signed by them.

31. When a person who cannot write signs his name by means of a mark, his name shall be recorded at length, and the writer shall also sign his name in attestation that the mark was affixed in his presence.

32. If a Mahomedan Registrar discovers any error in the form or substance of any entry of a marriage or divorce made by him, he may within one month next after the discovery of such error, in the presence of the persons married, or, in case of their death or absence, in the presence of two other credible witnesses, correct the error by entry in the margin, without any alteration of the original entry, and shall sign the marginal entry and add thereto the date of such correction, and he shall also make the like marginal entry in the copies thereof.

And every entry made under this section shall be attested by the witnesses in whose presence it was made.

And, in case a copy has been already sent to the Registrar, such person shall make and send another copy thereof, containing both the original erroneous entry and the marginal correction therein made.

33. No erasures shall be made with a knife in any register book or record, but mistakes shall be corrected, when necessary, with the pen, and shall be invariably attested by the registering officer. Corrections are not to be obliterated or blotted out, so as to be illegible; but a line is to be drawn through erroneous words with the pen, so that they may remain legible.

34. The circumstances under which registration of a marriage or divorce should be refused are as follows:—

Refusal to register.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 109.

The 4th April 1876.

UNDER Section 89 of Act X of 1871, the following annual accounts and reports of the District Road Committees of Dacca, Furreedpore, Backergunge, Mymensingh, and Tipperah, of works done and in progress during the past cess year 1874-75, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Dacca Division, are published for general information.

J. E. T. NICOLLS, Col., R.E.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal, P. W. D.

No. 669, dated Dacca, the 17th December 1875.

From—D. R. LYALL, Esq., Chairman of the Road Cess Committee, Dacca,
To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith a detailed account of receipts and expenditure of the District Road Fund for the year ending 30th September 1875 in the form prescribed by Government order, Department Public Works, No. 4952, of the 24th September 1872, and at the same time to submit the following report on the works done by the District Road Committee during that year and those proposed during the current year 1875-76, in accordance with the instructions contained in Government circular No. 50, of the 23rd July 1873.

2. The year opened with a balance of Rs. 15,698-15-7, and the receipts of the year came to Rs. 87,584-12-6, making a total of Rs. 1,03,283-12-1 as the available funds of this district for the year. Part II of the annual account shows in detail the sources from which the sum was derived. There has been no grant made to this district during the year from provincial funds. The total expenditure for works and establishment, without taking in cost of the dredger, amounted to Rs. 53,819-0-11, of which Rs. 19,009-5-0 were disbursed on original works and Rs. 20,163-13-7 on repairs, aggregating Rs. 39,173-2-7. Of this outlay, Rs. 31,495-14-2 were spent through the Department Public Works.

3. The original works executed during the year consisted solely in finishing works begun last year. No new original work was begun owing to the refusal of Government to sanction, without more complete estimates and plans, the extension of the Goalundo road, one-third of which from Manickgunge to Shealo, a distance of 15½ miles, is completed. The Committee have taken advantage of the money thus unexpended in repaying in full the loan of Rs. 30,000 taken for the dredging machine, together with Rs. 686-4-0 on account of interest, and the Committee are now absolutely free from debt.

4. The accounts do not show this transaction fully, and I therefore explain it now.

The Committee borrowed Rs. 30,000 from Government under Act XXIV of 1871 for the purposes of paying their half of the total cost of the dredging machine. This was entered as a receipt in our accounts for the first quarter of the current year, but this was objected to by the Controller, who directed it to be entered as a deposit till paid off. This was done, and the amount was finally paid off in the fourth quarter.

This sum of Rs. 30,000, along with Rs. 5,000 in addition, was made over to the Executive Engineer, and the sum of Rs. 33,011-3-6 shown as an advance outstanding to credit of the Department Public Works really represents the sum of Rs. 35,000 paid for the dredger, minus some payments made by the Executive Engineer.

The cost of the dredger will appear in our accounts when the item is finally adjusted and charged in the Executive Engineer's accounts. I cannot, however, believe that the system of accounts can be correct in which no entry of a transaction like this occurs.

5. From the account submitted by the Dockyard authorities and the Controller of Public Works Accounts, it seems likely that the sum of Rs. 35,000 paid as stated above will more than cover the Committee's share of the total cost.

6. Owing to the great delay in putting the dredger together, a season has been lost. It is now ready, but some alterations suggested by Mr. Windle yet remain to be done to it before leaving Calcutta.

7. Works done in 1874-75:—

(1.) The 12 bridges on the Shealo Manickgunge road left unfinished last year have been completed this year at a cost of Rs. 8,187-13-10.

(2.) The current of water through the Shalkeah bridge being very strong and the water-way being insufficient to let out the water of the bheel in case of a sudden rise, another bridge was constructed near the Shalkeah bridge with a span of 20 feet, at an expenditure of Rs. 1,784-12.

(3.) A small sum of Rs. 81-2-3 was also spent during the year in filling earth to the approaches of Kistopoora and Katrasin Beel bridges, which were completed during the preceding year.

(4.) A bar which formed at the mouth of Panya khal excavated last year was removed at a cost of Rs. 332-7-3.

(5.) The inhabitants of Shikaritolah and neighbouring villages applied for a grant to deepen a small portion of the khal which runs by their village, and which had silted up.

Rs. 1,000 was given for the purpose. The khal was inspected by me, and I found that the money was properly expended. The work was done by the villagers.

(6.) On the application of the inhabitants of Brahmunketta, Salta, and Baelya, a sum of Rs. 800 was granted out of the sudder sub-divisional allotment for the excavation of a portion of the Brahmunketta khal about 1¼ miles, which runs by their villages, and which had silted up. This was also done by the villagers.

(7.) A grant of Rs. 1,500 was also made to Baboo Kali Kishore Goolo, a zemindar of Bickrampore, for finishing the Bujrojugni road, 4 miles, together with three wooden bridges situated on the line. This gentleman undertook the construction of the road and gave half the funds. The earthwork of this road was completed, but the three bridges remained to be done, which will be done during the current year.

(8.) An inspection bungalow was constructed at Mohadebpore, on the Goalundo road, at a cost of Rs. 579-9-6, as there is no point near the middle of the road to which a boat can go.

(9.) During the year under review the Kurnoparah khal and the Brahmapootra river have been surveyed at a cost of Rs. 181-6-8 and 646-6-3 respectively.

(10.) A portion of the proposed road from Peelkhana to the bank of the Dhallessaree, 10 miles, has been also surveyed and estimated for at a cost of Rs. 578-0-8, and the remaining portion, 15½ miles, between Fulbariah and Maniekgunge, is now being surveyed with a view to the preparation of the complete estimates and plans of the whole line from Dacca to Maniekgunge for submission to Government.

(11.) The section of the Goalundo road between Shealo and Maniekgunge, a distance of 15½ miles, has been repaired, and the road was open for traffic all the year round. The expenditure incurred on it is Rs. 3,507-14-6, including cost of young trees. In consequence of the frequent injury done by cattle to the turfing of this road, especially during the rains, three pounds were constructed in the villages of Baniajoori, Monaigore, and Cheli. A large number of trees was also planted along the sides of the road, but many of these have died.

(12.) Mymensingh Road.—This road runs from beyond the race-course to Toke, on the Mymensingh boundary, a distance of 52 miles. It was repaired at an outlay of Rs. 2,145-13. The repairs consisted in levelling the surface, cutting jungle, and filling in ruts and holes. All the bridges on the line (52 masonry and 24 wooden) have been also put into working order at a total cost of Rs. 1,949-15, with the exception of the Toorghy bridge, which is in a dangerous state, and which is proposed to shortly replace by an iron bridge from the donation of Rs. 20,000, promised by Rajah Kaily Narain Roy Chowdry Bahadoor. This last-named bridge has been closed to traffic entirely, and a ferry boat engaged in the Toonghy river for convenience of the public. One other bridge has also since given way, and will have to be replaced this year.

(13.) The remainder of the Naraingunge road, together with the portion (9th mile) between the main road and the railway steamer ghat, was metalled and the line put into thorough repair at a total cost of Rs 7,387-2-9, and the Committee will have to incur but little expense on it for some years to come. The wooden, masonry, and the iron suspension bridges on this road, as well as the bamboo piling on the river bank at Fagla, on the 4th mile, were also repaired at a total cost of Rs. 1,319-13-0.

(14.) Petty repairs were also effected to the Kolatya road (9 miles) at an expenditure of Rs. 1,375, and ten temporary bamboo bridges erected thereon at a cost of Rs. 50, or Rs. 5 per bridge.

(15.) On the application of certain individuals the Mugbazar road, 1¼ mile, was fully repaired and cleared of jungles at a cost of Rs. 700, which was granted from the sudder sub-divisional allotment. The money was not given to the villagers, but the work was done by the Committee through a contractor.

(16.) On the whole, all the roads of this district were kept in fair order with the exception of the Moonsheegunge-Sreenugger road, which is 18¼ miles in length, and which requires extensive repairs. Six temporary bamboo bridges were, however, put up over the more important khals crossing this road at a cost of Rs. 30, in order to render foot traffic possible. The Kolatya road is also bad in parts.

(17.) The sum of Rs. 1,116-1-4, shewn against the Moonsheegunge-Sreenugger road on the expenditure side of the annual account, is on account of repairs executed last year, which, on account of the rise of floods, could not be correctly measured at the time.

(18.) The works executed by the Central Committee out of the sudder sub-divisional allotment of Rs. 2,000 have been detailed above. Those done by the Branch Committees are given separately. The Moonsheegunge Branch Committee deserve great credit for the way they are working their small grant. They spent their money economically and efficiously. The Maniekgunge Committee has been less active, chiefly, I believe, owing to the frequent changes of the sub-divisional officers:—

8. During the whole year the works of the Committee were managed by the Public Works Department under the supervision of the District Engineer. During the year the Government Resolution regarding the reorganization of Public Works Establishments and the division of the districts into classes was issued, in which this district was placed in the list of first class districts; but the funds at disposal of the Committee not being sufficient to entertain the establishment necessary for a first class district, the Committee have applied to Government to have this district transferred to class II, but no final orders have yet been passed on the subject pending the settlement of some matters of detail. The question of payment by the Committee for Public Works Establishment charges, both for this year and for the future, agreeably to paragraph 41 of Government Resolution No. 1209, dated 8th March 1875, has been settled, and the arrangements generally approved of by Government, and the Committee have accordingly paid Rs. 4,056 as their contribution to the pay of the Executive Engineer and his office establishment for 1874-75, and Rs. 794-13-11 as travelling allowance, though this latter sum has been actually disbursed during the current year.

9. The following roads and khals were added during the year under review to the Vice-Chairman's statement under Section 66, and supplemental statements under Section 68 were prepared and submitted to your office:—

1. Road from Hazeegunge to Futoollah.
2. Kurnoparah khal.
3. Shikaritolah khal.

10. There have been five meetings of the Road Cess Committee during the year, at which there was an average attendance of seven out of twelve members, and the members transacted their business satisfactorily. Ten days' notice was given of every meeting, the business to be transacted at each meeting was duly notified, and no business which had not been previously notified was submitted for the consideration of the Committee. The Chairman presided at each meeting.

11. The works proposed to be carried out during the current year are detailed below. They have been brought before, and sanctioned by, the Committee:—

(1.) Repairs to the road from Manickgunge to Shealo, consisting of surface repairs, turfing, and earthwork in repair to slopes.

(2.) Repairs to metalling Narainguge road, and also to bridges and spur work at Pagla.

(3.) New wing wall of a portion of the bridge beyond Kakertak, which has fallen down, to be rebuilt.

(4.) Ordinary annual repairs also to be done to the Mymensingh road and bridges, and also to the Kolatya road.

(5.) The Moonsheegunge-Sreenugger road, which is in a bad state, to be put into good order and bridges erected on the line.

(6.) Petty village works will be undertaken by the Central Committee and the Branch Committees of Moonsheegunge and Manickgunge, for which Rs. 6,000 have been allotted.

(7.) The Goalundo line of road from Dacca to Manickgunge will be extended and bridged as far as possible.

(8.) Survey operations to be done to the Taltolah khal and Brahmapootra river, which are proposed to be undertaken hereafter.

(9.) On arrival of the steam dredger it will be worked first in clearing out the channel of the Dullessuree, Boorigunga, and Gozghutta rivers, and after that in the Hilsamari and Panya khal.

12. All the works of the Committee will be met from the proceeds of the Road Cess Fund of the year, which is to be derived from the following sources:—

1. Cess on lands,
2. „ on houses,
3. Ferry tolls,
4. One per cent. road cess,
5. Other miscellaneous, and which is expected to amount to Rs. 97,205, including balance of previous year.

13. It is, however, very unlikely that the Committee will spend their whole funds this year, owing to the delay in sanctioning the continuation of the road to Goalundo.

14. The estimates and plans required are more elaborate than a small local office can have done in a reasonable time, and it is a question whether under the present rules Committees will not be compelled to spend their money on smaller and less useful schemes, owing to the great difficulty in getting large schemes prepared and sanctioned in time for work.

15. Ultimately the work will no doubt be done, but the long delay is a matter of regret.

D. R. LYALL,
Chairman.

No. 850, dated Fureedpore, the 1875.

From—F. WYER, Esq., Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Fureedpore.
To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to forward a report on the road cess operations for the last year. The submission of this report has been delayed this year owing to the non-receipt of the Executive Engineer's report, which, in spite of many reminders, has not yet been sent in. The information as to the amount spent under him has, in the absence of this report, been compiled from the bills in my office.

2. From the accounts which are appended you will see that the total income this year, including the balance of Rs. 15,566-9-6 from last year, was Rs. 61 345-11-9. The total expenditure was Rs. 22,111-6-1, leaving a balance at the close of the year of Rs 39,224-5-8 *

* Exclusive of Rs. 122 on account of deposit for ferries.
Annual accounts will follow.

3. This large balance is on the face of it very unsatisfactory; it is, however, owing chiefly to the money budgetted for the Rajbari road not having been spent, owing to proper plans and estimates not having been prepared, and the sanction of Government not having been obtained to the scheme. The Executive Engineer of Backergunge and Fureedpore did indeed prepare plans and estimates but too late in the year for anything to be done, even supposing that they had been properly prepared. I have just received them back from the Superintending Engineer through your office, with the intimation that they are so defective that they cannot be submitted to Government. I am therefore afraid that it will be so late this year before the sanction of Government can be obtained that very little will be done towards making this road.

4. Original Works.—In consequence of the Rajbari road not having been taken in hand, the only original works nearly finished during the year were the construction of the Hatooria road, and the completion of some village roads at Hamdampore, Joshai, and Amberia in the Goalundo sub-division. The amount shown as spent on the Rajbari road is the cost for tracing out the new line and paying for some earthwork which was thrown up during past year.

5. Repairs.—Some repairs were made along the Pangsha road, but most of the money shown as spent on this work was money paid for repairs made during the previous year. The Jessore road (20 miles) has been repaired. The new Talma road up to the fifth mile and the old Talma road have also been repaired.

In August last the bund which was thrown up across the large khal leading to Dhol Samuddar was cut, and the greatly improved health of the town is, I think, in consequence of this. I will, however, notice this point separately in my general report. It was feared that the Jessore bridge would be carried away by the rush of the water through the bund; this, however, did not prove the case.

6. Establishment.—Government rules regarding the establishment were received on the 28th March 1875, and after a good deal of correspondence the Committee decided on appointing—

	Rs.	A.	P.
1 Assistant Engineer on	300	0	0
1 Ditto on	90	0	0

and for office work an Accountant on Rs. 50, and 3 peons on Rs. 6 each. This was referred through you to Government for sanction on the 30th August 1875, but sanction has not yet been accorded. This is very much to be regretted, since it is quite impossible to have the work of the Road Cess Committee carried out unless some establishment is placed at their disposal. The present establishment is quite inadequate for the work which has to be done, and cannot be properly supervised by an Executive Engineer who lives at Barrisal and very seldom comes to this district at all. What few repairs are now done are done by a mahurir, who is called sub-overseer, his work being checked by the Department Public Works overseer. I hope therefore that the plan proposed by the Committee, or some better plan, will be sanctioned in time to carry out the present year's projects, which are as follows:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
" " Hobra Khal ...	10,000	0	0

7. On my coming to the district in March last, I asked the Executive Engineer to have the Bakundah, Murra Padda, Bhologram, Chowkighatta, and Amgram khals levelled and surveyed. The advantages arising from opening these khals to navigation throughout the year were detailed by me in paragraph 56 of my last Annual Administration Report, which were as follows:—

(1.) The Bakundah Khal, by opening which the Dhol Samuddar would be connected with the Sitalakhia rivers the whole year round, and communication between Fureedpore and Madaripore would be much facilitated.

(2.) The Sadipur Khal, connecting the Dhol Samuddar with the Ganges.

(3.) The Murra Padda, from Tepakhola to Kanaipore.

(4.) The khal between Bologram and Hobra, by opening which the Kumar would be connected with the Gorai.

(5.) The Chowkighatta Khal opening, which would save 14 miles for boats going to Bhanga from Maligram hut.

(6.) The Amgram Khal

I have no doubt that keeping the khals of the district open is really of more importance than making roads, for these khals are the natural highways of the people of this district, who are well supplied with boats, while almost altogether without carts. Besides these roads interfere with the natural drainage, whereas keeping khals open assists it. I hope therefore that the Hobra Khal at least will be completed this year.

8. Besides this it is proposed to repair the Jessore road, Goalchamat bridge, and Bazar bridge at a cost of ... ... Rs. 3,000

Repair the Pangsha road	...	...	,,	5,000
Ditto	Ainpur or new Talma roads	...	,,	500
Ditto	Goalundo, old Talma and Ferry Ghât roads, &c.		,,	1,500

Thus it will be seen that if all these projects are carried through Rs. 56,200 will be spent, and you will, I think, agree with me that to be well spent the constant supervision of a competent engineer is required.

9. I forward copies of the sub-divisional reports, from which you will see that Goalundo spent a little less than the allotted amount, and Madaripore a good deal less. The reason of so little having been spent in Madaripore is that the members who were entrusted with money to expend did not do so. This will, I hope, be remedied this year by sending one of the overseers to Madaripore.

10. In addition to Rs. 1,993-5-3 and Rs. 433-11 expended during the year 1874-75 by the Branch Committees of Goalundo and Madaripore respectively, Rs. 2,105 were shown as expended by the said Committee during the year 1873-74 which were not charged in the last annual account, as no information or account was received from either of the sub-divisions before December 1874.

No. 35R.C., dated Goalundo, the 26th October 1875.

From—J. Posford, Esq., Chairman, Branch Road Cess Committee, Goalundo.
To—The Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Fureedpore.

I have the honor to submit the following report on the working of the Branch Road Cess Committee of Goalundo during the year 1874-75.

2. A sum of Rs. 2,065 was allotted to this sub-division from the district road fund for the year ending September 1875. The total expenditure on actual works is Rs. 2,529-8-3, as per account below; the deficit, Rs. 162-0-3, being intended to be met from the next year's budget allotment :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Allottment for 1874-75	2,065	0	0
Village contribution	302	8	0
Total ...	2,367	8	0
Expenditure during 1874-75 in actual works	2,529	8	3
Deficit to be paid from this year's grant	162	0	3

3. The following works have been done during the year :—

(1.) Hamlampore Road - This is a bund road from Hamdampore to Radha Kantbhell, where it joins the old Paltani road. It has been done at a cost of Rs. 1,504-13, including that of a masonry bridge at Camarpara, and is a very useful road, and will be more so if it be a little extended to join the Rajbari feeder road at Sarjankanda.

(2.) Joshai Road.—This road was made in the village Joshai, thana Pangsha, at an expense of Rs 300, and does benefit to about 15 villages, the inhabitants of some of which voluntarily contributed half the amount, the other half being paid from the road fund.

(3.) Ambaria Road.—This is a fair-weather road from Ambaria to Rajbari, a distance of five miles. The work was done by a contractor at the rate of Rs. 16 per mile, the total expenditure being Rs. 80. This road is very useful for about eight months in the year, and is a good commencement for one fit for cart traffic.

(4.) Joypore School and Cemetery Road.—This is a small road running from the railway gate opposite to the village Joypore and does good to the villagers of Kusabata, Panoir, Joypore, &c., specially enabling their children to come to the Goalundo school. It has become very useful since the removal of Goalundo bazar and some of the Government offices to the side of the Joypore tank. It cost Rs 121-4-3 only.

5. Hoomora Ferry Ghât Road.—This road was slightly repaired this year, which cost Rs. 41-3, including that of a wooden bridge. This road was at a distance of more than a thousand feet from the river, nevertheless it has been completely cut away.

6. Rupsha Khal bund.—A large number of villagers applied for a bund at the mouth of the khal, as great injury was done to their crops during the past few year on account of the water suddenly rushing through it. The villagers themselves contributed Rs. 152-8, and a bund cost on the whole Rs. 450-11. It has enabled the people to reap fully their aus crop this time, but the khal being completely shut at the mouth overflowed its banks and did some harm in another way. This will most likely be obviated by the proposed deepening of Ratundia Khal.

4 Collection.—Collections of the house-tax in this sub-division have been made by the subordinate establishment, that is to say, the canongo, chainmen, and the messengers, without incurring any additional expense. The people seem to understand fairly the object of the cess, and a number of applications for village works were received this year, many of which could not be taken up for want of sufficient funds. The amount voluntarily contributed by the villagers is to show that they sufficiently appreciate the benefit of these works.

No. 142, dated Madaripore, the 25th October 1875.

From—A. J. FRASER, Esq., Deputy Magistrate and Chairman, Branch Road Cess Committee, Madaripore,

To—The Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Fureedpore.

WITH reference to your office letter No. 20, without date, I have the honor to submit the annual report and accounts for the road cess year 1874-75.

2. Of the allotment of Rs. 1,200 made for the year 1873-74, Rs. 600 was only received in August 1874, of which Rs. 492-8 was actually spent on various works, as shown in the list submitted with this office No. 535, of the 29th December 1874, and the balance (Rs. 107-8 was kept in hand, as the cess year elapsed before the amount could be properly expended. During this year Rs. 2,000 was allotted, of which Rs. 487-8 was proposed to be paid as the remainder of the advances made last year, and the remaining Rs. 1,512-8 was allotted to works specified in the proceedings of the Branch Road Cess Committee, dated 24th April 1875, copy of which was submitted to you with this office No. 174, of the 28th April last.

3. Of the amount of Rs. 487-8 proposed to pay up the remainder of last year's allotment, Rs. 212-8 have been paid up during the year, and the remainder was kept in hand, as the works on which it was allotted had not been completed. Moreover, Rs. 75 allotted last year on two works (for one Rs. 50 and for the other Rs. 25) was returned by the undertakers of the works during this year. This sum, together with Rs. 107-8 of the last year's balance, has been credited into the treasury under the instructions conveyed in your letter No. 3066, dated September 1875.

4. Of Rs. 1,512-8 allotted for the works of the year under report, Rs. 221 have only been expended on works as per list appended, and the balance is now in hand.

5. It is to be regretted that most of the applicants who applied for road cess money for works detailed in the proceedings of the 24th April last have failed to come forward to take the money, notwithstanding they were informed to do so. On the whole, the people of this sub-division do not seem to take any interest in the matter. They apply for road cess money, and when money was given to them they do nothing and return it after a few days, while there are some who never appear for money after having submitted their application. A new set of members has of late been sanctioned; they represent the several thanas of the sub-division, and it is hoped that these members in their respective thanas will interest themselves next year more than the old members have done. Undoubtedly next year some roads will be made and communication opened out in the interior.

Vice-Chairman's note on the accounts of the Branch Committees for the road cess year 1874-75

Goalundo.—Of Rs. 2,529-8-3 shown as expended, only Rs. 1,993-5-3 have been charged in the accounts ending the road cess year 1874-75, and the remainder in October and November last. The allotment for the Goalundo sub-division during 1874-75 was Rs. 3,570, which is made up as follows:—

Rs. 2,065 for 1874-75 and Rs. 1,505 for the expenditure of 1873-74, as the amount was not debited in that year's account, owing to the non-receipt of accounts of expenditure from the sub division in due time.

Madaripore.—The allotment for Madaripore for 1874-75 was Rs. 2,000, including Rs. 600 expended during the last year, but not charged in that year's account, owing to the reason stated above. Rs. 600 was at first shown as expended by the Madaripore Committee and charged in this office accounts but subsequently it was known that Rs. 107-8 was only allotted, but not expended; consequently the sum has been refunded.

JADUB CHANDRA GOSSAMI,
Vice-Chairman.

No 930, dated Fureedpore, the 18th December 1875.

From—BABOO JADUB CHANDRA GOSSAMI, Vice-Chairman, District Road Cess Committee,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

In continuation of this office annual report No. 850, I have the honor to submit herewith the annual account for the road cess year 1874-75.

2. Rs. 8,022 shown as expended during the last year has been subsequently refunded by the Collector, as the land required for the Rajbari road was not taken up on account of the line being abandoned. This sum was shown in the 4th quarterly account as receipt under the head of "Fines and Refunds." This has been corrected by the Controller and deducted from the expenditure on original works during the year. It has caused a decrease of Rs. 8,022 from the total amount expended, as stated in the 2nd paragraph of this office report mentioned above.

No. 21, dated Backergunge, the 2nd December 1875.

From—J. F. BRADBURY, Esq., Vice-Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Backergunge,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the report on the road cess operations in this district during the past year, beginning on the 1st October 1874 and ending with the 30th September last.

2. The Road Cess Act was only brought into operation in this district in November last, and the first meeting of the District Road Cess Committee was held and a Vice-Chairman elected on the 20th May last.

3. The memorandum of accounts appended hereto shows the income and expenditure of the Committee during the year.

4. Nearly one-third of the income of the Committee was swallowed up by establishment and contingent charges, and a balance of more than Rs. 5,000 remained at the close of the year. Rs. 21,000 odd were spent under the superintendence of Public Works Department and sub-divisional officers and the Town Committee in repairing and maintaining the roads and other channels of communication and locomotion in this district. Only one original work was undertaken, or, to speak more accurately, the Madaripore road was not only repaired, but extended and improved.

5. I send herewith a copy of the memorandum of expenditure proposed to be incurred during the current year 1875-76. The estimates submitted have received the sanction of the Commissioner, and the memorandum specifies the various works to be undertaken and their nature and extent

6. The estimated income for the current year is nearly Rs. 76,000. Of this nearly Rs. 22,500 will be required for establishment and contingent charges, leaving Rs. 53,000 odd for expenditure on various works. From this Rs. 53,000 odd must also be provided, the contribution towards the Public Works Department establishment, which amounts to Rs. 5,548.

7. No work was done during October, and we have not yet received the November accounts from the Executive Engineer. The real working season is just beginning, and considerable progress will have been made before the end of the cold weather, although I cannot yet state which of these works will be first taken in hand.

8. The annual accounts are submitted herewith.

No. 589, dated Mymensingh, the 5th January 1876.

From—R. H. PAWSEY, Esq., Chairman, Road Cess Committee, Mymensingh.

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith statement No. III, called for in the enclosure of your No. 2061R, dated 19th August 1874, being the annual account for the cess year 1874-75.

2. You will observe from the balance sheet that the main source of income for the year has been a loan of Rs. 48,000 advanced by Government under the conditions named in No. 954, dated 10th April 1875.

3. The expenditure on establishment has exceeded the sanctioned estimate from its having been found necessary to push on the work preliminary to the collection of the cess from the commencement of the current year 1875-76, and the contingencies, including hire of boats, exceeded what was anticipated from the same cause.

4. The original works undertaken were provided for in the statement No. I, submitted in December 1872, with the exception of the fifth item for the timber bridge at Nowgong, reports regarding which are as yet unfurnished as required by the Executive Engineer, and other minor items of expenditure urgently required.

5. The roads repaired have all been put in durable order, excepting a portion of the Subankhali road, some eight miles of which were found in the high floods of August and September 1875 to be far below what is required.

6. I beg to append herewith a list of the works which are in progress, in accordance with the estimate submitted to you with my No. 491, dated 13th September last.

List of the works proposed for 1375-76.

ORIGINAL WORKS.

1. Road from Nusseerabad to Dhaponia.
2. Doorgapore road up to 22nd mile.
3. Road from Madhupore to Tangail.
4. Extension of the Subankhali road to bank of Jumna.

REPAIRS TO

5. Jamalpore road.
6. Road from Pearpore to Sharpore.

R. H. PAWSEY, Chairman.

No. 104R, dated Comilla, the 23rd November 1875.

From—N. S. ALEXANDER, Esq., Magistrate and Chairman of the District Road Cess Committee, Tipperah,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the annual report on the administration of the Road Cess Department for the year 1874-75, and also the accounts, which have been scrutinized and audited by a sub-committee of three members, as required by Section 88 of the Road Cess Act.

2. The Act came into actual operation in this district on 1st October 1874, and the first instalments of the cess were realized in January 1875, so that we really had no funds to our credit till the middle of January; there was then no sanction to expenditure in anticipation of income, as has now been permitted. During October, November, December 1874 very little was done.

3. The Committee consists of the following gentlemen:—

1.	The Magistrate and Collector of Tipperah, Chairman
	Members.
2.	The Senior Covenanted Assistant to the Magistrate and Collector	Ex-officio.
3.	The Executive Engineer
4.	The Deputy Collector in charge Road Cess ...
5.	The District Superintendent of Police
6.	Mr. J. P. DeLanney.
7.	„ E. DeLanney.
8.	„ H. L. Weathrall.
9.	„ Hume Smith.
10.	„ Thomas Smith.
11.	Baboo Shib Chundra Aich.
12.	„ Ram Dulal Roy.
13.	„ Nilmoney Das.
14.	„ Hurrish Chundra Bose.
15.	„ Uma Lochun Mozumdar.
16.	„ Eshan Chundra Roy.
17.	Mohamed Gazi Choudhuri.
18.	Munshi Lall Meah, alias Ameruddin Ahamed.
19.	Aptabuddin Mohamed.

The following change in members occurred during the year:—

Mr Hume Smith in place of Mr. Campbell (deceased).

Mr. Thomas Smith was appointed an additional member; he has since left the district.

4. Seven meetings of the Committee were held during the year; the attendance was good. Most of the members take lively interest in the work, among such are Messrs. Hume Smith, H. L. Weathrall, G. Ridsdale, and E. DeLanney; Baboos Ram Dulal Roy, Shib Chundra Aich, Nilmoney Dass, Hurrish Chundra Bose, and Mohamed Gazi Choudhury: several members of the Committee, however, did not display much interest, and indeed rarely attended the meetings, such were Baboos Uma Lochun Mozumdar, Eshan Chundra Roy, and Munshi Aptabuddin Mohamed and Munshi Ameruddin Ahamed.

5. Besides the Sudder District Committee, four Branch Committees have been organized, viz:—

1. The Brahmunberiah Branch Committee, which has 31 members.
2. The Chondogram Branch Committee, which has 26 members.
3. The Nursingpore Branch Committee, which has 21 members.
4. Murodnagur Branch Committee, which has 22 members.

The Branch Committee held a fair number of meetings and the attendance at them was good, and all of them appear to have taken some interest in the work; the Chondogram and Brahmunberiah Committees especially so. The Brahmunberiah Committee was presided over by the sub-divisional officer; the Chondogram Committee by the Moonsif, to whom our thanks are specially due for his attention and zeal, as he did this work in addition to his heavy duties as Moonsif. The Murodnagur and Nursingpore Committees were also presided over by the Moonsif of those places; they did very fairly, but the Murodnagur Moonsif is overworked, as it is with rent cases, and has but little time to give to anything else; and in Nursingpore there is not much room for village road works; the country is covered with dense jungle and intersected in every direction with tidal khals. Further on is given the expenditure of each Committee on the works undertaken by it.

6. The total sum at the disposal of the Committee being from cesses levied on lands and houses under parts II and IV of the Act, levied at the maximum rates on a valuation of Rs. 34,93,935, amounted to Rs. 1,00,331-1-11: the various items are shown in the accounts appended. The total expenditure under all heads amounted to Rs. 66,174-11-1, thus leaving a balance of Rs. 38,012 6, the details of the expenditure as set forth in the statement appended.

On collection of Revenue and Committee's control.

7. The rather large balance* remaining unexpended at the end of the year is due chiefly to our not having been able during the past year to carry out the proposed masonry bridges of the Brahmunbariah and Laksham roads. As regards the Brahmunbariah road, sanction to our proposed estimates and plans for the road was received too late to commence brick-making. Some attempt was made in March, but owing to the large rainfall we had the attempt had to be abandoned; but we have commenced early this year, and the work will be pushed on vigorously. As regards the Laksham road, the Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, wished for further information as to levels, &c., and the work was put off altogether. These two items alone, viz. the bridging on these roads, amounted to Rs. 17,235. This is one difficulty we have to contend with. The plans and estimates are in the case of all large works sent to the Chief Engineer, and for some months we remain in uncertainty whether they will be sanctioned or not. If sanctioned, a good portion of the current working season has often passed; if not sanctioned, it is generally too late to turn to something else. The fact lies, I think, in having the statutory meeting† so late in the year as August. I do not see why it should not take place, say, in May of each year; then ample time would be given to settle all operations in time for the ensuing working season. In a district like Tipperah very little work can be done on the roads and canals, &c., after May or before December, as the whole country is, between May and December, more or less in an inundated state.

* Rs. 38,012·6.

† Under Section 70 of the Act.

8. The following were the works undertaken during the past year in their order of importance:—

A.—The Brahmunbariah Road.—This road when completed will greatly facilitate communication between the sub-division of Brahmunbariah and head-quarters The total length of the road is 40 miles: of this the 16 miles of road from Comilla‡ to Noyanpore is in good condition, from Noyanpore to the Titas, 14 miles, including the Titas river valley. Of this a portion of about six miles has been fairly done, though not perfectly finished; the remaining eight miles are in course of construction. The work is a most difficult one; the line of road is intersected with hill streams flowing down from the closely adjoining hills in the Hill Tipperah country. These necessitate a number of bridges at short intervals, which I need not say add considerably to the cost and arduousness of the work: indeed, before the road is in a complete state, it will have cost, I estimate, about Rs. 2,000 per mile, and even then it is doubtful if we shall be able to bridge the Titas river valley. This stream, which in the cold and hot seasons is an insignificant little river, in the rains, and when in flood, is from two to three miles in width where it crosses the line of road. My idea is to keep ferry boats on this part of the road during the rainy season, and after the flood subsides each year to make a temporary road down to the proper banks of the stream. No earthwork will ever stand the force of this hill stream when in flood, and to bridge over these three miles would cost a mint of money; but I intend during the present cold season to have some decision come to on the point. The road between the Titas and Brahmunbariah, 10 miles, is passable and wants little remaining to be done to it.

‡ Note.—This portion of the road will be widened during the present year.

B.—The Laksham and Noakhally Road.—This road is about 28 miles in length. Of this the 17 miles as far as Laksham is bridged and in good order, except the damages done to it in August last by the floods of the Gumti river. Beyond Laksham to the boundary of the Noakhally district, a distance of 11 miles, the road is still incomplete, and there is not much use our completing this portion of the road unless the Noakhally authorities continue on on their side. Between Laksham and the Noakhally boundary there are no large marts or villages even in our district. The only object of the road will be to connect Comilla and Sudharam, and unless the Noakhally Committee do the road in their district, it is of little use our making a fine bridged road to end in a swamp. The work of bridging this road, when it is done, will be costly owing to the innumerable khals intersecting this part of the country.

C.—The Gokarna Canal.—This canal when completed will save boats going to Brahmunbariah more than a day's journey by water: the canal will be about three miles in length, and will save a bend of the Titas river of nearly 40 miles. A great deal can be done in this way in saving time by making short cuts in the interminable windings of such rivers as the Titas and Gumti. During the past year 1¾ miles of the canal were excavated, the average depth being 7 feet, the cost being Rs. 7,830-14-3, or nearly the whole sum estimated for the year. Owing to the nature of the soil the work proved more arduous and costly than had been anticipated. If we can succeed in getting the current of the river to flow into the canal even a little, it will save much expenditure and labour.

D.—"Village Roads."—The entire amount expended by the Sudder and Branch Committees was Rs. 10,453-14-6, in the following ratios, viz.:—

Village Roads.	Number of roads, &c	Rs.	A.	P.
1. Sudder District Committee ...	17 Roads and a culvert ... / 1 Water-course ...	3,327	14	6
2. Brahmunbariah Branch Committee	17 Roads ... ... / 8 Water-courses ...	2,381	9	6
3. Murodnagur Branch Committee ...	5 Roads with some temporary bridges ... / 4 Water courses ...	1,474	1	0
4. Chondogram Branch Committee ...	11 Roads with bamboo bridges ...	2,296	8	0
5. Nursingpore Branch Committee ...	3 Roads and a bridge ... / 1 Water-course ..	972	14	6
Total ...	67 Roads, &c. ..	10,452	15	6

The total number of roads, &c., so undertaken amounted to 67. The roads, as their names explain, are roads leading from main roads to village or from village to village. In a district like Tipperah, I think the re-opening of silted up khals or water channels will be more useful and popular than the constructing of village roads only, though it does not seem quite clear if such works can be brought under the head of petty village works; the heading might be "village roads and canals."

E.—Chandpore Canal.—This canal is a very important one. It connects the Megna river with the Dacoetea and saves many trading boats going to marts in the south of the district and to Noakhally. The former dangerous passage down the Megna to the mouth of the Dacoetea, the junction of the Dacoetea and Megna, is a peculiarly dangerous spot. If one river happens to be in higher flood than the other, a sort of whirlpool forms at the mouth of the Dacoetea; and many boats were annually wrecked trying to get into the Dacoetea from the Megna on their way to the large river marts of Hazigunge, Dowlutgunge, Chitoshi, and many others. The bore, too, in the Megna at this spot is very dangerous at certain seasons of the year to the country craft. They are now saved all these dangers, besides making a saving of time of four or five days often, by taking the short cut through this canal, a distance of six miles. The canal had a good deal of money expended on it in 1873, and this past year a sum of Rs. 905-5-3 were further expended on it; and in the present year it is going to be further widened and deepened to admit of the passage of the largest boats all the year round.

F.—Repairs to all Roads.—The sum of Rs. 5,293-9-9 was expended as given below:—

	Rs.	As.	P.
Brahmunbariah Road	1,118	4	9
Laksham Road	658	4	6
Companygunge Road	553	9	6
Arri Oorah Road	206	2	9
Maugzangul Road	50	1	3
Kalibazar Road	1,208	8	0
Chitoshi Road	879	7	0
Bamboo bridges	35	8	0
Miscellaneous repairs	58	11	6
Outstandings on account of repairs of 1873-74 ...	323	0	6
Total ...	5,293	9	9

G.—Two inspection bungalows were constructed, one at Brahmunbariah and the other at Laksham, for the use of the engineering staff and generally for inspecting officers. The cost of these was Rs. 882-14-0.

H.—There were other miscellaneous works, such as temporary bamboo bridges, repairs to offices, &c., &c.

9. As regards establishment, throughout the year we made an arrangement by which we employed the Public Works officers stationed at Comilla. Up to 1st April 1875 this officer was designated the Executive Engineer in charge of the Tipperah and Noakhally districts, and was an officer of some standing and experience, but latterly the separate executive charge was done away with, and an officer of the rank of Overseer simply was sent here, in consequence of which this Committee resolved to appoint an Engineer of its own from 1st October 1875. During 1874-75 we paid before the 1st April 1875 half the salaries of the officers of the Public Works Department as our quota, and after the 1st April 1875 at the rate of two-thirds of the said salaries, so that throughout the year we have had the services of the staff of the Public Works Department. I did not think it a good plan in the middle of the road cess year to appoint any one as Engineer to the Committee; the change took place in April 1875, when more than half the year had expired. It was not advisable at that stage to introduce an entirely new man; indeed, by the time candidates could have been advertised for and a man appointed the cess year would have nearly expired. By the consent* of the Chief Engineer, this district was temporarily classified as a third-class one, and Mr. T. Smith, a sub-engineer of the Public Works Department, appointed to act as District Engineer, 3rd class. Mr. Smith made over charge to Mr. J. Wilson, Overseer of the Department Public Works; Mr. Wilson held charge till the end of the year. As we had only Engineers of the status of Messrs. Smith and Wilson, it was as well that the expenditure for the year did not much exceed that fixed for a third-class district.

* Nos. 1925-27, dated 10th April 1875.

10. One of the chief difficulties experienced in this district, especially by the Branch Committees, is that of getting a sufficiency of labor. Here day laborers even, either themselves or their families, possess some land. When any ploughing or reaping has to be done (and this occurs pretty frequently in the year), our roads are deserted, the labourers leaving almost en masse at stated periods. This difficulty is not easy to overcome, as the climate of Tipperah does not suit up-country men, who soon sicken with fever.

11. As regards the working establishment, Mr. T. Smith held charge from 1st October 1874 to 28th June 1875. He did not exert himself as he ought to have done. This was probably due to his bad state of health. He did not manage to go about the district as much as an Engineer should, and did not look after his contractors and subordinates as much as he should have done. Mr. Wilson held charge from 29th June to 30th September 1875. He worked well, though, as he held charge only during the time the inundation was at its height, he could do little road work; but what he did was well done.

The Overseers, Babu Chundra Nath Bannerjea and Taruck Chundra Gupta, did their work in a satisfactory manner.

12. The estimates for the various works to be undertaken next year, and for the various establishments, have already been submitted to you and obtained your approval,† but I give them appended in a concise form:—

No. 653R, dated Dacca, the 8th February 1876.

From—H. A. COCKERELL, Esq., Commissioner of the Dacca Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.

WITH reference to your letter No. 313, dated 20th ultimo, I have the honor to submit herewith the annual accounts and reports of the several District Road Committees in this division for the past cess year 1874-75.

2. The district of Tipperah having been annexed to this division during the year of report, the districts in which road cess on lands and houses was collected were Dacca, Fureedpore, and Tipperah. In Backergunge the Road Cess Act was introduced last year only, and in Mymensingh the collections could not commence until after the close of the year. Thus the Road Fund in these two districts consisted of tolls on ferries, fines under Road Cess Act, and Government grants from provincial funds or loans, while in the three other districts the road cess collections, fines, ferry tolls, &c., comprised the fund.

3. The only district to which any grant from provincial funds was made was Backergunge, which received an allotment of Rs. 25,000,* and a loan of Rs. 48,000 was allowed to the district of Mymensingh under the Government order No. 951, dated 16th April 1875.

* Vide Government order No. 7312, dated 31st December 1874.

4. In Dacca the total amount available for expenditure amounted, as per details given in the margin, to Rs. 1,03,283-12-1, of which—

	Rs. A. P.
Collections under the Road Cess Act ..	70,112 13 0

Total ..	1,03,283 12 1

(a) The difference between this and the amount shown in the account of 1873-74 is owing to Rs. 1,661-5-6 carried to the Head of deposit under the Controller's No. 12954, dated 21st September 1875, paragraph 2 have been expended during the year, leaving a balance of Rs. 49,464-11-2.

Total ...	53,819 0 11

5. This large sum remained unexpended owing to the refusal of Government to sanction, without more complete estimates and plans, the extension of the Goalundo road; but the Committee have utilized this balance in repaying in full the loan† of Rs. 30,000 taken for the dredging machine.

† Vide Government letter No. 3156, dated 31st October 1874, Financial Department.

6. Of the original works executed at a cost of Rs. 19,009-5-0, 13 bridges made on the Goalundo road (from Manickgunge to Sheale) were the most important, and they cost more than Rs. 10,000. Under the head of repairs, the metalling of the road between Dacca and Naraingunge cost upwards of Rs. 7,000, and nearly Rs. 8,000 were spent in the annual repairs of the Goalundo and Mymensingh roads and bridges. It is satisfactory to note that in two instances villagers applied for assistance to execute local works, and carried them out to the satisfaction of the Chairman.

7. All existing roads and bridges appear to have been properly repaired, except the road between Moonsheegunge and Sreenugger, the repairs of which should have been undertaken and completed within the year, as there was a large balance in hand to meet the cost.

8. The works proposed to be carried out during the current cess year (1875-76) are—

(1) Repairs of the Sreenugger road.
(2) Annual repairs to all existing roads and bridges, including metalling.
(3) Petty village roads, &c.
(4) Construction of road from Dacca to Manickgunge.
(5) The survey of Taltolla khal and Brahmapootra River, which it is proposed in connection with works to undertake hereafter.
(6) Working of the steam dredger in cleansing out the channel of the Dhullesuree, Boorigunga, and Gozghutta Rivers, and after that in the Hilsamari and Panya khal.

9. Fureedpore.—In Fureedpore, the receipts amounted to Rs. 61,335-11-9,* and the expenditure is detailed below :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
*Road cess collections	35,672	4	3

leaving a large unexpended balance of Rs. 39,224-5-8(c) at the close of the year, which on the face of it seems very unsatisfactory, but the Chairman of the District Committee explains that it is chiefly owing to the money (about Rs. 22,000) budgetted for for the Rajbaree road not having been spent, in consequence of proper plans and estimates of the road not having been prepared, and the Government sanction to the work not having been received within the year.

10. Under the head of "original works," construction of a part of Rajbaree and Hatorea roads and village roads in the Goalundo and Madaripore sub-divisions are included. The repairs comprise the works done on the Pangsa, Jessore, and other roads of the district.

11. The works proposed to be undertaken during the current year are—

	Rs.
Rajbaree road	43,000
Habra khal	10,000
Hundumpore road	1,200
Hatorea road	2,000
Improving water communications by opening some khals	10,000
Total ...	66,200

12. There is not much chance of making any considerable progress in the Rajbaree† road even this year. As the original line proposed has been changed, and estimates and plans are not yet ready for submission to the Superintending Engineer, the District Committee will be instructed to utilize the unexpended portion of the amount allotted to this road in some other useful works.

† This road is intended to connect the Rajbaree railway station with the town of Fureedpore.

The complaint of the Chairman regarding the want of a resident Engineer has been met by the appointment of Mr. Staples (vide Government order No. 5917, dated 17th December 1875, Public Works Department).

13. Backergunge.—In Backergunge the total receipts, including the balance of the preceding year (1873-74), amounted to Rs. 36,451-6-4,‡ of which have been expended, leaving a balance of Rs. 5,253-13-8.§

Total ...	31,197	8	8

(d) The difference between this amount and that shown in the last report is Rs. 535-12-9. The Chairman of the District Committee has been called upon to explain this discrepancy.

§ This does not correspond with the amount shown in the account submitted by Road Cess Committee, where the balance is shown to be Rs. 5,239 4-2, including Rs. 45-6-6, which was spent by the Public Works Department in excess of the amount in its hands.

14. All the district roads have been required, and hence the expenditure under the head of "repairs" is the heaviest (Rs. 16,552-0-7). The original works comprise the Madaripore road and two khals.

15. The works proposed to be undertaken during the current year are the construction or completion of certain roads at a cost of upwards of Rs. 21,000, and repairs of existing roads and bridges, which are estimated to cost Rs. 25,770.

(a) Includes refund of Rs. 8,022 on account of lands for Rajbaree road, which had been debited in the account of 1873-74, but the amount not having been actually expended, it has been recredited under the head of refund, while the Controller of Accounts was directed to charge the sum against original works : hence the account to show a deficit of Rs. 1,736-3-11 under the head of "Original Works," instead of the actual expenditure of Rs. 6,225-12-1.

(b) The difference between this and the amount shown in the last account is owing to deduction of Rs. 913-3, balance at credit of deposit (vide printed account of 1873-74, published by the Controller of Public Works Accounts).

*(c) Exclusive of deposit of Rs. 182 on account of ferries.

16. Mymensingh.—In this district the receipts amounted, as per details given in the margin, to Rs. 54,377-2-11, and the expenditure, as per following memorandum, to Rs. 54,620-3-2, being Rs. 243-0-3 in excess of receipts:—

17. Of the original works, executed at a cost of Rs. 27,875-7-9, the construction of the roads from Nusseerabad to Dhapuria and from Nusseerabad to Doorgapore, and of a bridge at Nowgong on the Subankhali road, at a cost of nearly Rs. 19,000, formed the principal items under the head of repairs. Subankhali* road alone cost Rs. 8,189.

* This is a place of considerable trade.

18. During the current year the continuation of the roads from Nusseerabad to Dhapuria and Nusseerabad to Doorgapore, construction of road from Modhoopore to Tangail, and extension of the Subankhali road to the bank of the Jumna, as well as the repairs of all existing roads and bridges, are proposed to be undertaken at a cost of Rs. 78,000.

19. The collections of the road cess have been commenced in Mymensingh from the current year, and there will be ample funds at the disposal of the Committee to meet the above expenditure. The collections are estimated to amount to Rs. 1,50,000.

20. Tipperah.—In this district the amount available for expenditure was Rs. 1,04,187-1-1,† and the following is an abstract of the charges incurred:—

	Rs	A	P.
† Collections under the Road Cess Act...	96,169	11	4

leaving a balance of Rs. 38,012-6-0 at the close of the year. This is rather a large sum remaining unexpended, but the Chairman of the District Committee explains that it is due to the Committee's not being able to carry out the proposed masonry bridges of the Brahmunbariah and Laksham roads in consequence of the sanction of Government to the plans and estimate—of the same not having been received in time within the year to commence the work.

21. Of the original works executed, the most important were the roads from the sub-divisional head-quarters of Brahmunbariah and from thana Laksham‡ to the town of Comila, in which more than Rs. 20,000 have been expended within the year.

‡ Whence the road goes to Noakhally (Bulloosh).

22. The following works are proposed to be undertaken during the current year, at a cost of upwards of Rs. 82,000:—

Continuation of Brahmunbariah Road.
Laksham Road.
Kalibazar ,, Village roads.
Improving Makrum Khal.
Repairs of existing roads, &c., &c., &c.

23. The most important feature in the administration of the District Road Funds during the past year is the organization of establishments for execution of works under the Government Resolution No. 1209, dated 8th March 1875.

24. This Resolution classed the districts of Dacca and Tipperah in the first class, Fureedpore and Mymensingh in the third class, and Backergunge in the second class. Since then Dacca has been reduced to second§ class and Mymensingh has been raised to first‖ class. Fureedpore has also got a resident Engineer in Mr. Staples (vide Government letter No. 5917, dated 17th December 1875).

§ Vide Government order No. 3818, dated 31st July 1876.
‖ No. 4557, dated 15th September 1875.

25. The reports herewith submitted from the Chairman of the District Committee of Dacca and Tipperah are sufficiently full not to need any further remarks from me. Next stands the report from Fureedpore: the two other reports from Backergunge and Mymensingh are exceedingly meagre.

26. With the exception of Fureedpore, the District Committee appear to have worked fairly well. The Committee of Fureedpore have done the least, and the action of the Madaripore Branch Committee appears to have been remarkably slow, as they could not expend more than Rs. 487 out of an allotment of Rs. 2,000, though the requirements of the sub-division demanded several times that small sum. The attention of the Committee will be drawn to this.

No. 703R, dated Dacca, the 26th February 1876.

Memo. by—H. A. COCKERELL, Esq., Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

SUBMITTED to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department, with reference to the marginal note against paragraph 13 of this office report No. 653R, dated 8th instant.

Extract, paragraph 1, from a letter, No. 62, dated 14*th February* 1876, from the Chairman of the Road Cess Committee of Backergunge, to the address of the Commissioner of Dacca.

WITH reference to your Personal Assistant's letter No. 651R of the 7th instant, I have the honor to state that the discrepancy pointed out therein in the accounts for 1873-74 and 1874-75, relating to the amount of advances outstanding on the 1st October 1874, has its origin in the fact that in the account for 1873-74 all advances made to sub-divisional officers were treated as actual expenditure instead of, as it should have been, merely advances. Accordingly, in the account of that year, only the balance in the hand of the Executive Engineer on the 1st October 1874 was shown as "balances outstanding." This mistake has been corrected in the account of the subsequent year 1874-75, and instead of Rs. 1,756-15-11 (the amount in hand of the Executive Engineer), we have shown as advances outstanding on the 1st October 1874, Rs. 2,292-12-8, being the amount in hand of the Executive Engineer and the sub-divisional officers of Perozepore and Dowlutkhan on that date. (There was no money in the hand of the sub-divisional officer of Patuakhali on that date).

4. The Court further directs generally that in all cases all Judicial Officers shall take care to sign their names distinctly and legibly.

No. 5.—Fort William, the 27*th March* 1876.—Commerce and Trade.—The following Notice is published for general information :—

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

INDIAN OCEAN.

VESSELS TRADING TO REUNION.

The following Notice has been published by the British Board of Trade :—

"The Board of Trade, in consequence of information which they have received, deem it their duty to caution Owners and Masters of British vessels employed in trading with Reunion, that vessels arriving in the roadstead off that place, between the months of November and March, incur great risk from hurricanes."

In reproducing the above Notice, Mariners are reminded that the island of Reunion, possesses no safe ports where ships can be sheltered from bad weather. The attention of Owners and Masters of British vessels is drawn to the great risk incurred by accepting freights for that island to arrive during the hurricane months (November to March), and it is suggested that they should have it distinctly stated in the Charter-party, that the cargo shall be discharged only at the roadstead of St. Denis; as from this position a vessel can, in the event of a hurricane setting in, easily proceed to sea.

No. 1952.—The 31st March 1876.—The Governor-General in Council directs that the following be published in the Gazette of India for general information:—

FINANCIAL. INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
No. 48. 10*th February* 1876.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

Para. 1. I have considered in Council your Financial letter dated the 29th January 1875, No. 39, on the subject of the Leave Rules of the Uncovenanted Service.

2. You therein state that you have some doubts as to the intentions of the Duke of Argyll, and as to the manner in which effect should be given to His Grace's instructions; that nearly all the offices in the Uncovenanted Service are such as may, under certain circumstances, be "fitly held by Natives," and that, consequently, if you were to adopt a principle of selection, which would be most in accordance with the instructions received by you, the logical conclusion would be that no members of the Service should be admitted to the favourable rules.

3. You consider that the rigid adoption of the principle that the present holders of offices to which Natives could fitly be appointed should not be admitted to the benefits of the favourable rules, would cause not unreasonable dissatisfaction, and you are of opinion that some limit of a more or less arbitrary nature as to the position of those to whom those rules should be extended will have to be laid down.

4. You therefore forward nominal lists, which you state to be complete, of all those officers of the Uncovenanted Service who come within the category set forth in Schedule A of the Civil Leave Code, and request me to determine the principle on which admission to the favourable Leave Rules shall be regulated.

5. With your Financial letter dated the 30th September 1875, No. 346, you forwarded, in continuation of the list already referred to, a list of officers of the Accounts Branch of the Public Works Department whom you proposed to admit to the more favourable rules.

6. The instruction conveyed to your Government in the Financial despatches dated the 10th March 1870 and the 6th December 1871, appear to me to leave no doubt as to the intentions of the Duke of Argyll on this subject.

7. In the former despatch the Duke of Argyll assented to the favourable rules "proposed for holders of offices now held by English gentlemen," with certain modifications, and desired "that they be declared applicable from this date only to officers of the Education Department appointed from England, and to such others of those now actually in the Service as you may think fit to include in a nominal list for that purpose, to be submitted for my approval." His Grace also stated that the second set of Rules proposed "for all other classes of the Uncovenanted Service would, for the present, apply to all Uncovenanted Servants not entitled to the benefits of the first set of Rules, and hereafter to all Uncovenanted Servants who may not have been appointed from England."

8. In para. 7 of the latter Despatch, the Duke of Argyll extended the benefits of the first set of Rules to "those Uncovenanted Servants appointed in England to offices for which they had special qualifications," and "to those Europeans who for special reasons may have been, or, with my sanction, may be hereafter appointed in India to certain exceptional posts," and His Grace added "but, in order to confine these privileges within reasonable limits, I must again request that you will furnish me with a nominal list of the officers who appear to you to come within the description referred to in my Financial Despatch dated the 10th March 1870, No. 84."

9. The Duke of Argyll concluded*—"The principle which Her Majesty's Government have steadily kept in view throughout the discussion on these Furlough Rules is, that the Uncovenanted Service should be principally reserved for the Natives of the country, and that superior appointments which require English training and experience, should be made as heretofore from England; and they look with great disfavour on the system, which appears to be growing up in India, of appointing Englishmen in India to situations that ought only, as a rule, to be filled by civilians who have gained their position by open competition. I trust that the views I have now expressed will put a stop to the above practice."

* Financial Despatch, 10th March 1870.

10. In the views expressed by the Duke of Argyll in those Despatches I concur.

11. In respect, therefore, to the future, I request that it may clearly be understood that the less favourable Leave Rules will be applicable to all Uncovenanted Servants appointed after the year 1871, unless—

(1) They have been appointed in England.

(2) They have been appointed in India with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

It remains to specify in detail the reasonable concessions which, in accordance with the intimation made by the Duke of Argyll, I am willing to grant to certain of your Uncovenanted Servants who now hold, and at the date of His Grace's Despatch held, appointments in the Uncovenanted Service. It is to be understood that the instructions contained in the remainder of this Despatch apply only to them.

12 I have not within my reach the information necessary to enable me to select individual officers according to their merit or according to the peculiar circumstances of their appointment. In the absence of any such principle of choice, it will be expedient to shape the proposed concessions in such a manner as to harmonise with the policy which has been laid down for the future. Without going so far as to assent to your Excellency's opinion, that "if the whole of the classes enumerated in Schedule A are admitted to the new rules, the concession must be extended to the future," I am quite sensible of the difficulty which would attend any attempt to enforce, in respect to the future, a system contrasting violently with that which shall be adopted in respect to present incumbents. It will be, on this ground, expedient to apply a different mode of treatment to the present incumbents of those offices which will in future, so far as they are continued, certainly be filled up as a rule from England, and those which may possibly continue to be filled in India. The Uncovenanted Service of the Public Works Department,—except so far as it is recruited from students educated at the Indian Civil Engineering Colleges which were specially designed for the natives of the country,—will ordinarily in the future be supplied from Cooper's Hill. The forest service will, in like manner, and with possibly an analogous exception, consist of candidates prepared in Europe under the system established by Dr. Brandis. The limited opportunity which exists in India for obtaining men of scientific training furnishes an obvious reason for confining, as a general rule, to persons selected in England the higher grades of the Telegraph and Geological Survey Departments. It has already been determined that the higher Eucational Officers shall be selected here. On the other hand, the officers on the present establishment at Mysore only exist for a temporary purpose. A similar consideration applies to the arrangement under which the small number of uncovenanted Marine and Medical Officers are at present appointed. To all these officers, as occupying posts which, so far as they are filled up by Englishmen at all, will in the future be ordinarily filled up in England, I see no difficulty in extending without restriction the concessions contemplated by the Duke of Argyll.

13. The following Officers, therefore, named in the enclosure to your Despatch of 29th January 1875, may be immediately admitted to the more favourable Leave Rules:—

The 274 Officers, under the Government of India, included in Section D.

The 30 Officers, under the Government of India, included in Sub-sections 4 and 6 of Section E.

The 20 Officers, under the Government of Madras, included in Sub-section 2 of Section B.

The 19 Officers, under the Government of Bombay, included in Sub-section 2 of Section C and four Forest officers in Sub-section 1 of the same Section.

The 10 Officers, employed in Mysore, included in Section I.

The Educational Officers, the Officers of the Marine Department who have served in the Indian Navy or Bengal Marine, and the Medical Officers named in the lists transmitted by you.

The three Medical Officers of the Persian Telegraph Service, as recommended in your Financial letter dated the 26th February 1875, No. 79.

A nominal list of all the above Officers is annexed to this despatch.

14. Of the remaining Officers named in your lists, the greater part are filling posts which do not require preliminary technical education, and which, in future, if not held by Natives, will be occupied partly by Covenanted Civil Servants, or by Uncovenanted Servants specially selected with the sanction of the Secretary of State, according to the principles adverted to in para. 11 of this despatch. Adopting therefore, with regard to this class of Officers, your suggestion that, as respects existing incumbents, an arbitrary limit must be to some extent applied to them, I sanction the extension of the more favourable rules to such of the above-mentioned Officers named in your lists as are now in the receipt of salaries of not less than Rs. 6,000 per annum, and I request that a list of the persons to whom this will apply may be forwarded for record in this office.

15. I observe that your lists do not include any of the Officers employed in the higher appointments of the Andamans. You may, perhaps, desire to correct the omission, and possibly other similar omissions; if so, I will gladly consider any recommendations you may make.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obdt., humble Servant,

As soon as is practicable after the issue of such notification, the Collector shall cause public notice to be given at convenient places, stating that the Government intends to apply or use the said water as aforesaid, and that claims for compensation in respect of the matters mentioned in section eleven may be made before him.

Notice as to claims for compensation.

A copy of sections eleven, twelve and thirteen shall be annexed to every such notice.

9. When any claim for compensation is made before the Collector in accordance with the last preceding section, the Collector shall issue a notice requiring all persons interested in the matter in respect of which compensation is claimed, to appear personally or by agent before him at a time and place therein mentioned (such time not being earlier than fifteen days after the date of publication of the notice), and to state the nature of their respective interests in the property affected, and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for such interests.

The Collector shall also serve notice to the same effect on the occupier (if any) of the land entered on, and on such persons known or believed to be interested in the matter in respect of which compensation is claimed, or to be entitled to act for persons so interested, as reside within his district.

10. The Collector may also require any person on whom a notice may be served under the last preceding section, and who makes a claim for compensation in accordance therewith, to deliver to him a statement containing, so far as may be practicable, the name of every other person possessing any interest in the property affected or any part thereof, as co-proprietor, sub-proprietor, mortgagee, tenant, or otherwise, and of the nature of such interest, and of the rents and profits (if any) received or receivable on account thereof for the year next preceding the date of the statement.

Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (c), compensation may be awarded in respect of the loss of any tolls which were lawfully levied on any river or channel at the time of the issue of the notification mentioned in section six.

Compensation for loss of tolls lawfully levied.

In determining the amount of compensation under this section, regard shall be had to the diminution in the market-value, at the time of awarding compensation, of the property in respect of which compensation is claimed; and where such market-value is not ascertainable, the amount shall be reckoned at twelve times the amount of the diminution of the annual net profits of such property, caused by the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act.

Diminution in market-value to be considered.

No right to any such supply of water as is referred to in clauses (d), (e), or (f) of this section, in respect of a work or channel not in use at the date of the notification, shall be acquired as against the Government, except by grant or under the Indian Limitation Act, 1871, Part IV.

12. If any supply of drinking-water is substantially deteriorated or diminished by any works undertaken in accordance with a declaration made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section six, the Canal Officer shall be bound to provide within convenient distance an adequate supply of good drinking-water in lieu of that so deteriorated or diminished, and no person shall be entitled to claim any further compensation in respect of the said deterioration or diminution.

Compensation for loss of drinking-water.

13. No claim for compensation for any such stoppage, diminution, or damage shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from such stoppage, diminution, or damage, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

Limitation of claims.

14. On the day fixed in the notice mentioned in section nine, the Collector shall proceed to enquire summarily into the claim and to determine the amount of compensation which in his opinion should be allowed therefor, and shall tender such amount to the persons interested who have attended in pursuance of the notice given under section nine.

Enquiry into claim and tender of compensation.

For the purpose of such enquiry, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of documents by the same means and, as far as may be, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Power to summon witnesses.

15. The Collector may, if no claimant attends pursuant to the notice, or if for any other cause he thinks fit, from time to time postpone the enquiry to a day to be fixed by him.

Postponement of enquiry.

16. If the Collector and the persons interested agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, the Collector shall make an award under his hand for the same.

Award in case of compensation being agreed on.

Such award shall be filed in the Collector's office, and shall be conclusive, as between the Collector and the persons interested, of the value of the said property and the amount of compensation allowed for the same.

Award to be filed and to be evidence.

17. If the Collector and the persons interested do not agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, or if upon the said enquiry any question respecting the title to the property of which the value has been diminished, or any rights thereto, or interest therein, arises between or among two or more persons making conflicting claims in respect thereof, the Collector shall refer the matter to the determination of the Court in manner hereinafter provided.

Collector to refer the matter to Court when compensation not accepted as sufficient.

18. If, when the Collector proceeds to make the enquiry as mentioned in sections fourteen and fifteen, no claimant attends, or if any person whom the Collector has reason to think interested, does not attend, the Collector shall hold a proceeding and record the following particulars :—

Collector to record certain particulars in certain cases.

(b) the names of the persons whom he has reason to think interested in such property ;

(c) the amount fixed by him as compensation ; and

(d) the grounds on which such amount was determined ;

and shall place the amount so fixed by him in deposit, there to be held on account of the persons interested, and shall issue a notice to the persons believed to be interested, informing them that the said amount has been deposited as required by this section, and that, should no application be made to the Court (as provided in the next succeeding section) within six weeks of the issue of the notice on the last of the persons named therein, the Collector will pay the amount to any persons legally authorized to receive and to give an acquittance for the same.

And to place the amount of compensation in deposit.

19. Any person on whom notice may be served under the last preceding section, and any person interested in any property in respect of which such notice has been issued, may, within six weeks of the service of such notice, apply to the Court stating his objection to the amount of compensation as fixed by the Collector under the last preceding section, and the amount which he claims as compensation. On receipt of such application the Court shall proceed to determine the amount of compensation to be paid on account of the claim and all other matters, as if a reference had been made to it under section seventeen.

Objections may be made to the amount of compensation fixed by the Collector.

20. In making a reference under section seventeen the Collector shall state, for the information of the Court, the particulars mentioned in section eighteen.

Procedure in making reference under section seventeen.

21. On receipt of a reference under section seventeen the Court shall proceed, as far as may be practicable, in accordance with sections nineteen to twenty-three (inclusive), and sections twenty-six to thirty-six (inclusive) of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

Procedure on receipt of a reference under section seventeen.

Provided that instead of the last clause of the said section twenty-six, the following shall be read: "The provisions of this section and of section eleven of the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876, shall be read to every assessor in a language which he understands, before he gives his opinion as to the amount of compensation to be awarded."

22. Where there are several persons interested, if such persons agree in the apportionment of the compensation, the particulars of such apportionment shall be specified in the award, whether such award be made by the Collector or by the Court, and as between such persons the award shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the apportionment.

Particulars of apportionment to be specified.

23. When the amount of compensation has been settled under section sixteen, if any dispute arises as to the apportionment of the same or any part thereof, the Collector shall refer such dispute to the decision of the Court.

Disputes as to apportionment.

All costs entailed by such a reference and the proceedings of the Court thereon shall be paid by the parties who dispute the apportionment of the compensation, in such proportions as the Court may direct, and the Collector shall not be required to disburse any such costs, nor shall any such costs be recovered from the Collector.

24. When the amount of compensation has been settled by the Court, and there is any dispute as to the apportionment thereof, or when a reference to the Court has been made under the last preceding section, the Judge sitting alone shall decide the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in such amount.

Determination of proportions.

An appeal shall lie from every such decision to the High Court, unless the Judge whose decision is appealed from is not the District Judge, in which case the appeal shall lie in the first instance to the District Judge.

Appeal.

Every appeal under this section shall be presented within the time and in manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure for regular appeals in suits.

25. Payment of the compensation shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the award made by him under section sixteen ; or the proceeding held by him under section eighteen, if no application be made to the Court as provided by section nineteen ; or the award made by the Court or the decision of the Judge under section twenty-one ; or, in the case of an appeal under section twenty-four, in accordance with the decision in appeal, as the case may be.

Payment of compensation.

26. The amount of compensation fixed by any award, proceeding, or decision as specified in the last preceding section, shall be deemed to be the full amount payable by the Government in respect of the claim dealt with therein ; and the Government shall not be liable for any further claim to any person whatever in respect of any matter which was the subject of such award, porceeding, or decision, nor shall any such claim be made against the Government in respect of the payment of any portion of such compensation in accordance with any award, proceeding, or decision as aforesaid, or in accordance with any decision of the Judge, or of the District Judge or of the High Court in appeal, as the case may be, under section twenty-four; and no suit shall be brought to set aside an award or decision under this Act.

Government not liable to any further claim.

Liability of person receiving compensation not affected.

27. Nothing contained in the last preceding section shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of any compensation awarded under this Act, to pay the same to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

Abatement of rent on interruption of water-supply.

28. Every tenant holding under an unexpired lease, or having a right of occupancy, who is in occupation of any land at the time when any stoppage or diminution of the supply, in respect of which compensation is allowed under section eleven, takes place, may claim an abatement of the rent previously payable by him for the said land, on the ground that the interruption reduces the value of the holding; provided that no part of the said compensation shall have been received by the said tenant in respect of such reduction in the value of his holding.

Enhancement of rent on restoration of water-supply.

29. If a water-supply increasing the value of such holding is afterwards restored to the said land otherwise than at the cost of the tenant, the rent of the tenant may be enhanced, in respect of the increased value of such land due to the restored water-supply, to an amount not exceeding that at which it stood immediately before the abatement.

Such enhancement shall be on account only of the restored water-supply, and shall not affect the liability of the tenant to enhancement of rent on any other grounds.

Compensation when due.

30. All sums of money payable for compensation under this Part shall become due three months after the claim for such compensation is made in respect of the stoppage, diminution, or damage complained of, and simple interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be allowed on any such sum remaining unpaid after the said three months, except where the non-payment of such sum is caused by the wilful neglect or refusal of the claimant to receive the same.

Interest.

Collector may invest amount deposited or awarded in Government securities.

Provided that the Collector may at any time invest the whole or any portion of the amount payable as compensation under this Act in any Government securities, and such securities shall be held by the Collector for the benefit of the persons interested, and the persons interested shall be bound to receive such securities with any interest which may have accrued upon them as full payment of the sum which the Collector paid for such securities, and of any sum which he may have paid as expenses incurred in purchasing the same, and of any interest which might otherwise have accrued on such sums.

Compensation not claimable in respect of works executed before Act came into force.

31. No compensation shall be claimable under this Act in respect of any works executed before it came into force, or of any damage, injury, or loss caused by such works.

Service of notice.

32. Service of any notice under this Part shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof signed by the officer therein mentioned.

Whenever it may be practicable, the service of the notice shall be made on the person therein named.

When such person cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him; and if no such adult male member can be found, the notice may be served by fixing the copy on the outer door of the house in which the person therein named ordinarily dwells or carries on business; and if such person has no ordinary place of residence within the district, service of any notice may be made by sending copy of such notice by post, in a registered cover addressed to such person at his usual place of residence.

PART III.

OF THE MAINTENANCE OF CANALS.

Entry for inquiry.

33. Whenever it shall be necessary to make any enquiry or examination in connection with a projected canal or with the maintenance of an existing canal, or with a projected flood-embankment or with the maintenance of an existing flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or other person acting under the general or special orders of a Canal Officer, may enter upon such lands as he may think necessary for the purpose, and may exercise all powers and do all things in respect of such lands as he might exercise and do if the Government had issued a notification under the provisions of section four of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, to the effect that land in that locality is likely to be needed for a public purpose; and may set up and maintain water-gauges, and do all other things necessary for the prosecution of such enquiry and examination.

Power to inspect and regulate water-supply.

34. Such Canal Officer or other person may also enter upon any land, building, or village-channel on account of which any water-rate is chargeable, for the purpose of inspecting or regulating the use of the water supplied, or of measuring the lands irrigated thereby or chargeable with a water-rate, and of doing all things necessary for the proper regulation and management of the canal from which such water is supplied.

Power to enter for repairs, and to prevent accidents.

35. In case of any accident being apprehended or happening to a canal or flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or any person acting under his general or special orders in this behalf, may enter upon any lands adjacent to such canal or flood-embankment, and may execute all works which may be necessary for the purpose of preventing such accident, or repairing any damage done.

Notice to occupier of building, &c.

36. When such Canal Officer or person proposes, under the provisions of either of the three last preceding sections, to enter into any building or enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling-house not supplied with water flowing from any canal, and not being adjacent to a flood-embankment, he shall previously give to the occupier of such building, court, or garden such reasonable notice as the urgency of the case may allow.

Compensation for damage to land.

37. In every case of entry upon any land or building under section seven, section thirty-three, section thirty-four, or section thirty-five, the Canal Officer or person making the entry shall ascertain and record the nature of any crop, tree, building, or other property, to which damage has been done, and the extent of the damage done to any such property, and shall tender compensation to the proprietors or occupiers for all damage done to the same by the entry or by any works executed. If such tender is not accepted, the Canal Officer shall refer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon give notice in writing to the persons interested in such land and to the Canal Officer, requiring them to attend before him, on a date to be fixed in the notice, for the purpose of making enquiry as to the amount of compensation.

Appeal from Collector's decision to Commissioner's.

38. After such enquiry as he may think necessary, the Collector shall decide the amount of compensation payable; and such decision shall be subject to an appeal to the Commissioner of the Division, provided that such appeal be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the decision appealed against.

If no such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Collector, or if such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Commissioner, shall be final and conclusive.

Government to provide means of crossing canals and of drainage.

39. Suitable means of crossing canals constructed or maintained at the cost of Government shall be provided at such places as the Lieutenant-Governor thinks necessary for the reasonable convenience of the inhabitants of the adjacent lands; and suitable bridges, culverts, or other works shall be constructed to prevent the drainage of the adjacent lands being obstructed by any canal.

Collector to certify to the Government that means of crossing canals and drainage have been provided.

On the completion of any canal, or of any convenient section of any canal, the Collector, after causing such inspection to be made as may be necessary, shall certify to the Government that suitable and sufficient means of crossing the canal, and suitable and sufficient means of drainage, as aforesaid, have been provided; or shall report in what respects the provision made for the above purposes is defective; and if at any time after he shall have given such certificate it shall be brought to his notice that the provision made as above has proved insufficient, the Collector shall cause inquiry to be made into the circumstances of the case, and if the statement is established, shall report his opinion thereon for the consideration of the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Lieutenant-Governor shall cause such measures in reference thereto to be taken as he thinks proper.

PART IV.

OF DRAINAGE.

Lieutenant-Governor may prohibit formation of obstructions within certain limits.

40. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that injury to the public health or public convenience, or to any canal, or to any land for which irrigation from a canal is available, has arisen or may arise from the obstruction of any river, stream, or natural drainage-course, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, prohibit, within limits to be defined in such notification, the formation of any such obstruction, or may, within such limits, order the removal or other modification of such obstruction.

Thereupon so much of the said river, stream, or natural drainage-channel as is comprised within such limits shall be held to be a drainage-work as defined in section three.

Canal Officer may issue notice to person causing obstructions.

41. The Canal Officer or other person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in that behalf, may, after such publication, issue an order to the person causing or having control over any such obstruction, to remove or modify the same within a time to be fixed in the order.

Canal Officer may cause obstructions to be removed.

42. If, within the time so fixed, such person does not comply with the order, the Canal Officer may cause the obstruction to be removed or modified, and if the person to whom the order was issued does not, when called upon, pay the expenses of such removal or modification, such expenses shall be recoverable as a demand under the provisions of section one, Bengal Act VII of 1868 (an Act to make further provision for the recovery of arrears of land revenue and public demands recoverable as arrears of revenue).

When drainage works are necessary Lieutenant-Governor may order a scheme to be drawn up and carried out.

43. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that any drainage works are necessary for the public health, or for the improvement or proper cultivation or irrigation of any lands in districts to which the provisions of the Bengal Embankment Act 1873 do not apply, or that protection from floods or other accumulations of water, or from erosion by a river, is required for any lands, the Lieutenant-Governor may cause a scheme for such works to be drawn up and carried into execution, and the persons authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor to draw up and execute such scheme may exercise in connection therewith all or any of the powers conferred on Canal Officers by sections thirty-three, thirty-four, and thirty-five, and shall be liable to any or all of the obligations imposed upon Canal Officers by sections thirty-six and thirty-seven.

Disposal of claims to compensation.

44. Whenever, in pursuance of a notification made under section forty, any obstruction is removed or modified;

or whenever any drainage-work is carried out under the last preceding section, all claims for compensation on account of any loss consequent on the removal or modification of the said obstruction or the construction of such work, may be made before the Collector, and he shall deal with the same in the manner provided in Part II; but no compensation shall be allowed for any damage arising from increase of percolation.

Limitation of such claims.

45. No such claim shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from the occurrence of the loss complained of, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

PART V.

OF VILLAGE-CHANNELS.

Definition of person.

46. "Person" in this Part includes any number of persons acting jointly.

Register of village-channels to be kept.

47. The Canal Officer shall keep a register of all village-channels, whether already existing or constructed under this Act, and shall note thereon in respect of every village-channel whether it is a public channel maintained at the cost of the Government, or a private channel maintained at the cost of the owners; and shall register the names of the owners of every such private channel.

Extension or branch of village-channel to be registered.

A village-channel made as an extension of, or a branch to, an existing village-channel shall be registered as a separate village-channel; and so much of the length of any village-channel as lies within the limits of any one village or mouzah shall be entered on the register as a separate village-channel. Every section of a village-channel so separately entered on the register shall be deemed to be a separate village-channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Canal Officer may register as one village-channel a section including portions lying within two or more villages.

Provided always that whenever it shall seem fit to the Canal Officer for any special reason to enter upon his register as one village-channel a section of a village-channel which includes portions lying within two or more villages or mouzahs, the Canal Officer may, with the consent of the Collector obtained in writing, register such section as one village-channel, and such section shall be deemed to be one village-channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Any person may acquire an existing village-channel by agreement.

48. Any person may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, acquire the property in an existing village-channel for the purpose of improving or maintaining it—

(a) by taking over any village-channel belonging to Government;

(b) by transfer of a village-channel from the owner thereof by private agreement.

Any person may construct a new village-channel with consent of owners or occupiers.

49. Any person may, with the permission of a Canal Officer, construct a new village-channel if he has obtained the consent of the owners and occupiers of the land required therefor.

Any person may construct village-channel by applying to Canal Officer.

50. Any person desiring the construction of a new village-channel, but being unable or unwilling to construct it under a private arrangement with the owners and occupiers of the land affected, as mentioned in the last preceding section, may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating that he desires the said Canal Officer, in his behalf and at his cost, to do all things necessary for constructing such village-channel;

that he is ready to defray all costs necessary for acquiring the land and constructing such village-channel.

Procedure when Canal Officer considers construction of village-channel expedient.

51. If the Canal Officer considers the construction of such village-channel expedient, he may call upon the applicant to deposit any part of the expense such Officer may consider necessary, and upon such deposit being made, shall cause inquiry to be made into the most suitable alignment for the said village-channel, and shall mark out the land which, in his opinion, it will be necessary to occupy for the construction thereof, and shall forthwith publish a notification in every village through which the village-channel is proposed to be taken, that so much of such land as is situated within such village has been so marked out, and shall send a copy of such notification to the Collector of every district in which any part of such land is known to be situate for publication on such land.

Person wishing to be joint owner must make his application within thirty days.

Such notification shall also call upon any person who wishes to be admitted a joint owner of such village-channel to make his application in that respect within thirty days of the publication of such notification. If any such applicant appears, and his application is admitted, he shall be liable to pay his share in the construction of such village-channel and in the cost of acquiring such land, and shall be an owner of such village-channel when constructed.

Collector to acquire land.

52. On receipt of copy of such notification, the Collector shall proceed to acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, as if a declaration had been issued by the Government for the acquisition thereof under section six of that Act, and as if the Government had thereupon directed the Collector to take order for the acquisition of such land under section seven of the said Act, and (if necessary) as if the Government had issued orders for summary possession being taken under section seventeen of the said Act.

Procedure after construction of village-channel.

53. On being put in possession of the land the Canal Officer shall construct the required village-channel; and on its completion shall give to the applicant notice thereof, and of any sum payable by him on account of the cost of acquiring the land and constructing the village-channel. On such notice being given, such sum shall be due from the applicant to the Canal Officer. On receipt of payment in full of all expenses incurred, the Canal Officer shall make over possession of such village-channel to such applicant.

Canal Officer may direct transfer of a village-channel.

54. Whenever a Canal Officer considers that the transfer of a village channel from the owner is necessary for the proper management of the irrigation from such village-channel, he may cause a notice to be served on the registered owner to appear on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after service of notice, and to prefer any objection to such transfer. After hearing such objection the Canal Officer may order that such village-channel shall be transferred to such person as he may think fit, and that such person be registered as owner of the said village-channel:

Provided that no person shall be registered as the owner of a village-channel under this section, unless he has expressed in writing his willingness to be so registered, and until he has paid to the Canal Officer such sum as may be fixed by the Canal Officer under section fifty-six.

A person may be admitted joint owner of an existing village-channel.

55. Any person wishing to become the joint owner of an existing village-channel may petition the Canal Officer to that effect, and on receipt of such petition the Canal Officer may, if he think fit, issue a notice as provided in the last preceding section, upon the registered owner, and after hearing any objection which the registered owner may prefer against the admission of such applicant to be a joint owner, may direct that the applicant shall be registered as such joint owner.

Canal Officer shall determine compensation to be paid for transfer or acquisition of joint ownership.

56. When deciding the question of transfer or of admission to joint ownership under either of the two last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall also determine what amount shall be paid—as the costs of the proceedings;

as compensation to the previous owners;

and the amount so determined shall be due by the transferee or the person admitted to registry as a joint owner, as the case may be; and on payment of such amount, the village-channel shall be transferred, or the applicant shall be registered as owner or as a joint owner thereof, as the case may be.

Canal Officer may fix rent for a village-channel transferred.

57. Instead of awarding payment of compensation under the last preceding section, the Canal Officer may fix an amount of rent to be paid annually to the previous owners by the persons to whom the village-channel is transferred.

Ownership of village-channel.

58. Every person

(a) acquiring a village-channel as provided in section forty-eight; or

(b) constructing a village-channel as provided in section forty-nine; or

(c) receiving possession of a village-channel as provided in section fifty-three; or

(d) acquiring a village-channel by transfer, as provided in section fifty-four, or

(e) being admitted to registration as joint owner in a village-channel, as provided in section fifty-five, shall be deemed to be an owner of such village-channel.

Obligations and rights of owner of village-channel.

59. Every owner of a village-channel shall be bound—

(a) to construct and maintain all works necessary for the passage across such village-channel of canals, village-channels, drainage-channels, and public roads existing at the time of its construction, and of the drainage intercepted by it, and for affording proper communications across it for the convenience of the occupants of neighbouring lands;

(b) to maintain such village-channel in a fit state of repair for the conveyance of water;

(c) to allow the use of it to others on such terms as may be declared equitable by the Canal Officer as hereinafter prescribed;

and shall be entitled—

(d) to have a supply of water by such village-channel at such rates and on such terms as are prescribed by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine;

(e) to receive such rent for the use of the village-channel by other persons as the Canal Officer may award him.

If owner of village-channel fails to execute works or make repairs, Canal Officer may execute them on his behalf.

60. If the owner of a village-channel fails to fulfil the obligations mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of the last preceding section the Canal Officer may require him by notice to execute the necessary works or repairs within a period not being less than fifteen days, and in the event of failure, may execute them on his behalf; and all expenses incurred by the execution of such works or repairs shall be a sum due by such owner to Government; and if any such owner who has already failed on one occasion to execute such works or repairs when required to do so, and has left them to be executed on his behalf by the Canal Officer, shall again fail to execute any such works or repairs when required to do so; or if any such owner shall refuse in any respect to fulfil the obligation mentioned in clause (c) of the last preceding section, after having been required to fulfil the same by a notice in writing from the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer may strike such village-channel off the register, and so disqualify it to be any longer a medium for the conveyance of canal water.

Resignation of ownership.

61. Any owner may resign his interest in a village-channel, provided such resignation be duly registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Owner may transfer interest.

62. Any owner of a village-channel may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, transfer his interest to any other person, provided that the liabilities of the person so transferring shall not cease till such transfer is registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Procedure on death of owner of village-channel.

63. If any owner of a village-channel dies, his legal representative may apply for registration in his stead. If no such application for registry be made within six weeks from the death of the said owner, the remaining registered owners of the village-channel, if any, shall be deemed to be owners of the entire interest in the village-channel, until some other person shall have established his claim to be registered as owner in place of the deceased. If the deceased shall have been the sole registered owner, the Canal Officer shall be deemed to be his representative for the purposes of this Part, and shall exercise all rights and be bound by all liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of his ownership of the said village-channel, until some person shall have established his right to be registered as owner thereof in place of the deceased; and the Canal Officer shall account to such person for all sums received and expended in the exercise of the rights and discharge of the liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of such ownership.

Procedure when any person applies for registration in lieu of deceased owner.

64. When any person applies for registration under the three last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the other registered owners to prefer any objection to the resignation, transfer, or succession within fifteen days, and if no such objection shall be made, or if the objections made be deemed invalid, shall order such resignation, transfer, or succession to be registered.

Interest of owners equal, unless unequal interests registered.

65. All joint owners of a village-channel shall be held to have an equal interest in it, unless, with the permission of the Canal Officer, they register specific unequal interests.

Person other than owner may have supply of water through village-channel under certain conditions.

66. Any person not an owner of a village-channel, desiring to have a supply of water through such village-channel, may make a private arrangement with the owners for the conveyance of water, or may apply to the Canal Officer for authority to use such village-channel.

Canal Officer may authorize supply.

67. On receipt of such application, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the owners to show cause why such permission should not be granted, and if no objection be raised, or if any objections be raised, and found invalid, shall authorize the conveyance of such supply on such conditions as may appear to him equitable.

Canal Officer to fix a sum as rent of village-channel.

68. The Canal Officer shall also fix a sum as rent to be paid for the use of such village-channel to the owner. Such rent may be in the form of a percentage on the water-rate of the person using the village-channel, or otherwise, as may be fixed by the Canal Officer.

Owner of a village-channel receiving supply through another village-channel.

69. The owner of a village-channel which receives its water through another village-channel may, at the discretion of the Canal Officer, either be declared a joint owner of such other village-channel, or may be required to pay rent for the use of the same to the owner thereof, as provided in the last preceding section.

Instalments in which rent is payable.

70. All rent payable under either of the two last preceding sections shall be deemed to be due in the same instalments and at the same periods as the water-rate is due, or in such other instalments and at such other dates as the Canal Officer may direct, and may be collected by the Canal Officer on behalf of the person entitled to it, if the Canal Officer thinks fit.

Canal Officer not to pay more than amount actually collected as rent.

71. Any Canal Officer collecting rent under the last preceding section on behalf of any person entitled thereto, shall be bound to pay to the person entitled to the same no more than the amount actually collected by him as rent.

Land acquired for a village-channel may not be used for other purpose.

72. No land acquired under this Part for a village-channel shall be used for any other purpose without the consent of the Canal Officer previously obtained.

Dues how to be recovered.

73. Every sum declared to be due under this Part shall be recoverable by the Canal Officer on behalf of the Government or of the person entitled to receive the same, and shall be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, or any other similar Act for the time being in force.

PART VI.

OF THE SUPPLY OF WATER.

Water to be supplied on written application only.

74. Every person desiring that water shall be supplied to his land from a canal, shall present a written application to that effect to the Canal Officer, in the form given in Schedule (B) hereto annexed, or in a similar form, binding himself by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under the powers vested in him by this Act; and no person shall be liable to pay any rate or due whatever, on account of water supplied to his land with the permission of the Canal Officer, otherwise than on such application, nor shall water be supplied otherwise than on such application.

Written permission to be given.

75. If the application mentioned in the last preceding section be granted by the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer shall cause his permission to be recorded in the form given in Schedule (C) hereto annexed, or in some similar form, binding himself by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor as aforesaid.

Rules to be subject to certain conditions.

76. All rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine shall be consistent with the following conditions:—

Power to stop water-supply;

(a) The Canal Officer may not stop the supply of water to any village-channel, or to any person who is entitled to such supply, except in the following cases:—

(i) whenever and so long as it is necessary to stop such supply for the purpose of executing any work ordered by competent authority;

(ii) whenever and so long as any village-channel is not maintained in such repair as to prevent the wasteful escape of water therefrom;

(iii) whenever and so long as it is necessary to do so in rotation to supply the legitimate demands of other persons entitled to water;

(iv) whenever and so long as it may be necessary to stop the supply in order to prevent the wastage or misuse of water.

claims to compensation in case of failure or stoppage of supply;

(b) No claim shall be made against the Government for compensation in respect of loss caused by the failure or stoppage of the water in a canal, by reason of any cause beyond the control of the Government, or of any repairs, alterations, or additions to the canal, or of any measures taken for regulating the proper flow of water therein, or for maintaining the established course of irrigation which the Canal Officer considers necessary; but the person suffering such loss shall be entitled to such remission of the ordinary charges payable for the use of the water as is authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor:

claims on account of interruption from other causes;

(c) If the supply of water to any land irrigated from a canal be interrupted otherwise than in the manner described in the last preceding clause, the occupier or owner of such land may present a petition for compensation to the Collector for any loss arising from such interruption, and the Collector shall award to the petitioner reasonable compensation for such loss:

duration of supply;

(d) When the water of a canal is supplied for the irrigation of a single crop, the permission to use such water shall be held to continue only until that crop comes to maturity, and to apply only to that crop; but if it be supplied for irrigating two or more crops to be raised on the same land within the year, such permission shall be held to continue for one year from the commencement of the irrigation, and to apply to such crops only as are matured within that year:

sale or sub-letting of right to use canal-water;

(e) No person entitled to use the water of any canal, or any work, building, or land appertaining to any canal shall sell or sub-let or otherwise transfer his right to such use without the permission of the Canal Officer, but all contracts made between Government and the owner or occupier of any immoveable property, as to the supply of canal-water to such property, shall be transferable therewith, and shall be presumed to have been so transferred whenever a transfer of such property takes place contracts for water transferable with land.

77. On application being made for a supply of water to be used for purposes other than those of irrigation, the Canal Officer may give permission for water to be taken for such purposes, under such special conditions and restrictions, as to the limitation and control of the supply, as he shall think proper to impose in each case.

Canal Officer may supply water for purposes other than those of irrigation.

PART VII.

OF WATER-RATES.

Charge for water how determined.

78. The rates to be charged for canal-water supplied for purposes of irrigation shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor, and all persons accepting the water shall pay for it accordingly.

Liability when person using water unauthorizedly cannot be identified.

79. If water supplied through a village-channel be used in an unauthorized manner, and if the person by whose act or neglect such use has occurred cannot be identified, the persons on whose land such water has flowed, if such land has derived benefit therefrom, or if no land has derived benefit therefrom, all the persons chargeable in respect of the water supplied through such village-channel in respect of the crop then on the ground, shall be liable to the charges made for such use, as determined by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine.

Liability when water runs to waste.

80. If water supplied through a village-channel be suffered to run to waste, and if, after enquiry by the Canal Officer, the person through whose act or neglect such water was suffered to run to waste cannot be discovered, all the persons chargeable in respect of the water supplied through such village-channel for the crop then on the ground shall be jointly liable for the charges made in respect of the water so wasted, as determined by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine.

All questions arising under this and the last preceding section shall be decided by the Canal Officer, subject to the provisions of section ninety-one.

Charges recoverable in addition to penalties.

81. All charges for the unauthorized use or for waste of water shall be deemed to be water-rate due on the crop, and may be recovered as such water-rate in addition to any penalties incurred on account of such use or waste.

Power to contract for collection of canal-dues.

82. The Canal Officer may enter into an agreement with any person for the collection and payment to the Government by such person of any sum payable under this Act by a third party.

Any sum payable under this Part deemed to be rent.

83. Any sum lawfully due under this Part, either to the Government, or to any person who has entered into an agreement to collect dues for the Government and certified by the Canal Officer to be so due, shall be deemed to be rent payable on a pottah or engagement in respect of the land irrigated, and shall be recoverable as such by the person to whom it is payable.

Provided that the claim (if any) for rent in respect of such land shall have priority over any claim for arrears of water-rate so far as regards recovery of rent by the exercise of the power of distraint.

Person who distrains may be called on to produce account.

84. If any person distrains half or more than half of any crop on account of which water-rate is due, such person shall be bound, on requisition by the Canal Officer, to furnish him with an account showing how the produce thus distrained has been appropriated in payment of such rent, and the Canal Officer shall be entitled to challenge such account before any Court competent to try suits for arrears of rent in respect of the land in question, and such Court, if it finds that the value of the crop distrained was in excess of the amount of rent which had been due for a period not longer than a year, together with the costs of the distraint, may require the distrainer to pay the water-rate due on such crop.

Arrears of water-rate deemed to be a demand under Bengal Act VII of 1868.

85. Every arrear of water-rate which is due to Government, and every sum due to Government by any person on account of collections of water-rate, and every sum due to such person on account of water-rate and certified by the Canal Officer to be so due, shall also be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, and may be recovered as provided in that Act, together with the costs of executing the processes.

Sections eighty-two to eighty-five do not apply to fines.

86. Nothing in sections eighty-two to eighty-five (inclusive) applies to fines.

PART VIII.

87. Whenever a dispute arises between two or more persons in regard to their mutual rights or liabilities in respect of the use, construction, or maintenance of a village-channel, any such person interested may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating the matter in dispute. Such officer shall thereupon give notice to the other persons interested that, on a day to be named in such notice, he will proceed to enquire into the said matter, and, after such enquiry, he may pass his order thereon, or may transfer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon enquire into and pass his order on the said matter.

88. Whenever any dispute arises among joint owners of a village-channel as to their shares of expense or as to the amounts severally contributed, or as to failure on the part of any owner to contribute his share, the matter may be decided after inquiry by the Canal Officer or Collector, as provided in the last preceding section.

Order passed by Collector and Canal Officer to remain in force until set aside by Civil Court.

89. Any order passed by the Collector, under either of the two last preceding sections, and, subject to the provisions of section ninety-one, any such order passed by a Canal Officer, shall remain in force until set aside by the decree of a Civil Court, and may be executed by any Canal Officer as if it were a decree of the Civil Court.

Jurisdiction as to suits arising out of powers of distraint.

shall be cognizable by the same Court or authority as would have jurisdiction if such water-rates were rent due for the land irrigated.

91. Every order passed by a Canal Officer under Part V, Part VI, Part VII, or Part VIII of this Act, shall be appealable to the Collector, provided that the appeal be presented within thirty days of the date on which the Canal Officer made the order appealed against; and no appeal shall lie against any proceeding or order of the Collector under this Act, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, but all such proceedings and orders shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner of the Division and of the Board of Revenue, who may pass such order thereon as they may respectively think fit.

Power to summon and examine witnesses.

92. Any officer empowered under this Act to conduct any enquiry may exercise all such powers connected with the summoning and examining of witnesses, as are conferred on Civil Courts by the Code of Civil Procedure; and every such enquiry shall be deemed a judicial proceeding.

Preamble.

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title and commencement.

1. This Act may be called the "Bengal Municipal Act, 1876"; and it shall come into force on such date as the Local Government may direct, not being more than three months after the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

Enactments repealed.

2. On the commencement of this Act the enactments specified in the fifth schedule shall be repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof; and the enactment specified in the sixth schedule shall cease to be in force in every Municipality under this Act to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof.

But this repeal shall not revive any office, authority, or thing abolished by any such enactment, or affect the validity of anything done or suffered, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued before the commencement of this Act.

And all rules and bye-laws prescribed; assessments, valuations, measurements, divisions, and appointments made; powers conferred, and notifications published under any such enactment; and all other rules (if any) now in force and relating to the matters hereinafter dealt with, shall (so far as they are consistent with this Act) be deemed to have been respectively prescribed, made, conferred, and published hereunder.

And all references to any such enactment shall (so far as may be practicable) be deemed to be made to this Act.

And all proceedings now pending, which may have been commenced under any such enactment, shall be deemed to be commenced under this Act.

In reference to all the matters aforesaid, the Commissioners under Chapter II shall, in respect of every Municipality, be substituted for the late Commissioners, or Town Committee (as the case may be);

(b) animals exempt from any municipal tax under section 25 of the Indian Volunteers' Act, 1869;

Tax so fixed to continue in force until altered.

123. Any order of the Commissioners imposing a tax under the last preceding section shall continue in force until rescinded, and the tax shall be levied at the rates specified in the order published as aforesaid, unless and until the Commissioners at a meeting, held not less than fifteen days before the end of the year, make and publish an order specifying any different rates at which the tax shall be payable for the ensuing year.

Licenses how to be obtained.

124. In any Municipality in which a tax has been imposed under the last preceding section, the owner of every carriage, horse, and other animal specified in the third schedule shall, within the first month of each half-year, forward to the Commissioners a statement in writing, signed by him, containing a description of the carriages, horses, and other animals liable to the tax for which he is bound to take out a license.

Such owner shall at the same time pay to the Commissioners such sum as shall be payable by him for the current half-year for the carriages, horses, and other animals specified in such statement, according to the rates specified in any order for the time being in force under the two last preceding sections.

Proportionate tax on carriages, &c., acquired during half-year.

125. If any person acquires possession at any time after the commencement of any half-year, of any carriage, horse, or other animal specified in the third schedule, in respect of which no license has been given for such half-year, he shall forward a statement as above required within one month of the date on which he may have acquired possession thereof, and shall pay such amount of the tax as shall bear the same proportion to the whole tax for the half-year as the unexpired portion of the half-year bears to the half-year; and such amount shall be calculated from the date on which such person may have acquired possession as aforesaid.

On payment of tax, Commissioners to give a license.

126. On receiving the amount of the tax due as aforesaid, the Commissioners, or some person authorised by them in that behalf, shall give to the person paying the same a license for the several carriages, horses, and other animals for the period in respect of which the amount is received.

Such license shall be for the current half-year and no longer.

Carriage, &c., liable to the tax although the owner be absent.

127. Whenever the owner of any carriage, horse, or other animal liable to pay the said tax is not resident within the limits of the Municipality to the Commissioners of which the tax is due, the person in whose immediate possession the carriage, horse, or other animal is for the time being kept shall take out a license for the same.

Penalty.

128. Whoever keeps or is in possession of any carriage, horse, or other animal without the license required by the three last preceding sections, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such license, exclusive of the amount so payable.

Commissioners may compound with livery stable-keepers.

129. The Commissioners at their discretion may compound, for any period not exceeding one year, with livery stable-keepers and other persons keeping carriages or animals for hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the carriages or animals so kept by such person, in lieu of the tax at the rates specified in any order made by the Commissioners under sections 122 and 123.

List of persons licensed to be prepared.

130. The Commissioners shall from time to time cause to be prepared and entered in a book, to be kept by them, and to be open to the inspection of any person interested therein, a list of the persons to whom, during the then current half-year, a license has been given, and of the carriages, horses, and other animals in respect of which they have paid the tax.

Power to inspect stable, &c., and to summon persons liable to the payment of the tax.

131. The Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may at any time between sunrise and sunset enter and inspect any stable or coach-house, or any place wherein they may have reason to believe that there is any carriage, horse, or other animal liable to the tax for which a license has not been duly taken out.

And the Commissioners may summon any person whom they have reason to believe to be liable to the payment of any such tax, or any servant of such person, and may examine such person or servant as to the number and description of the carriages, horses, and other animals in respect of which such person is liable to be taxed.

Refund of tax in certain cases.

132. On proof being given to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that a carriage, horse, or other animal for which a license has been taken out for any half-year has ceased to be kept or to be used within the Municipality during the course of such half-year, the Commissioners shall order a refund of so much of the tax for the half-year as shall bear the same proportion to the whole tax for the half-year as the period during which such carriage, horse, or other animal has not been kept or used in the Municipality bears to the half-year; but no such refund shall be allowed unless notice be given to the Commissioners within one month of the time when such use of such carriage, horse, or other animal ceased, and the Commissioners shall pass no order for refund until after the close of the half-year in respect of which the refund is claimed.

This section shall not apply to carts—

(a) which are the property of the Government or of the Municipality;

(b) which are kept without the limits of the Municipality, and are only temporarily and casually used within such limits;

(c) which are kept in Howrah or within the Suburbs of Calcutta.

134. The registration of carts under the last preceding section shall be made, and the numbers assigned yearly or half-yearly, upon such days as the Commissioners shall notify, and such fee as they shall from time to time fix and notify, not exceeding four rupees if the registration has effect for a year, and not exceeding two rupees if the registration has effect for half a year, shall be paid for each registration.

Proportionate payment of fee.

135. Any person becoming possessed of any cart which has not been registered for the then current period of registration, shall register the same within one month of the date on which he may have become possessed thereof, and the Commissioners shall grant registration in any such case on payment of such amount of the fee as shall bear the same proportion to the whole fee for the current period of registration as the unexpired portion of the current period of registration bears to the whole of such period; and such fee shall be calculated from the date on which such person may have become possessed as aforesaid.

Transfer of ownership.

136. When the ownership of any registered cart is transferred within any period of registration, it shall be registered anew within one month of the transfer in the name of the person to whom it has been transferred, and a fee not exceeding four annas shall be paid for every such last-mentioned registration.

Penalty.

137. Whoever keeps or is in possession of a cart not duly registered as required by the three last preceding sections, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such registration, exclusive of the amount so payable; and whoever, being the owner or driver of any cart, shall fail to affix thereto the registration number as required by section 131, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Seizure and sale of unregistered cart.

138. If any person owns or keeps any cart hereinbefore required to be registered without having caused the same to be registered, the Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may seize and detain such cart (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods), together with the animals drawing the same; and all police officers are required, on the application of the Commissioners, or of any servant of the Commissioners duly authorized in that behalf, to assist in the said seizure.

After such seizure the Commissioners shall forthwith issue a notice in writing that after the expiration of ten days they will sell such vehicle and animals by auction at such place as they may state in the notice; and if any registration fee, together with the cost arising from such seizure and custody, remains unpaid for ten days after the issue of such notice, the Commissioners may sell the property seized for payment of the said fee, and of all expenses occasioned by such non-payment, seizure, custody, and sale.

Any balance that may remain out of the proceeds of the sale shall be returned, on demand, if made within twelve months, to the owner of the property, and if unclaimed after such period, shall be credited to the Municipal Fund.

Provided that if at any time before the sale is concluded the person whose cart has been seized shall tender to the Commissioners, or the person authorized by them to sell the cart, the amount of all the expenses incurred, and the registration fee payable by him, the Commissioners shall forthwith release the cart so seized.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the surplus of the sale proceeds of a cart seized under this section may be devoted to the payment of any fine imposed under the last preceding section; and any cart which has been seized under this section may be sold for the realization of any such fine.

On the cancelment of a lease, the Commissioners may take possession of all boats and other appliances which have been used by the lessee in the working of the ferry; and may either retain the same permanently on payment of a fair price to the proprietor, or may retain them for such time as may be necessary, not exceeding three months, until they can make arrangements for such other boats and appliances as may be necessary, in which case the Commissioners shall pay a fair price to the owners for the use of the said boats and appliances.

Provided that within a week of taking such possession the Commissioners shall be bound to give notice to the said lessee of the intention to retain the said boats and appliances permanently, or of the period during which they intend to retain them, as the case may be.

183. If the person making such objection be present at the office of the Commissioners, the said order shall be explained to him orally: and if such order cannot be so explained, notice of such order shall be given to the person making the objection in the manner prescribed by section 364; and such explanation of or service of the notice of the said order shall be deemed a requisition duly made under this Act to execute the work or do the thing required.

Every panchait shall consist of three or five respectable persons residing or carrying on business in or near to any such Union, or in or near to any such division thereof:

Provided that instead of any one such person, the Magistrate may appoint any person whom he may think fit to be a member of the panchait notwithstanding such person may not reside or carry on business in or near to such Union, or in or near to any such division thereof.

Duties of panchait.

325. The panchait so appointed, or the majority of them, shall, once in every year, if required so to do by the Magistrate, prepare and make, in accordance with the rules laid down in the requisition, an assessment upon the several persons liable to be assessed in respect of their occupation of property within the Union, or any ward thereof as aforesaid for which the panchait shall be appointed, and shall enter the same in a list which shall specify the names of the several occupiers of property within such Union or ward thereof liable to be assessed under the provisions of this Chapter, the trade, business, or other description of such occupier, the property occupied, and the amount payable monthly by such occupier.

Revised assessment to be deemed a new one.

Every assessment which shall be revised according to the provisions of section 327 shall be deemed a new assessment;

Provided that if no new assessment is made within the first three months of any year, a notification of the list of the previous year shall be published as required by section 330, and such list shall thereupon be deemed to be the assessment for the current year, and shall be open to appeal under the next succeeding section.

If panchait refuse or omit to act, Magistrate may assume their functions.

336. If the persons appointed a panchait, or a majority of them, refuse or omit, for a period of fifteen days after the receipt of an order from the Magistrate, to perform the duties required of them, the Magistrate may himself make or revise the assessment, and may enforce the same as if it had been made or revised in the first instance by the panchait:

59. The said Court may make such order as it shall think fit with regard to the payment by the parties of the cost of the enquiry and proceedings.

Provided that no costs shall be recoverable from the parties on account of the issue of notices citing the parties and fixing a date for the first hearing of the case.

PART V.

OF THE OPENING OF SEPARATE ACCOUNTS IN RESPECT OF SHARES.

No separate account to be opened otherwise than in accordance with registered interest.

67. Notwithstanding anything contained in Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of land, &c.), from the commencement of this Act no separate account shall be opened under the provisions of section 10 or of section 11 of the said Act in respect of the share of any applicant under the said sections otherwise than for a share corresponding with the character and extent of interest in the estate in respect of which such applicant is recorded as proprietor or manager under this Act.

Application to close a separate account.

68. Whenever any share in respect of which a separate account has been opened by the Collector under section 10 or section 11 of the said Act XI of 1859, or under section 71 of this Act, shall no longer correspond with the character and extent of interest held in the estate by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, any proprietor or manager whose name is borne on the General Register under this Act as proprietor or manager of any interest in the share in respect of which such separate account is open, may submit to the Collector a written application setting out the circumstances under which such share no longer corresponds with the extent of interest held in the estate by any one or more recorded proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more recorded proprietors or managers, and specifying the manner in which such share has become broken up and distributed among the proprietors of the estate, and praying that the separate account standing open in respect of such share shall be closed, and, if he so desire, praying that another separate account be opened in respect of any other share or shares which were wholly or partly included in the share in respect of which the previous separate account was open.

Illustration.

In a certain estate separate accounts have been opened under section 10, Act XI of 1859 for the 4 annas share of A, and also for the 5 annas share of B, the accounts of the remaining 7 annas share being kept jointly in the names of the remaining proprietors C, D, and E.

In course of time X has inherited A's 4 annas share, and also C's interest in the 7 annas share, which amounted to 3 annas; X has also acquired by purchase 2 annas out of B's 5 annas share, so that the interests in the estate are now distributed as follows :—

X	... ...	9 annas.
B	... ...	3 „
D & E	...	4 „

X, if a recorded proprietor of the estate, may apply to the Collector to close the separate account which is open in respect of A's 4 annas share, and also the separate account which is open in respect of B's 5 annas share, as neither of these shares corresponds with the extent of interest held by any one proprietor, or held jointly by two or more proprietors in the estate;

and in the same application X may apply for the opening of a separate account in respect of the 9 annas share which he now holds.

Separate account may be closed and another opened.

69. On receipt of such application the Collector shall cause a copy of the same to be published in the manner provided in section 10 of Act XI of 1859; and if within six weeks from the date of such publication no objection is made by any other recorded proprietor of the estate, the Collector shall close the separate account which then stands open, and shall open a separate account with the applicant as required by him, under section 10, or section 11 of Act XI of 1859, or under section 71 of this Act, as the case may be.

Effect of objection.

70. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the share in respect of which any separate account is open as aforesaid has not been broken up, and does still correspond with the character and extent of interest held by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, or object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less or other than that claimed by him.

or, when the application is in respect of a specific portion of the land of an estate or in respect of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, object that the amount of Government revenue stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land, or on account of the applicants undivided interest therein, is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the Government revenue thereof, the Collector shall refer the parties to the Civil Court, and shall suspend proceedings until the question at issue is judicially determined.

Proprietor holding undivided interest in specific lands may apply for separate account.

71. When a recorded proprietor of a joint estate whose share consists of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, but not extending over the whole estate, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the land in which he holds such undivided interest and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of Government revenue heretofore paid on account of such undivided interest. On the receipt of this application the Collector shall cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in

In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector shall open a separate account with the applicant, and shall credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it.

The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Sections 12, 13, and 14 of Act XI 1859 applicable.

72. Section 12 of the said Act XI of 1859 shall apply to every application made under the last preceding section; and the effect and consequences of opening a separate account under the last preceding section shall be such and the same as are described in section 13 and in section 14 of Act XI of 1859.

PART VI.

73. The Collector shall supply an extract from any Register mentioned in this Act to any person who may apply for the same, subject to the payment of such fees for searching and copying as may be prescribed by the Board.

Collector must furnish translation of extract.

74. If in any district any Register prescribed by this Act has not been prepared and kept up in the vernacular language and character of the district, the Collector shall be bound, together with any English extract which may be furnished under the last preceding section, to furnish a translation of the same in the vernacular language and written in the vernacular character of such district; and no further charge shall be made in respect of the furnishing of such translation than might have been charged in respect of the extract in English furnished under the said section.

and if application shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by any person interested in such dispute praying that the Lieutenant-Governor do take action under the powers vested in him by this Act, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by an order to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, declare the provisions of this Act to be in force in such tract, the boundaries of which shall be defined in the said order, and may direct that inquiry be made for the determination of such dispute by the Collector of the district, or by such other officer as the Lieutenant-Governor may think fit to appoint in that behalf.

A copy of such order shall be published by being posted up at the court of every Judge and Munsif, and at the office of every Collector and Sub-Divisional Officer within whose jurisdiction, and at every police station within the jurisdiction of which, the said tract or any part of it is situated, and in such one or more conspicuous places in the said tract as the Collector may direct.

Power to Collector to enforce attendance of witnesses.

7. For the purpose of such inquiry, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of parties and witnesses, to examine such parties and witnesses, and to compel the production of documents by the same means (as far as may be) and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Collector to draw up report, and to allow persons to take copies of the same.

8. After making the necessary inquiry, the Collector shall draw up a report stating the result of the inquiry, and his own opinion on each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, and shall publish a notice in his office stating that any person may take a copy of the said report for the purpose of advancing before the Commissioner any objections thereto which he may think fit, and that such objections must be filed in the office of the Commissioner, or in the office of the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within fifteen days of the publication of the said notice.

Board to issue instructions to Collector.

10. After considering the reports and objections submitted by the Commissioner under the last preceding section, the Board shall issue such instructions as to it shall seem fit, not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, in respect to the determination of each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, and the Collector shall make an order determining each of the said matters in accordance with such instructions of the Board.

Suits to be transferred to Collector.

11. On receipt of such instructions the Collector shall publish a notice of such receipt at his office, and from the date of the publication of such notice, and as long as this Act is in force in the tract mentioned in section three, all suits of the nature of those specified in section 23 of Act X of 1859, relating to such tract, shall be instituted before, and, except as hereinafter otherwise expressly provided, be cognizable by, the Collector and by no other tribunal.

Collector to send copy of notice to Courts.

12. As soon as possible after publication of the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, the Collector shall send a copy thereof to every Court which had jurisdiction to entertain such suits immediately before the publication of the said notice.

Procedure in suits.

13. In the disposal of such suits the Collector shall, as far as possible, follow the procedure prescribed in Act X of 1859, and all powers exercised by a Collector under the said Act may be exercised by the Collector under this Act, provided that all such suits shall be decided by a reference to, and in accordance with, any order of the Collector determining a matter under section ten, in so far as such order may be applicable.

Power to refer to arbitration.

14. The Collector may, with the consent of the parties concerned, refer any such suit to arbitration, and the provisions of sections 313 to 325 (both inclusive) of the aforesaid Act VIII of 1859 shall, as far as may be practicable, apply to such references.

Rules for determining rate of rent.

14A. Whenever in any suit instituted under the provisions of this Act it shall appear to the Collector that a ryot having a right of occupancy is liable to enhancement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been increased otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the ryot;

or whenever in any such suit it shall appear to the Collector that such ryot is entitled to claim an abatement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been decreased by any cause beyond the powers of the said ryot, the Collector shall, if possible, fix the rate of rent payable by such ryot, so that the rent previously paid by such ryot shall bear to the rent so fixed the same proportion as the former value of the produce of the soil, calculated on an average of three or five years rent before the date of the alleged rise or decrease in value, bears to the present value of such produce;

but if in any such suit the Collector shall not be able to ascertain to his satisfaction the former value of the produce as required for the application of the above rule, the Collector may determine the rate of rent payable by such ryot according to any of the following methods:—

(a) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the existing average gross value of the produce of the land held by him as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(b) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the average net profits of the land held by him (after deducting from the average gross annual value of the produce of such lands such a sum as may be deemed proper on account of costs of production and disposal of such produce) as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(c) by taking as the standard of comparison the rates which are generally paid by ryots having no right of occupancy in adjacent places, or in such places as the Collector may select, for lands of a similar description and having similar advantages; and by fixing the rates of rent to be paid by the ryot having a right of occupancy at such percentage below the rent which would be paid for the same lands by ryots having no right of occupancy as the Collector may consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case.

Suit may be brought by or against any number of ryots collectively.

15. In every suit under this Act of the nature of those specified in the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of section 23 of Act X of 1859, any number of ryots or other tenants may be sued, or may sue collectively, and it shall be no ground for dismissing or refusing to hear the application that such ryots or other tenants are wrongly joined as plaintiffs or defendants, provided all such ryots or tenants hold land in the same estate; but no order shall be passed in such case unless the officer making such order is satisfied that all parties have had an opportunity to appear and make objection to any claims preferred against them; and if at any time it shall appear to the Collector that the question between any two of the parties of whom one is so joined with others cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, the Collector may order a separate trial to be held.

Order to specify how far it applies to each ryot.

16. Every order passed in any such case as is mentioned in the first clause of the last preceding section, shall specify the extent to which each of the ryots or other tenants named in the order shall be affected thereby.

Rate of rent once fixed under Act, to be fixed for five years.

17. Every decree of a Collector under this Act in any suit of the nature of those specified in the first clause of section 23 of Act X of 1859 shall have effect, and the rates of rent determined by such decree shall be payable from the beginning of the year in which such suit was instituted (such year being computed according to the era in force in the aforesaid tract), or from such later date as the Collector may fix; and the rates of rent so determined shall not be liable to abatement or enhancement for five years from the first day of the year in which the decree may have effect as provided in this section, or, in case any part of the tract is comprised within a tenporarily-settled estate, until the conclusion of the period of the settlement with Government under which such estate is held, if such period expires before the lapse of five years as aforesaid.

Provided that, during the currency of the term for which the rent has been fixed as aforesaid, any person may bring a suit to enhance the rent of any ryot or tenant whose rent has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the ryot's or tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

And any ryot or tenant may, during the said period, bring a suit for abatement of his rent which has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the land held by him has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

Collector may refer suit o Civil Court.

18. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if it shall appear to the Collector that any suit which is pending before him involves any question relating to the title of land or to some interest in land, as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, or any other question which can more properly be decided by a civil court, or, in districts in which Act X of 1859 is in force, by a revenue court under that Act, the Collector may transfer such suit to a civil court or revenue court (according to whether such civil court or such revenue court would have had jurisdiction in the matter if this Act had not been passed); and such court shall thereupon proceed to deal with the suit as if this Act had not been passed, and as if the suit had originally been instituted before such court.

Collector may decide question before transferring suit to civil court.

19. If such suit involves a question of rent or any other question which may properly be settled by the Collector under this Act, as well as a question which may more properly be decided by such civil court or revenue court, the Collector may decide the former question under this Act before transferring the suit to such other court; and such decision shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in respect of appeals, and the civil court or revenue court shall be bound to give the final decision in the suit in accordance with the decision of the Collector or of the appellate authority under this Act on such question, so far as such decision is applicable.

Enforcement of decisions.

20. Every order and decree of a Collector under this Act may be enforced by the same means and in the same manner as if such order or decree were an order or decree to the same effect made under Act X of 1859.

Powers of Collector after withdrawal of Act.

21. Notwithstanding that the Lieutenant-Governor may have issued a notification as provided in section three declaring this Act to be no longer in force in any tract, the Collector shall proceed to decide all suits pending before him on the date of issue of such notification as if no such notification had been issued; and in respect of all such suits and of all other matters and suits which may be pending before the Board, the Commissioner, or the Collector on the date of the issue of such notification, the said Board, Commissioner, and Collector shall, until such matters or suits are finally decided or disposed of, exercise the same powers with respect thereto as if such notification had not been issued.

Suit to contest order or decree under this.

22. No suit to contest any order or judgment of any officer under the provisions of this Act shall be instituted before any court or tribunal otherwise than as provided in this Act.

Control and supervision of Commissioner and Board.

23. In the performance of their duties under this Act, the Deputy Collectors shall be subject to the general control and direction of the Collector, the Collector to the general control and direction of the Commissioner, and all officers to the general control and direction of the Board.

Appeal to and from Collector.

24. An appeal shall lie to the Collector against every order and judgment of a Deputy Collector under this Act, except as hereinafter otherwise provided; but no appeal shall lie against any order or judgment of the Collector under this Act except as hereinafter expressly provided.

No appeal from any decree of Collector for money below Rs. 100, unless the decision involve some question of right to enhance rents or some question relating to a title to land.

25. In suits of the nature of those specified in clauses two, four, and seven of section twenty-three of Act X of 1859, when such suits have been tried and decided by the Collector, if the amount sued for, or the value of the property claimed, does not exceed one hundred rupees, the judgment of the Collector shall be final and not open to revision or appeal, unless in any such suit a question of right to enhance or otherwise vary the rent of a ryot or tenant, or any question relating to a title to land, or to some interest in land as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, has been determined by the judgment, in which case the judgment shall be open to appeal in the manner provided in section twenty-eight.

The provisions of section 154 of Act X of 1859 shall apply to all suits in which the judgment of the Collector is final.

No appeal to lie against judgment declaring arrear due unless arrears have been paid.

26. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act; no appeal shall lie against any order declaring arrears of rent to be due and directing that such arrears be paid, unless such appeal shall be accompanied by the certificate of the Collector that the amount of such arrears has been paid to the Collector; and on payment of such amount, the Collector, if required so to do by the person making such payment, shall be bound to grant such certificate, and to hold the amount in deposit until the appeal against his order shall have been disposed of, or until the period for making such appeal shall have expired.

Appeal against judgment of Deputy Collector.

27. When any such suit as is mentioned in section twenty-five in which, if tried and decided by the Collector, the judgment of the Collector would be final, is tried and decided by a Deputy Collector, an appeal from the judgment of the Deputy Collector shall lie to the Collector, and the provisions of sections 156 to 159 (both inclusive) of the said Act X of 1859 shall apply to such appeals.

In what suits appeal to lie to Commissioner and to Board.

28. In all suits other than those in which when tried and decided by a Collector, the judgment of the Collector is final as aforesaid, or when tried and decided by a Deputy Collector, an appeal is allowed to the Collector, an appeal from the judgment of the Collector or Deputy Collector shall lie to the Commissioner, and the decision of the Commissioner shall be final, unless the amount or value in dispute exceed five thousand rupees, in which case an appeal from the Commissioner's decision shall lie to the Board.

Time for presenting appeals from orders.

29. Every appeal against the order of a Deputy Collector shall be presented to the Collector within fifteen days, and every appeal against the order of a Collector shall be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the date of the order appealed against.

Every appeal against the order of a Commissioner shall be presented to the Board, or to the Commissioner for transmission to the Board, within sixty days of the date of the order appealed against.

Orders passed in appeal by a Commissioner or a Collector shall not be open to any further appeal, except as hereinbefore provided: but the Board or the Commissioner may at any time call for any case, and pass such orders thereon as they may think proper.

From Commissioner of Dacca, dated 9th June 1875, and enclosure.
From Commissioner of Patna, dated 14th July 1875, and enclosures.
From Commissioner of the Orissa Division, dated 16th July 1875, and enclosures.
From Commissioner of Patna, dated 16th August 1875
Demi-official letter from H. Mosley, Esq., Joint-Magistrate, Arrah, dated 29th December 1875.
Notes by J. Beams, Esq., Collector of Cuttack.
Notes by T. E. Ravenshaw, Esq., Commissioner of Orissa.
Memorandum by Baboo Joykisto Mookerjee.
From Collector of Gyah, dated 10th January 1876.
From Collector of Shahabad, dated 17th January 1876.

After having the benefit of considering the opinions and suggestions of the officers noted in the margin, we have made material changes in the form and the provisions of the Bill, and have introduced some important additions.

We have divided the Bill into ten Parts.

PART I.

In the first Part we have added numerous definitions; and have made alterations in the definitions of "Deputy Collector," "Estate," and "the Collector."

We have provided that partitions of estates in progress when the Bill comes into force may be completed either under the procedure of the old law, or of this Bill, as the Collector may think best, and that certain provisions of the Bill as to striking cases off the file after estates have been admitted to partition may be applied to such pending cases. We have reproduced in other words the provision of the existing law, that the land revenue shall be assessed on each separate estate into which the parent estate is broken up, in proportion to the assets of such estate.

We have laid down a rule for calculating the rental of land to form the basis of partition proceedings.

PART II.

In view of the provisions of the Bill for the compulsory registration of estates and of the interests of proprietors therein which is now before this Council, we have provided that only recorded proprietors of joint undivided estates, who are in actual possession of the proprietary interests in respect of which they are recorded on the Collectors' registers, shall be entitled to claim partition of estates, and separation of the interests which they hold therein.

We have specified the different kinds of interests which proprietors ordinarily hold in estates, and have defined the rights of the holders of each kind in respect of the assignment to them of lands as their separate estates.

We have debarred the holders of life interests only in estates from applying for partition of such estates.

We have provided that no partition shall be made which would result in the formation of a separate estate liable for an annual amount of revenue less than twenty rupees, and of which the assets would be less than two hundred rupees, unless the proprietor of such estate agrees to redeem the revenue for which such estate would be liable, by a capitalized payment at such rate as the Lieutenant-Governor may determine with reference to the circumstances of each case.

We have provided that when an estate has been divided by private arrangement of the proprietors, and the lands are held in severalty by the proprietors in accordance with such arrangement, no partition of such estate shall be made under the provisions of the Bill otherwise than on the joint application of all the proprietors.

We have provided that no partition shall be made of which the effect would be to break up a compact estate into one or more estates consisting of lands so scattered as to endanger the public revenue.

We have provided that nothing in this Bill shall relieve the entire parent estate from its joint liability for the whole amount of land revenue assessed upon it until the partition proceedings are completed, and the applicant for partition has been finally put in possession of the separate estate representing his interest; from which time each separate estate formed by the partition will become separately liable for the amount of land revenue assessed upon it. Up to such time we have left it to joint proprietors to protect their several interests by causing separate accounts to be opened for their respective shares under Act XI of 1859.

PART III.

We have laid down in detail the procedure for dealing with applications for partition; and have required applicants to file copies of their rent rolls and statements of their collections with their applications when possible.

We have provided that when objection is made to the extent of interest claimed by an applicant or a question of right and title is raised, as between the applicant and other persons claiming to be proprietors, it shall be in the discretion of the Collector either to refuse to make the partition, or, if satisfied that the applicant is in possession in accordance with his claim, to direct that the partition shall proceed in accordance with the applicant's claim, or to direct that the proceedings be postponed for four months in order to give the objector an opportunity of instituting a suit to try the question in dispute.

We have provided that if the objector fails to avail himself of such opportunity, or if he fails to bring a suit within four months of the date on which the Collector has ordered the partition to proceed notwithstanding his objection, or within four months of the date on which the Collector has admitted an estate to partition, no objection having been made to such admission, he shall by such laches forfeit his right to recover any interest in common tenancy of the parent estate.

No suit brought after the expiration of the four months shall be allowed to stay or to interfere with the partition proceedings; and every decree passed in such suit will be subject to such proceedings, so that any right which the plaintiff may recover will give him a status in that separate estate only which is in process of being formed for, or, which has been assigned to the individual proprietor from whom the plaintiff is declared by the decree to be entitled to recover.

We have provided that the Collector may employ a Deputy Collector to make the enquiries connected with an application, but that all important orders shall be passed by the Collector himself.

We have provided that as soon as the Collector has ordered a partition to be made, he may appoint a Deputy Collector to carry out the partition.

We have provided that after an estate has been admitted to partition, the case may be struck off the file at the joint request of the parties thereto, or, by order of the Commissioner for good and sufficient reason.

PART IV.

We have empowered the officer making the partition to appoint the necessary ameens and establishments for carrying it out, and to fix their remuneration under sanction of the Commissioner; and have authorized the appointment of special establishments in the office of the Collector and of the Commissioner when the partition cases to be supervised are so numerous or extensive as to require such agency.

We have defined what items shall be deemed costs leviable from the parties to a partition.

We have provided that in districts in which partitions are numerous, instead of leaving the expenses of each partition to be dealt with separately, the Lieutenant-Governor may order the formation of a general fund for the partition of estates to which all sums levied on account of making partitions shall be credited, and all costs of establishments entertained for that purpose and other expenses charged; and for districts in which the partition work is so heavy as to require this organization, we have provided that the salary of the Deputy Collector whose time is employed in making the partitions shall form a portion of the expenses leviable from the parties.

We have provided that where a general fund is formed, the expenses may be levied from the parties in the shape of fees on a scale to be fixed by the Board so as to keep the receipts and charges of the fund as far as possible in equilibrium, and that the accounts of the fund of each district shall be published annually for general information.

We have given power to the Commissioners to order that any proprietor who wilfully delays the progress of a partition and thereby increases the cost of it, shall be required to pay more than his proportionate share of the expenses.

PART V.

We have provided that rent-rolls and measurement papers filed shall be verified by a person who has a personal knowledge of the facts.

We have laid down the procedure as to the summoning of parties and witnesses and the enforcement of the production of papers, and have provided that the cost of any special enquiry which is rendered necessary by the delay of any party to make an objection at the proper time shall be borne entirely by such party.

PART VI.

We have provided for partitions being effected by the parties themselves and by arbitrators, such partitions being subject to the approval of the revenue officers for the protection of the public revenue.

PART VII.

We have provided that the general arrangement of the partition shall be devised, and the situation of the several separate estates indicated, by the Deputy Collector himself, in consultation with the parties; thus depriving the ameens of the power of suggesting and initiating such general arrangements, which they now enjoy and notoriously abuse.

In order to avoid the unnecessary delay and waste of labor which is caused by the Collector at a later stage of the proceedings disapproving of the general arrangement made by the Deputy Collector, we have provided that the approval of the Collector to the general arrangement proposed by the Deputy Collector shall be obtained before its details are carried out.

We have allowed the officer conducting the partition to award the payment of compensation to persons whose attendance at the office on days fixed for hearing has been rendered fruitless by the fault of others.

We have laid down the procedure for completing the details of a partition, and for the consideration and approval or amendment or rejection by the Collector of a partition as made by the Deputy Collector.

PART VIII.

In re-enacting the existing rules for the guidance of officers making partitions, and in adding new rules to clear up certain points which have hitherto been doubtful, we have distinguished between rules applicable to estates of which the lands are held in common tenancy, to estates of which the lands are held in severalty, and to estates of both classes.

We have made compactness of the estate a consideration secondary to the main object of making an equitable partition.

We have provided that whenever the dwelling-house of one proprietor is situated on land which is unavoidably assigned to the separate estate of another proprietor, the former shall be allowed to hold the land on which it is situated on payment of a rent to be fixed in perpetuity by the officer making the partition; and that this annual rent may be redeemed by payment of a capitalized sum.

We believe that this provision will be appreciated as a boon by those concerned.

We have empowered the officer making the partition to make a similar arrangement allowing a proprietor to hold, on a fixed rent, as tenant of another proprietor, orchards and other lands which have acquired a special value to him, or through the improvement made by him, but we have not provided that the rent fixed on such lands may be redeemed.

We have provided that when lands of an estate are held in severalty by the proprietors in accordance with a private arrangement made by them, such estate shall not be brought under partition otherwise than on a joint application from all the proprietors thereof.

We have allowed the Collector to give effect under this law not only to the private division of lands as made among themselves by the proprietors, but also to any private arrangement which they may have made as to the proportions of the whole land revenue for which each proprietor's share shall be liable; provided always that such private arrangement can be accepted with reasonable security to the public revenue, and not otherwise.

We have laid down rules as to the mode of allotting lands held without payment of rent, and lands held on permanent intermediate tenures, the rent of which cannot be altered by the proprietors or their representatives.

We have prescribed a procedure for dealing with lands held in common between the proprietors of the estate under partition and the proprietors of other estates.

We have laid down how the Collector is to act in case of a boundary dispute between the estate under partition and another estate.

We have provided that in cases in which a dispute has been raised before the Collector as to whether any lands belong to the estate under partition or to any other estate, and the Collector has included the disputed land on the partition, the fact of such disputed land being subsequently declared by a Civil Court not to have belonged to the estate which was under partition shall not disturb the partition, but that the proprietor who is dispossessed of such land after it has been assigned to his separate estate by the Collector, shall be entitled to recover compensation on account of the reduction in the proportionate value of the separate estate assigned to him; such compensation being recoverable from the proprietors of the separate estates on which a proportionate share of the loss caused by the decree of the Civil Court in respect of the said lands does not fall.

We have provided that the officer making the partition may, in his discretion, allot equal separate estates according to lot, or may, with the sanction of the Collector, dispense with lots; and we have provided that two or more shares may be aggregated so as to form equal shares for the purpose of casting lots.

PART IX.

We have prescribed a procedure for the Commissioner in dealing with partition cases; and have authorized the Collector to cause boundary marks defining the separate estates formed by the partition to be erected at the cost of the proprietors; and have provided that such marks shall be maintained as provided in the Bengal Survey Act, 1875.

PART X.

We have provided that a tenure created by one or more proprietors of a joint undivided parent estate, but not by all the proprietors of such estate jointly, shall, after partition of the estate, hold good in respect of, and be confined to, the separate estate which has been assigned to the proprietors who created such tenure.

We have generally retained the provisions of the existing law empowering the Lieutenant-Governor to readjust the apportionment of land revenue on separate estates where fraud is discovered within twelve years of a partition.

We have specified the mode of publication of general notifications, and of service of notices on individuals.

We have empowered the Collector to enforce compliance with his requisitions by imposition of a daily fine.

We have provided that the cost of any local enquiry may be dealt with apart from the general expenses of a partition, and levied from any party on whom the officer making the partition thinks proper to impose the payment of such cost.

We have provided that all sums payable under this Bill shall be leviable as demands under Bengal Act VII of 1868.

We have specified the orders of a Deputy Collector, of a Collector, and of a Commissioner respectively, against which an appeal will lie as of right to the superior revenue authority, but we have provided that all proceedings and orders of every subordinate authority will be subject to supervision, control, and revision by the superior authorities.

We have authorized the Commissioner and the Board to pass such orders as they think proper as to the payment of costs of appeals made to them respectively.

We have provided that the Lieutenant-Governor may vest any Collector or Deputy Collector employed on a partition with any powers with which such officer might be vested if the parent estate were under settlement.

We have provided that under the orders of a Civil Court or of the Board, partition of a revenue-free tenure may be made under the provisions of the Bill.

We have provided that a revenue officer may exercise the same powers as a civil court in respect of false evidence given on forgery brought to light in the course of partition proceedings.

We have defined the orders of revenue officers which shall be final, and not liable to be contested in any civil court, or otherwise than as provided in this Bill.

We have reserved a general power of control to the Lieutenant-Governor, and have provided that the Board shall make rules for the guidance of officers;

And we have made other verbal and minor changes in the Bill, as referred to us.

N.B.—In signing this report I think it proper to mention, with reference to Part II of this Bill, that I am opposed to those provisions of the Bill for the compulsory registration of estates which require the registration of the extent of interest possessed by proprietors, and that it is my intention to move an amendment regarding those provisions when that Bill comes before the Council.

H. REYNOLDS.

Exception 4.—If any land be unoccupied, such amount as the Collector may determine, with reference to all the circumstances of the case, shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

PART II.

OF THE RIGHT TO CLAIM PARTITION.

Who entitled to claim partition.

8. Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, every recorded proprietor of a joint undivided estate, who is in actual possession of the interest in respect of which he is so recorded, is entitled to claim a partition of the said estate, and the separation therefrom and assignment to him as a separate estate of lands representing the interest of which he is in such possession, provided that, and as far only as, such partition, separation, and assignment can be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Any two or more such recorded proprietors may claim that lands representing the interests of all such claimants may be formed into one separate estate to be held by them as a joint undivided estate; and every provision of this Act which applies to an applicant for partition shall apply to any two or more persons making such joint claim.

Partition according to interest.

9. (a) If the interest of any recorded proprietor who is entitled to claim partition as aforesaid is an undivided share in an estate held in common tenancy, such person shall be entitled to have assigned to him lands of which the assets shall bear the same proportion to the assets of the parent estate as his undivided share in the parent estate bears to the entire parent estate.

(b) If the interest of such recorded proprietor is the proprietary right of certain specific mouzahs or lands forming part of the parent estate, and held by him in severalty, he shall be entitled to have assigned to him the said mouzahs or lands.

(c) If the interest of such recorded proprietor consists of an undivided share held in common tenancy in certain specific mouzahs or tracts forming part of the parent estate, (but not extending over the whole area of the parent estate,) he shall be entitled to have assigned to him lands situated within such specific mouzahs or tracts, of which the assets shall bear the same proportion to the assets of such specific mouzahs or tracts as the share which he holds in such specific mouzahs or tracts bears to the entire mouzahs or tracts.

Provided that if the interest of such recorded proprietor consists of such undivided share in more than one mouzah or tract, he shall not be entitled to have lands assigned to him in every such mouzah or tract; but the Collector may assign to him lands situated in any one or more of the said mouzahs or tracts, provided that the assets of such lands are in proportion to the aggregate of the interests which he holds in all such mouzahs or tracts.

(d) If such recorded proprietor holds in the parent estate more than one of the kinds of interest him as far as possible in accordance with the principles above laid down.

Life estate.

10. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no person having a proprietary interest in an estate for the term of his life only shall be deemed to be a person entitled to claim partition under this Act.

No partition allowed which results in forming separate estate liable for less than twenty rupees annual land revenue.

11. No application for the partition of an estate shall be admitted, and no partition of an estate shall be made if the result of such partition would be to form any separate estate liable for an annual amount of land revenue less than twenty rupees, and of which the assets would be less than two hundred rupees, until the proprietor of such separate estate agrees to redeem the amount of revenue for which his estate would be liable, by payment of such sum as the Lieutenant-Governor may fix with reference to the circumstances of such estate.

Partition of an estate in which private division has been made, not to be made except on joint petition of proprietors or on order of Civil Court.

12. Whenever a division of the lands of any estate has been made by private arrangement of the proprietors thereof, and in accordance with such arrangement each proprietor is in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing his interest in the estate, no such estate shall be brought under partition and no partition of such estate shall be made under this Act otherwise than on a joint petition presented by all the proprietors thereof, unless such partition shall have been ordered to be made by a Civil Court.

Under certain circumstances Collector may refuse to declare lands held in severalty to be a separate estate.

13. The Collector may refuse to admit an application for the formation of lands held in severalty into a separate estate, if in consequence of such lands being intermingled with those held by other proprietors the result of the partition would be to form out of a compact estate one or more estates consisting of scattered parcels of land, in such a way as, in the opinion of the Collector, to endanger the safety of the public revenue, and the Collector may at any time refuse to proceed with a partition which would have such a result.

But a partition may be allowed in such a case if the recorded proprietors shall agree to such a distribution of land as shall make the estates formed by the partition reasonably compact, or if the person who would on the completion of the partition be proprietor of such scattered separate estate agrees to redeem, in the manner provided in section 11, the amount of revenue for which his separate estate may be made liable.

Nothing in this section shall be understood to prohibit the partition into separate estates of a parent estate which before such partition is not compact and consists only of scattered parcels of land.

Interest alienated with special condition as to revenue liability.

14. No proprietor who has alienated any portion of his interest in an estate or in any specific lands of an estate, by private contract, with the condition that the estate is liable (such amount or share being other than the proportionate amount or the proportionate share for which such transferred interest if formed into a separate estate would be liable under the provisions of section 6); and no proprietor who has derived his title from any proprietor who has made any alienation as aforesaid, shall be entitled to claim a separation under this Act of the interest which he continues to hold in the estate; and no such transferee as aforesaid, and no person deriving his title from such transferee, shall be entitled to claim a separation of the interest which has been so acquired:

Provided that a separation of such interests may be made, if the parties concerned agree to waive the conditions of the contract as regards the proportion of revenue for which the transferor and transferee or their representatives respectively are liable, and to hold the estates which may be allotted to them respectively by the partition, subject to the payment of such amount of land revenue as may be assessed upon them respectively by the revenue authorities under his Act.

Arrears of revenue may be realized by sale of parent estate.

15. Notwithstanding that a parent estate may have been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, any arrears of revenue accruing due on such estate before the date specified in the notice issued under section 119 may be realized by sale of the parent estate as if such estate had not been declared to be under partition; and if such sale takes place the partition proceedings shall cease from the date thereof.

Shares may be protected from liability for arrears under laws in force.

16. Nothing contained in the last preceding section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of sections 10, 11, 12, 13, or 14 of Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sale of lands for arrears of revenue), or any provisions of any similar law for the time being in force in respect to the opening of separate accounts for different shares in an estate, and the protection afforded to such shares thereby:

Provided that if any share in any estate is sold for its own arrears of revenue while such estate is under partition in accordance with the provisions of this Act, such share shall be sold subject to the partition proceedings, which shall proceed as if no such sale had taken place; and the purchaser of the share sold may, from the date of such sale, exercise all the rights which the proprietor whose share he has purchased might have exercised, and shall be subject to all the liabilities to which such proprietor would have been subject, in respect of the partition proceedings.

PART III.

OF THE APPLICATION FOR PARTITION; THE ADMISSION OF AN ESTATE TO PARTITION; AND THE DISCONTINUANCE OF THE PARTITION PROCEEDINGS AFTER SUCH ADMISSION.

Application for partition

17. All applications for partition shall be made to the Collector of the district on the revenue-roll such stamp as may be required by any law for the time being in force.

Application to be signed, and certain particulars specified.

18. The application shall be signed by the applicant, and shall supply the following information in regard to the parent estate, so far as the particulars are known to the applicant or can be ascertained by him:—

(a) name of the estate;

(b) number under which the estate is borne on the revenue-roll, and the revenue demand for which it is liable;

(c) number under which the estate is borne on the Collector's general register of revenue-paying lands;

(d) name and address of every proprietor, whether recorded or unrecorded;

(e) the character and extent of the right of which each proprietor is in possession;

(f) a specification of any lands held by all or any of the proprietors of the parent estate in common with all or any of the proprietors of other estates, and of the rights of such proprietors.

Application must be accompanied by copy of rent-roll and statement of rents.

19. Subject to the provisions of section 59, every application shall, if possible, be accompanied by a copy of the rent-roll of the estate, by a statement of the rents collected from such estate on behalf of the applicant during each of the three years immediately preceding such application, and by copies of any measurement papers of the estate which the applicant may have in his possession.

The said rent-roll, statement, and measurement papers shall be attested by the patwari or patwaris of the villages, if any, and every such application, rent-roll, and statement shall be presented, subscribed, and verified as provided in section 43.

If the applicant is unable to produce a rent-roll or statement as above required, he shall state the reason of such inability, and the name and address of the person who has in his possession the information necessary for the preparation of such rent-roll and statement, and the Collector may, if he shall think fit, require such person to produce such rent-roll and statement.

Collector may reject application.

20. If the application does not fulfil the requirements of the three last preceding sections, the Collector may reject such application or may order it to be amended.

Procedure of Collector on receipt of application.

21. If, in the opinion of the Collector, the application fulfils the said requirements and there appears to be no objection to making the partition applied for, the Collector shall publish a notification of the application in the manner prescribed in section 130, and shall also cause copies thereof to be posted up at the Court of the Judge of the district, at the court of every Munsif and Sub-divisional Officer within whose jurisdiction, and at every Police Station within the jurisdiction of which any lands appertaining to the estate are known to be situated, and shall invite any person claiming any proprietary right in the estate, who may object to the partition, to state his objection either in person or by duly authorized agent, on a day to be specified in the notification, not being less than thirty or more than sixty days from the date of the publication of the notification on the estate.

Notice to proprietors who have not joined therein.

22. Notice of the application shall also be served in the manner prescribed by section 131, on such of the recorded proprietors of the estate as shall not have joined in the application, and on any other proprietor who may have been named in the application.

In case of valid objection being made within time allowed, application may be refused.

23. If any objection be made to the partition by any person claiming a proprietary right as aforesaid on or before the day specified in the notification published under section 21, or at any subsequent time if it shall seem fit to the Collector to admit such objection, and the Collector, on consideration of such objection, shall be of opinion that there is good and sufficient reason for rejecting the application, he may reject the same, and in that case shall record the grounds of such rejection.

Procedure when objection raises any question of title or right.

24. If the objection raise any question of the extent of interest, or right, or title as between any applicant and any other person claiming to be a proprietor of the parent estate, and if it shall appear to the Collector that such question has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Collector may hold such inquiry as he may deem necessary into the objection, and, if he be satisfied that the applicant is in possession of the extent of the interest for the separation of which he has applied may, instead of rejecting the application as provided in the last preceding section,

(a) direct that the partition proceedings shall proceed for the purpose of forming and assigning to the applicant a separate estate proportionate to the extent of interest claimed by him in the parent estate; or (b) direct that such proceedings be postponed for four months.

When Collector to resume proceedings.

25. At the expiration of the said four months, the Collector shall resume the proceedings, unless the person who has made the objection, or some other person, shall have obtained an order from a Civil Court directing that such proceedings be stayed, or shall be able to show that a suit has been instituted before such Court to try some question, of such nature that the Collector shall think fit to stay such proceedings until the question shall have been finally decided. [illegible] proceedings in such Court in respect thereof shall have terminated.

Suit in Civil Court when not to affect proceedings taken under this Act.

26. No suit instituted in a Civil Court by any person claiming any right or title in the parent estate, after the lapse of four months from the issue of an order of the Collector under clauses (a) and (b) of section 24, or after the lapse of four months from the issue of an order of the Collector under section 31, shall avail to stay or affect the progress of any proceedings which shall have been taken under this Act for the partition of an estate; and all rights which may be conferred on any person by the final decree in such suit shall be subject to such proceedings as hereinafter provided.

27. Every decree passed in such suit after the parent estate shall have been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, but before the date specified in the notice under section 119, shall be made in recognition of the proceedings then in progress under this Act for the partition of such parent estate, and shall be framed in such manner that the provisions of such decree may be applied to, and may be carried out in reference to the separate estates which the Collector in his proceeding under section 31 shall have ordered to be formed out of the parent estate; and if the effect of any such decree be to declare any person or body of persons, entitled to any extent of interest in such parent estate in excess of the extent of interest which the Collector in the said proceeding has declared to be held by such person or body of persons, such decree shall specify, separately in respect of every proprietor or body of proprietors, of whose interests the Collector has separately specified the extent in the said proceeding, the proportion of such excess which such person or body of persons is entitled to recover from each such proprietor or body of proprietors; and every person or body of persons so declared entitled to recover any extent of interest from any such proprietor or body of proprietors shall for the purposes of the partition proceedings be deemed to have the same rights, and to be subject to the same liabilities, as a person who has acquired such extent of interest from such proprietor or body of proprietors by private purchase, after the estate was brought under partition under section 31, and on the date on which the decree was passed; and such person or body of persons may apply, as in this Act provided, for the separation and assignment to him, or them, of the lands representing the extent of interest so acquired;

Decree made while partition proceedings are in progress.

and such application shall be dealt with under the provisions of section 32.

28. Every decree passed in such suit after the date specified in the notice under section 119, shall be made in recognition of the partition proceedings, and shall be framed in such manner as to give effect to such division of the parent estates into separate estates as shall have been made by the Collector, and not to disturb such division; and if the effect of any such decree shall be to declare any person or body of persons to have been entitled to any extent of interest in the parent estate in excess of the extent of interest which is represented by the separate estate assigned to such person or body of persons by the Collector in the partition proceedings, such decree shall specify, separately in respect of the proprietor or joint proprietors of every separate estate formed by the partition, the proportion of such excess of interest which such person or body of persons is entitled to recover from such proprietor or joint proprietors; and every person or body of persons so declared entitled to recover any extent of interest from the proprietor or joint proprietors of a separate estate shall be entitled to recover such extent of interest out of the separate estate which has been assigned to such proprietor or joint proprietors, and out of such separate estate only; and every such decree as aforesaid shall be executed by placing the person or persons so declared entitled to recover, in the position of a recorded joint proprietor or recorded joint proprietors of such separate estate, holding the same as a joint undivided estate in common tenancy with the proprietor or joint proprietors to whom such separate estate was assigned by the Collector in the partition proceedings, the extent of the interest of the joint proprietors respectively in such estate being such as is declared in the aforesaid decree.

Decree made after partition proceedings completed.

29. Subject to the provisions of section 11, a Civil Court may at any time direct the Collector to assign to any person lands representing a specified fractional interest in any estate or in any specified village or tract of land in an estate, to be held by such person as a separate estate; or to divide off from any estate any specified villages or lands, and to assign them to any person to be held as a separate estate; provided that an application for such partition and separation shall be presented by such person, as required by sections 17, 18, and 19; but no Civil Court shall in any case specify the amount of revenue for which any separate estate which it may direct to be formed under the provisions of this section shall be liable.

32. If at any time after the Collector has made an order for partition under the last preceding section, any recorded proprietor in the estate, other than the original applicant, shall apply for the separation of his share, the Collector may either order that the proceedings for effecting such separation shall be carried on simultaneously with those for separating the share of the original applicant, or if he consider that such a course would entail delay in the completion of the original proceedings, he may order that no action shall be taken on such subsequent application until after the proceedings for the separation of the original applicant's share shall have been completed.

In the latter case all or any of the rent-rolls, measurements, and other papers which were used in the separation of the original applicant's share, may be used, as far as they are applicable, in the partition for which subsequent application has been made.

Collector may refer application for partition to any Deputy Collector.

Partition may be stayed and proceedings quashed by Commissioner.

As soon as possible after an estate has been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, the cost of making the partition shall be estimated, and the amount shall be levied from the proprietors in such instalments and at such times during the progress of the partition as may be fixed in accordance with any rules which the Board may make in that behalf.

If the amount first estimated is found insufficient, supplementary estimates may be made from time to time, and the required amount may be levied as above provided.

Apportionment of costs.

40. The cost shall be apportioned on the proprietors of each share in proportion to their shares; but whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner that the partition proceedings have been unnecessarily delayed, and the cost of the partition enhanced by obstacles vexatiously put in the way of their completion by one or more of the proprietors, or by want of due diligence on the part of one or more of the proprietors in carrying out any requisitions made upon him or them, the Commissioner may direct that such portion of the cost as he may think proper in excess of the amount proportionate to his or their share shall be levied from such proprietor or proprietors.

41. Upon the completion of the partition, the Collector shall make an order declaring the total cost thereof. Rule when dwelling-house belonging to one proprietor is situate on ground to be allotted to another proprietor.

87. If a dwelling-house belonging to one proprietor is situated on any land which it may be necessary to include in the separate estate of another proprietor, the owner of such house may retain occupation thereof with the offices, buildings, and grounds immediately attached thereto, upon agreeing to pay rent for the land occupied by such dwelling-house, offices, buildings, and grounds to the proprietor of the separate estate in which such land is included.

The limits of the land so occupied and the rent to be paid for it in perpetuity shall be fixed by the Deputy Collector, and shall be stated in

In every such case a defined pathway shall, as far as possible, be secured to the owner of the house, leading from his house to some portion of the separate estate allotted to him.

Rule contained in last preceding section may be applied to gardens, orchards, &c.

88. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall think fit, he may apply the rule contained in the last preceding section to gardens, to orchards of trees, to land planted with bamboos, and to nijjote, sir, or khamar lands, which before the partition were held in the separate occupation of any proprietor; and to any other lands which in his opinion have gained a special value, or are of special value to the proprietor in whose occupation they are found to be, in consequence of improvements made by such proprietor or of the particular use to which such lands are put.

Calculation of rental.

89. In calculating the rental for the purposes of the partition, the rent fixed in perpetuity on any and by the Deputy Collector under either of the two last preceding sections shall be considered to be the rental of such land.

Rent may be redeemed.

90. Whenever the dwelling-house of one proprietor, with the offices, buildings, and grounds immediately attached thereto, shall have been included in the separate estate of another proprietor, and the annual rent to be paid in perpetuity in respect of the land occupied thereby shall have been fixed by the Deputy Collector and stated in the paper of partition, as provided in section 87, the proprietor whose dwelling-house, offices, buildings, and grounds have been included as aforesaid may apply to the Deputy Collector for permission to redeem the annual rent so fixed.

Deputy Collector to certify amount payable in redemption of rent.

91. The Deputy Collector shall certify the amount payable by such proprietor in redemption of such annual rent; and such amount shall be calculated and fixed by the Deputy Collector at ten per centum above the sum which would be required to purchase, at the market prices then prevailing, so much stock of the Government loan which was last issued as would yield an annual amount of interest equal to the annual land rent fixed by the Deputy Collector under section 87.

But not after possession of separate estates has been given.

92. The proprietor desiring to redeem the rent as aforesaid, may pay to the Deputy Collector the amount so certified at any time before possession is given to the several proprietors of the separate estates allotted to each, as provided in section 118, but not after such possession has been given.

Notice of payment to be given; and land to be held rent-free.

93. On receipt of such payment, the Deputy Collector shall give notice to the proprietor in whose separate estate such land is situated that such payment has been made, and that the sum paid will be paid to him or to his authorized agent on application; and that from the date on which possession as aforesaid may be given, the proprietor who has redeemed the rent of such land will be entitled to hold such land as a rent-free tenure secured against the proprietor of the estate and against any auction purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue, including the Government; and from such date the lands shall be so held as a rent-free tenure.

Collector to register rent-free tenure.

94. The Deputy Collector shall at the same time also give notice to the Collector of the district of the creation of such tenure; and the Collector of the district shall thereupon cause such tenure to be specially registered in the manner provided by section 42 of Act XI of 1859, or by any similar law for the time being in force.

Rules applicable to the formation into separate estates of lands which are held by proprietors in severalty.

Joint petition may be presented for partition according to private division.

95. Whenever in any parent estate a division of the lands thereof has been made by private arrangement of the proprietors of such estate, and in accordance with such arrangement each proprietor is in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing his interest in such parent estate, the joint application presented to the Collector by all the recorded proprietors of such estate as required by section 12 may be to the effect that a partition of such estate be made by assigning to each proprietor or to two or more proprietors jointly as his or their separate estate, the lands of which he or they are in separate possession in accordance with such arrangement, and also that each separate estate so formed be made liable for such portion of the entire land revenue of the parent estate, as was paid by the proprietor or proprietors thereof under the private arrangement aforesaid.

Partition according to private division to be referred to Collector.

96. The Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out the partition in accordance with such application, shall satisfy himself that the assets of each separate estate which it is proposed to form are sufficient to secure the payment of the annual amount of land revenue for which it is proposed to make such separate estate liable, and if the Deputy Collector be satisfied that in this respect, and with reference to all the circumstances of the case, the partition of the lands and the assessment of the revenue thereon may be made in the manner proposed without endangering the safety of the revenue, the Deputy Collector shall submit the case with his opinion thereon, and the reasons on which such opinion is founded, to the Collector, who may admit or reject the said application.

Effect of Collector's approval.

97. If the Collector admits the said application, such admission shall be deemed to be the Collector's approval of the general arrangement of the partition as provided in section 74, and the Deputy Collector shall proceed to complete the partition accordingly.

Such partition may be refused.

98. If the Deputy Collector, who is appointed to carry out the partition in accordance with a joint application as mentioned in section 95, is not satisfied that the partition of the lands and the assessment of the revenue payable thereon can be made in the manner proposed without endangering the safety of the public revenue, or if the Collector rejects the application for such partition, the Deputy Collector shall refuse to make same.

Joint petition may be presented for partition of land in accordance with private division with proportional redistribution of public revenue.

99. Whenever the proprietors of an estate are, in accordance with a private arrangement as aforesaid, respectively in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing their respective interests in the estate, the joint application presented to the Collector by all the recorded proprietors of the estate as required by section 12, may be to the effect that a partition of such estate be made by assigning to each proprietor, or to two or more proprietors jointly, as his or their separate estate, the lands of which he or they is or are in possession in accordance with such arrangement, and that the land revenue for which the parent estate is liable may be apportioned among the separate estates so formed, in accordance with the provisions of section 6.

A joint application under this section may be made notwithstanding that a joint application under section 95 has been refused in respect of the same estate.

Lands of which each proprietor is in possession to be allotted to him.

100. Whenever the Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out the partition, shall find that in accordance with a private arrangement made by the proprietors of an estate, the proprietors respectively, or any of the proprietors, are in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing portions only of their respective interests in the parent estate, while other lands of the parent estate are held in common tenancy between such proprietors, the Deputy Collector shall allot to the separate estate of each proprietor the lands of which such proprietor is found to be in possession in severalty, in accordance with such private arrangement.

Collector may cause transfer of lands agreed to by parties.

101. Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section, the Collector may cause any transfer of lands agreed to by the parties to be made from the possession of one proprietor to that of another.

Rules applicable both to lands held in common tenancy and to lands held in severalty.

Rule as to places of worship.

102. Places of worship, burning grounds, and burial grounds which have been held in common previous to the partition of an estate, and lands of which the proceeds have been assigned by the proprietors jointly for religious, charitable, or public purposes, shall continue to be held in common, unless the proprietors shall otherwise agree amongst themselves, in which case they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and the Deputy Collector shall enter a note of the agreement in the paper of partition.

Rule as to tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments.

103. Tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments shall be considered as attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

In cases in which, from the extent, situation, or construction of such works, it shall be found necessary that they should remain the joint property of the proprietors of two or more of the separate estates, the paper of partition shall specify the extent to which the proprietors of each of such estates may make use of the same, and the proportion of the charges for repairs to be borne by them respectively.

Lands held rent-free not to be divided.

104. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall find in the parent estate lands which are actually held rent-free (whether the proprietors of the estate do or do not claim a right to receive rent from such lands), the Deputy Collector shall make no division or assignment of such lands among the separate estates, but shall specify in the partition papers and proceedings that such lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent estate, in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent estate.

Rule as to permanent intermediate tenures.

105. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall find in the parent estate any lands which are held at a fixed rent on a patni or other permanent intermediate tenure created by all the proprietors of the parent estate or their predecessors, the Deputy Collector may either

(1) assign the lands which are held on such tenure and the assets thereof entirely to one or more of the separate estates, the rental being calculated as provided in Exception 2 or in Exception 3 (as the case may be) of section 7; or

(2) leave such lands unassigned to any separate estate, and specify in the partition papers and proceedings that the lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent estate in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent estate. In the event of such lands being so left undivided, the Deputy Collector shall assign to each separate estate such share of the rental of the tenure as shall bear the same proportion to the entire rental of the tenure, as the separate estate bears to the parent estate.

In dealing with a tenure under this section, the Deputy Collector shall take into consideration the extent of the lands comprised in the tenure, and all other circumstances of the case.

Lands held in common between the proprietors of two or more estates how to be dealt with.

106. Whenever any lands are held in common between the proprietors of two or more estates, one of which is under partition in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Deputy Collector shall first allot to the estate under partition a portion of such common lands of which the assets are in proportion to the interest which the proprietors of such estate hold in the said common lands; and all the provisions of this Act in respect of the allotment between the shareholders in one estate, of lands which are held jointly by such shareholders, shall, as far as possible, apply to the allotment of the proportionate share of such common lands to the estate under partition; and, in respect of the service of notices, hearing of objections, and all other procedure in view to such allotment, the proprietors of the estate under partition, and the proprietors of all other estates who have an interest in the said common lands, shall be deemed to be joint proprietors of a parent estate consisting only of the lands so held in common.

Provided that all expenses of any division proprietors of two or more estates shall be deemed to be expenses of making the partition of the estate which is under partition, and shall be leviable as provided by this Act from the proprietors of such estate, and that the proprietors of any other estate having an interest in such lands shall not be required to bear any portion of such expenses.

Proprietors of other estates may be required to pay a portion of expenses of partition.

107. Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section, if it shall appear to the Commissioner, on the report of the Collector or otherwise, that the proceedings for such division have been unnecessarily delayed, and the cost of such division enhanced by obstacles vexatiously put in the way of the completion of such division by any proprietor of any estate other than that under partition, or by want of due diligence on the part of any such proprietor in carrying out any requisitions made upon him, the Commissioner may direct that such sum as he shall think fit shall be levied from every such proprietor who is responsible for such delay or additional cost, and every sum so levied shall be taken in diminution of the amount payable by the proprietors of the estate under partition as costs of such partition.

Allotment of lands held in common to be sanctioned by Collector.

108 The allotment of the proportionate share of the lands so held in common to the estate under partition shall be submitted for the approval of the Collector, who may confirm, amend, or reject the same, and in the case of rejection, may make or direct to be made another allotment.

The portion of such common lands assigned to estate under partition how to be dealt with.

109. As soon as the allotment of a proportionate share of the said lands to the estate under partition shall have been approved by the Collector, the lands so allotted shall be dealt with in every respect as if they were held in common tenancy by such of the proprietors of the estate under partition as were found to hold interests in the common lands.

Procedure when dispute exists as to whether any lands form part of the parent estate.

110. If a dispute or doubt shall be found to exist as to whether any lands form part of the parent estate, the Deputy Collector shall enquire into the fact of possession, and shall report his conclusions, with the reasons thereof, to the Collector; whereupon the Collector may order that the partition be struck off the file (in which case no application for a partition of the said estate shall be admitted until the applicant can show that the dispute or doubt has been decided by a court of competent jurisdiction, or has been amicably settled); or if the Collector shall find that possession of the disputed lands is with the proprietors of the parent estate, and if it shall appear to him that the claim of the other parties to the right in such lands is untenable, he may order that the partition shall proceed, and that the disputed lands be treated as part of the estate under partition.

Procedure when Collector thinks that lands belong to parent estate.

Provided that no partition shall be made under this section, if such partition would involve the assignment to any separate estate of such a quantity of the disputed land that the removal of such land from such estate would, in the opinion of the Collector, endanger the safety of the land revenue for which any separate estate would liable be after the partition.

Procedure when partition completed and proprietor of an estate dispossessed by order of a competent court.

111. If, after a partition has been completed in accordance with an order passed by the Collector under clause three of section 110, the proprietor of any separate estate shall be dispossessed by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction of any lands which may have been assigned to his estate by the partition, such proprietor shall not be entitled to claim any modification of the partition (which shall hold good), but shall be entitled to recover from the proprietors of the other separate estates formed by the partition such compensation as may be fair and equitable having regard to the reduction in the proportionate value of his separate estate which is caused by such dispossession.

And such compensation may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction from the proprietors of those separate estates on which a proportionate share of the total loss caused by the order of dispossession does not fall.

Lots to be drawn for equal shares.

112. When two or more of the separate estates shall consist of the same proportions of the parent estate, the Deputy Collector may, if he think proper, direct the parties entitled thereto to draw lots in his presence for the equal separate estates which have been formed by assignment of lands, unless the recorded proprietors of the equal shares shall agree among themselves as to the allotment of the equal separate estates and shall present a petition to that effect; or, unless for any other reason the Deputy Collector shall, with the sanction of the Collector, think proper to assign the equal separate estates to the proprietors of the equal shares without causing lots to be drawn.

Drawing of lots when aggregate of two or more shares equals one share.

113. When the aggregate of two or more shares equals one other share or equals the aggregate of two or more other shares, the Deputy Collector, with the sanction of the Collector, may cause such aggregate shares to be treated as one share for the purpose of determining by lots as aforesaid how the several separate estates shall be allotted among the several proprietors; and may cause lots to be drawn as often as he shall think proper, in respect of the allotment of such aggregate shares; and for such purpose may decide which separate estates shall be formed into one aggregate share, and after the lots shall have been drawn in respect of such aggregate shares, may order that lots shall again be drawn for the allotment of any equal separate estates between the proprietors of such estates.

Provided that lots shall in no case be drawn until after all objections which any proprietor may make as to the papers accepted as the basis of the partition, and as to the assets of the lands which it is proposed to allot to the separate estates respectively, shall have been disposed of.

Illustrations.

I.—The partition of a parent estate is being made into the following shares:—

8 annas.
4 annas.
3 annas.
1 anna.

For the purposes of drawing lots, the 4 anna, 3 anna, and 1 anna share may be taken together, and considered to be an aggregate 8 annas share.

The Deputy Collector will divide the parent estate into two halves of equal value; and will then cause lots to be drawn, in order to determine which of the two halves shall be assigned to the proprietor of the integral 8 annas share, and which shall be divided among the proprietors of the 4 annas, 3 annas, and 1 anna shares.

Subsequently, if necessary, the Deputy Collector may again, cause lots, to be drawn by the proprietor of the 4 annas share on the one hand, and the proprietors of the aggregated share made up by taking together the 3 annas share and the 1 anna share.

II.—The partition is being made of a parent estate into the following shares:—

6 annas.
4 annas.
3 annas.
2 annas.
1 anna.

Two tracts in the estate may first be marked off the value of each being equivalent to a 6 annas share, and then, for the purpose of drawing lots, in respect of the assignment of these two tracts the 4 annas share and the 2 annas share may be taken together as an aggregate 6 annas share; and lots may be drawn, between the proprietors of the aggregated share so formed on the one hand, and the proprietor of the integral 6 annas share on the other.

One of the two 6 annas tracts having thus been finally assigned to the proprietor of the integral 6 annas share, the Deputy Collector will proceed to assign the rest of the estate among the remaining sharers, and he may again, for the purpose of causing lots to be drawn, mark off two tracts the value of each of which shall be equivalent to five annas of the parent estate, and may cause lots to be drawn for these two tracts between the proprietors of the four anna share and the 1 anna share taken together as an aggregate 5 annas share on the one hand, and the proprietors of the 3 annas share and the 2 annas share taken together as another 5 annas share on the other.

Finally, their separate estates will be assigned to the proprietor of the 4 annas share, and of the 1 anna share respectively, within the tract which fell to them jointly by lot; and their separate estates will be assigned to the proprietors of the 3 annas share and of the 2 annas share respectively within the tract which fell to them jointly by lot.

PART IX.

OF THE PROCEDURE BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER UP TO THE FINAL COMPLETION OF THE PARTITION AND SEPARATION.

If no appeal presented, Commissioner may consider the case without issue of notice.

114. If no appeal or objection shall be presented to the Commissioner within the time allowed by section 82, the Commissioner may proceed to consider the case without issue of any notice, and may confirm the partition made by the Collector.

Commissioner to fix a day for hearing case.

115. If it shall appear to the Commissioner that the proceedings of the Collector should be amended, or if a petition of appeal or objection shall have been presented within the period allowed by section 82, the Commissioner shall fix a day for hearing and disposing of the case, and shall cause a notification of the same to be published and a notice of the same to be posted up in his own office.

Commissioner to confirm, modify, or return petition.

116. On the day so fixed, which shall not be less than thirty days after the publication of the said notification at the office of the Collector, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may extend, or on any day postponed by a notice published in his own office, the Commissioner shall after hearing and disposing of all objections, and calling for any further information or enquiry which may be necessary, either confirm the partition as proposed by the Collector or modify the same, or return the papers of the partition to the Collector for any changes the Commissioner may think proper to be made.

If the partition is returned to the Collector for amendment, the Collector shall proceed to make the said amendments or to cause them to be made in the same manner as if he had himself passed such orders on a partition submitted to him for approval by a Deputy Collector.

Commissioner may return papers for amendment or inquiry.

117. The Commissioner may, before confirming a partition, return the papers for amendment or inquiry as often as he shall think fit, and as often as he shall so return them the procedure prescribed in the last preceding section shall be followed.

Procedure by Collector on receipt of order of Commissioner or of Board of Revenue on appeal.

118 After the expiration of not less than sixty days from the date of the order of the Commissioner confirming a partition, or, if an appeal has been preferred to the Board, or if any proceedings in respect of the partition be pending before the Board, then on receipt of the final order of the Board determining that the partition as sanctioned by the Commissioner shall not be disturbed, the Collector shall cause to be published in his office, and in some conspicuous place in each of the estates separately constituted by such order, a notice that the partition has been finally confirmed as it was sanctioned by the Commissioner, or with any amendments or alterations, as the case may be.

If the partition as finally sanctioned involves any amendments which may conveniently be made on the extracts of the partition papers and on any maps which have been prepared ann delivered or offered by notice to the recorded proprietors as required by section 77 or section 83, the Collector shall cause a notice to be served on every recorded proprietor whose estate is affected by such amendments requiring him to produce such extracts and maps in order that such amendments may be noted on them; and if the alterations made in the partition as finally sanctioned be such as to make it desirable to prepare fresh extracts and maps as aforesaid, the Collector shall cause such fresh extracts and maps to be prepared; and shall cause a notice to be served on each proprietor declaring the extract and map which was furnished or offered to him under section 77 or section 83, as the case may be, to be cancelled, and requiring him to take out of the Collector's office such fresh extract and map.

Procedure as to giving possession of separated estates.

119. The Collector shall then proceed to give the several proprietors possession of the separate estates allotted to each, and if necessary, may require the assistance of the Magistrate in giving such possession; and shall cause to be served on every recorded proprietor of a separate estate, a notice that from the date specified in such notice, the separate estate assigned to him (as described in section 83, or section 118, as the case may be) will be deemed to be separated from the parent estate, and to be separately liable for the amount of land revenue specified in such notice, and shall call upon him to enter into a separate engagement for the payment of such revenue.

Time of service of notice under preceding section.

120. The date specified in such notice shall not be more than three months after the proprietors have been put in possession of their respective separate estates as herein provided.

From the date specified in such notice, each separate estate shall be borne on the revenue roll and general register of the Collector as a distinct estate separately liable for the amount of land revenue assessed upon it under this Act; and shall be so liable, whether the proprietor have executed an agreement for the payment of the amount of land revenue so assessed upon the said estate, or whether he shall have failed to execute such agreement.

Collector may direct the construction of boundary marks.

122. The Collector may direct the construction of such boundary marks as he may think proper to distinguish the lands of each separate estate, and the cost of such boundary marks shall be deemed to be expenses of the partition.

Boundary marks erected under this Act shall be assigned to zemindars, or to zemindars jointly with tenure-holders, for preservation, as provided in the second clause of section 29, Bengal Act V of 1875 (the Bengal Survey Act 1875), and after they have been so assigned, the provisions of sections 19, 20, and 52 to 57 (both inclusive) of the said Act shall apply to such boundary marks.

PART X.

123. The Deputy Collector, with the consent of all the parties concerned, may refer to arbitration any point arising in the course of a partition; and the provisions of Part VIII shall, as far as possible, be applicable to such references.

124. If any proprietor of an estate held in common tenancy brought under division under the provisions of this Act shall have given his share or a portion of it in patni or other tenure or lease, such tenure or lease shall hold good, as regards the lands finally allotted to the share of the lessor, and only as to such land.

Illustrations.

I.—A, the proprietor of a quarter share in a joint undivided estate held in common tenancy, gives to B a patni tenure of the whole of his interest in the estate, entitling B, as long as such estate is held in common tenancy, to collect one-fourth of the rent payable by every ryot on the estate;

Partition of the said estate is made under this Act, and certain specific lands are assigned to A as his separate estate;

B will become patnidar of the entire separate estate which has been assigned to A, and will be entitled to collect the whole of the rents from the ryots on that estate.

II.—A, the proprietor of a quarter share in a joint undivided estate held in common tenancy, gives to B a patni tenure of one-half of his share in the estate, entitling B, as long as such estate is held in common tenancy, to collect one-eighth of the rent payable by every ryot on the estate;

Partition of the estate is made under the Act, and certain specific lands are assigned to A as his separate estate;

B will become patnidar of one-half of A's separate estate, and will hold his patni in common tenancy with the half of A's interest which A has not given in patni; so that B will be entitled to collect one-half of the rent payable by every ryot on A's estate, and A will be entitled to collect the other half.

Two estates may be united.

125. If two or more estates shall come into the possession of one proprietor or of the same body of proprietors, such proprietor or body of proprietors, after being recorded as proprietors, may apply to have such estates united, and to hold them as a single estate.

Application for such union how to be made, and how to be dealt with.

126. Such application shall be made in writing to the Collector, and the Collector shall not less than thirty days after the issue of a notification of such application (provided he see no objection), comply with the same, and cause the necessary entries to be made in the records of his office, and shall report the case to the Commissioner.

Cause of sale of a separate estate for arrears to be ascertained.

127. Whenever any separate estate created under this Act shall fall in arrear so as to require a sale of the land for the discharge of the arrear at any period within twelve years of the date of the confirmation of the partition, the Collector shall, if possible, ascertain the cause of the estate having fallen into arrear, and shall enquire whether such arrear has been caused by any fraudulent or erroneous allotment of the assessment or assignment of lands at the time of the partition, shall make a report upon the case to the Commissioner for such action as the said Commissioner may think proper.

In certain cases Lieutenant-Governor may order a new allotment of the land revenue.

128. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor at any time within twelve years from the date of confirmation of a partition, that through any fraud or error at the time of making the partition the assets of the lands assigned to any separate estate were not in proportion to the amount of land revenue for which such estate was made liable, or that the amount of land revenue assessed on any separate estate was not in proportion to the assets of the lands assigned to such estate, the Lieutenant-Governor may to order a new allotment of the land revenue upon the separate estates in accordance with the principles prescribed in this Act, on an estimate of the assets of each such estate as they stood at the time of the partition, such estimate being made on such evidence and information as may be procurable respecting the same.

Under-assessed estates to make refund to over-assessed estates.

129. Whenever the Lieutenant Governor shall pass an order for the re-allotment of the land revenue on any separate estates under the last preceding section, the Lieutenant-Governor may direct that the proprietors whose estates are found to have been under-assessed shall, for each year during which they have held possession of the separate estates, be required to pay to the recorded proprietors of the estates which have been over-assessed a sum equal to the annual amount in which the latter shall be found to have been over-assessed, and in default of payment the amount shall be leviable as provided in section 134.

No order passed by the Lieutenant-Governor under this section shall be liable to be contested in any court.

Publication of notifications under this Act.

130. Every notification required to be published in and by this Act shall, unless otherwise specially directed, be published by posting up copies of the same at the office of the Collector, and of the Deputy Collector who is making or has made the partition, at the mâl cutcherry, or mâl cutcherries (if any) of the proprietors of the parent estate, and at one or more of the principal villages on the said estate.

(2) by sending a registered letter containing such notice directed to the said person at his usual place of abode or to the place where he may be known to be residing; or

(3) by posting a copy of the notice at any mâl cutcherry of the person to whom the notice is directed; or, if no such mâl cutcherry be found, on some conspicuous place on the estate to which such notice relates.

In all cases where two or more persons are joint applicants for the separation of an estate to be held by them jointly as a separate estate, service of notice under this section on any one such joint applicant shall be deemed to be good and sufficient service on each and all of such joint applicants.

No proceedings under this Act to be affected by any mistake or misdescription.

132. Provided the directions of this Act be in substance and effect complied with, no proceedings under this Act shall be affected by reason of any mistake or by reason of any other informality, unless any person has suffered, or is in danger of suffering, material injury in consequence of such mistake or informality; and no proceedings under this Act shall be affected by reason of the omission to issue any notification required by this Act, or to serve any notice on any person whose name is not recorded on the Collector's registers as proprietor of the estate in respect of Power of Collector to enforce attendance of witnesses.

133. For the purpose of any enquiry under this Act, the Collector and Deputy-Collector shall, in addition to every power conferred specially by this Act, have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, to examine witnesses, and to compel the production of documents by the same means (as far as may be), and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

134. If any proprietor or other person shall fail to comply within the time fixed by a notice served on him as by this Act provided, with any requisition made upon him under this Act by the Collector or Deputy Collector, the Collector or Deputy Collector may impose upon him such daily fine as he may think fit, not exceeding fifty rupees; and such fine shall be payable daily until the requisition is complied with, and the Collector or Deputy Collector may proceed from time to time to levy the amount which has become due in respect of any such fine, notwithstanding that an appeal against the order imposing such fine may be pending;

Provided that whenever the amount levied under any such order shall have exceeded five hundred rupees, the Collector shall report the case specially to the Commissioner, and no further levy in respect of such fine shall be made otherwise than by authority of the Commissioner.

Deputy Collector may declare cost of local enquiry.

135. Whenever any local enquiry may be held by the Deputy Collector or any other officer, in consequence of an objection raised by any person to any record of measurements, rent-rolls, or other information which has been laid before the Deputy Collector, the Deputy Collector may declare the cost which has been incurred by such enquiry, and may direct that the entire cost so declared shall be paid by the person making the objection or by any one of the proprietors, or that such cost shall be paid in such proportions as he shall think fit, by the said person and the proprietors or any of them, or that such cost be deemed a part of the cost of making a partition as prescribed in section 39.

136. Except as herein expressly otherwise provided, all fees, fines, costs, and other sums ordered to be paid by any person under this Act, shall be deemed to be a demand under section 1 of Bengal Act VII of 1868 (an Act to make further provision for the recovery of arrears of land revenue and public demands recoverable as arrears of land revenue), and shall be leviable as such.

Powers and functions assigned to Deputy Collector may be exercised by Collector.

137. Extent and application of Act.

2. It extends to the whole of British India and applies—

(a) to all subjects of Her Majesty within the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty;

(b) to all Native Indian subjects of Her Majesty without and beyond British India; and,

3. This Act shall come into force on such day as the Governor-General in Council directs by notification in the Gazette of India.

4. On and from that day the Acts specified in the Schedule hereto annexed shall be repealed.

But all ports, places and officers appointed, and all certificates granted, under any of such Acts, shall be deemed to be respectively appointed and granted under this Act; and the last clause of section one of Act No. II of 1860 (to amend the law relating to the Carriage of Passengers by Sea) shall be read as follows:—

RESOLUTION ON THE BUDGET ESTIMATES OF THE CALCUTTA PORT COMMISSIONERS FOR THE YEAR 1876-77.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—MARINE—CALCUTTA PORT TRUST—No. 944.

Calcutta, the 3rd April 1876.

READ—

Letter No. 2430, dated 4th March 1876, from the Officiating Vice-Chairman to the Port Commissioners, submitting the Budget Estimates of the Port of Calcutta for the year 1876-77.

1. The estimates have, as last year, been drawn up completely and clearly.

2. They have been drawn up precisely in the same form as last year, and consist of the following five parts:—

Part I.—Jetties.
Part II.—Inland Vessels' Wharves..
Part III.—Strand bank lands.
Part IV.—Port or River Division.
Part V.—Loans and New Works.

The first four heads constitute the revenue account, and the fifth the capital account, a separation of which was ordered by the Government of India in resolution of the Public Works Department, Nos. 778-80A.G.

3. The appendices to the estimates give details of control, of working expenses of dredger, of interest and sinking fund, of engineering, of municipal taxes and repairs for servants' quarters, and of assessment of store-yards, workshops, and lascars' quarters, the expenditure on which is distributed between the several parts of the estimates, i.e., 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, or 5th.

4. Appendix A.—The charges on account of control establishments have been redistributed with the view of debiting one-tenth of the head office expenses to the Hooghly Bridge accounts, and of relieving the port and jetty divisions of the estimates of one-twentieth of the charge.

Appendix F, which gives details of assessment of store-yards, workshops, and lascars' quarters, has been added to the estimates.

5. In the estimates numbered 1 to 41 are given detailed explanations of all other items which appear in each of the five parts, viz. :—

1 to 10—Details of Jetties, Part I.
11 to 15 „ of Inland Wharves, Part II.
16 to 22 „ of Strand Bank Lands, Part III.
23 to 39 „ of Port or River Division, Part IV.
40 to 41 „ of Loans and New Works, Part V.

6. The points which require to be noticed in connection with the detailed estimates are the following :—

Receipts from Jetties.—Estimate No. I.

(1.) It is estimated that the receipts from the jetties will give an increase of Rs 32,000 in 1876-77 as compared with the previous year. It is satisfactory to note that this year an increase in both the sources of income under this head is expected. The receipts from imports are reckoned at Rs. 5,00,000, and those from exports at Rs. 42,000, making a total of Rs. 5,42,000. The grand total will be Rs. 5,42,000 plus Rs. 18,500 received in repayment of loans advanced to Parts II and III in 1875-76, which is equal to Rs. 5,60,500.

Repairs of Jetties, Sheds, Tramway, Compound.—Estimate No. 3.

(2.) The estimate for 1876-77 is Rs. 10,000, and the actual expenditure for ten months for 1875-76 has been Rs. 8,094. During the year it was found necessary to employ the fire-engine Hooghly frequently, when the state of the tides permitted, in washing away the accumulation of silt from the jetty pitched slope. The requirements for 1876-77 are therefore reckoned on actual expenditure, that is, Rs. 10,000 for repairs, and Rs. 3,500 for removal of silt from jetty slope, which make in all a total of Rs. 13,500.

Salaries of Jetty Establishments.—Estimate No. 5.

(3.) The estimate under this head is Rs. 1,24,942, showing an increase of this increase is owing to the provision for two extra drivers at Rs. 100 each per mensem under the head "Crane Establishment." These men are provided to meet the constant requisitions for working at night. The remaining portion of the increase (Rs. 2,188) is due to slight increases in establishments under the heads "Jetty Office," "Jetty Collection Department," "Landing and Delivery," and "Import Warehouse."

Working expenses of Jetties.—Estimate No. 6.

(4.) This estimate exceeds that of last year by Rs. 3,000. Under the head of "Coolie labour for exports" an increased provision of Rs. 2,500 is made for cost of extra labour, as the receipts from this source are expected to increase. An extra provision of Rs. 500 is made under the head of "Stationery and printing charges," as the forms, tally books, manifests, and cart tickets now used are largely in excess of former requirements.

Municipal Taxes on Jetty Enclosures.—Estimate No. 7.

(5.) The Municipal tax will amount to Rs. 33,640, against Rs. 36,699 in 1875-76. The decrease of Rs. 3,059 is due to the reduction of 1½ per cent. in the house and water-rates.

New works to be met from Jetty Revenue.—Estimate No. 9.

(6.) The sum to be transferred from revenue to Part V, Capital Account, for new works, will amount to Rs. 1,06,500, against Rs. 23,200 in 1875-76. The excess is due to an increased provision being made for new works at the jetties.

Rent of Seebpore Chur Land.—Estimate No. 10.

(7.) Provision has been made for Rs. 4,000, the amount to be paid to Government as annual rent for the chur land at Seebpore, which will be made over, at the expiration of a year from date of notice to the present lessee, to the Commissioners with a view to its utilization for purposes connected with the timber trade of the port. The charge will be met from jetty funds as a temporary measure.

Receipt from Inland Vessels' Wharves.—Estimate No. 11.

(8.) The receipts estimated at Rs. 3,32,000 show an increase of Rs. 43,376 as compared with the previous year. The anticipated increase is based upon the grant of a loan of Rs. 2,50,000 applied for by the Port Commissioners for the purpose of completing the purchase of land required for the new riverside road. This Government, in its letter No. 445, dated 15th February 1876, addressed to the Government of India, in the Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce Department, recommended the grant of the loan to the Commissioners. If, however, the loan is not granted, the receipts now counted upon will be reduced, but, on the other hand, there will be a corresponding reduction in the charges for interest and maintenance.

Repairs of Inland Vessels' Wharves.—Estimate No. 12.

(9.) A sum of Rs. 30,000 is provided under this head, against Rs. 12,000 in the year 1875-76. This amount will possibly be in excess of the actual requirements, but as there may be much to do in the way of making up and protecting the bank, metalling the road with stone, &c., provision is made for this sum, which will include all labour, such as bheestees, sweepers, &c., employed for conservancy and maintenance purposes.

Salaries—Inland Vessels' Wharves.—Estimate No. 13.

(10.) The estimate, Rs. 51,780, shows an increase of Rs. 912 as compared with the year 1875-76. The increase is owing partly to the pay of the Superintendent being raised from Rs. 300 to 400 per mensem, by an annual increment of Rs. 50, and partly to the provision of an establishment at a cost of Rs. 312 per annum for looking after the pontoon at Cossipore.

Working Expenses—Inland Vessels' Wharves.—Estimate No. 14.

accepted the liability to bear the cost of nine lamps on the Strand Bank which were formerly maintained by the Justices, and to provision having been made for lighting the new wharf between Aheereetollah and Permit Ghâts.

New works from revenue of Inland Vessels' Wharves.—Estimate No. 15.

(12.) The estimate under this head is Rs. 87,000, against Rs. 1,20,000 in 1875-76. The amount (Rs. 87,000) is made up of two items, viz. Rs. 73,500 to be transferred to the capital account for new works, and Rs. 13,500 for the repayment of the loan received from Part I in 1875-76.

Strand Bank Rents.—Estimate No. 16.

(13.) The receipts estimated at Rs. 1,04,794 show an increase of Rs. 4,000 as compared with the previous year. This estimate is based upon the actual receipts from the monthly rental of the Strand Bank lands.

Repairs to Strand Bank Lands.—Estimate No. 17.

(14.) There is an increase of Rs. 4,000 as compared with the estimate for 1875-76, owing to the provision of a special grant for drainage and latrines, &c.

Salaries—Strand Bank Lands.—Estimate No. 18.

(15.) The estimate for salaries shows an increase of Rs. 120, viz. from Rs. 1,276 in 1875-76 to Rs. 1,396 in 1876-77. The increase is due to the rent collector's pay being raised from Rs. 80 to Rs. 90 per mensem, and it is raised with a view to make his pay commensurate with his increased work and responsibility.

Municipal Taxes on Strand Bank Lands.—Estimate No. 19.

(16.) Municipal taxes will amount to Rs. 7,879 as against Rs. 7,312 in 1875-76, in consequence of the Justices having increased the assessment from the last quarter of 1875.

Amount to be transferred to Part I.—Estimate No. 22.

(17.) Provision is made for a sum of Rs. 5,000, which is to be transferred to Part I in repayment of loan received in 1875-76.

Receipts from Harbour Masters' Department.—Estimate No. 24.

(18.) The receipts estimated at Rs. 1,35,000 show a decrease of Rs. 3,000 as compared with the previous year. The estimate is based upon the actual receipts of 1875-76.

Wreck and Anchor Receipts.—Estimate No. 25.

(19.) The income is reckoned at Rs. 15,000, showing a decrease of Rs 2,500 as compared with the year 1875-76. The estimate is based upon the actual collections of the previous year.

Interest of Government Securities.—Estimate No. 28.

(20.) There will be an increased income of Rs. 1,000 over the estimate (Rs. 20,110) for the year 1875-76.

Fines for Breach of Port Rules.—Estimate No. 33.

(21.) The receipts under this head are estimated at Rs. 400, showing a decrease of Rs. 350 as compared with 1875-76. The estimate is based upon the actual receipts of the past year.

Repairs of Boats, Vessels, &c., of the Port.—Estimate No. 35.

(22.) The estimate, Rs. 15,000, shows a decrease of Rs. 1,300 as compared with the year 1875-76.

Port Working Expenses.—Estimate No. 36.

(23.) There is an increase of Rs. 2,500 in the working expenses over the estimate for the year 1875-76.

Salaries of Port Works Establishment.—Estimate No. 37.

(24.) The estimate for establishments employed on port works shows an increase of Rs. 144, which is due to annual increments of pay under the head "Port Pilotage Collecting Department," but this increase is reduced by Rs. 6 by a revision of the establishments under the heads "Heave-up boats," "Anchor and mooring boats, No. 1 Experiment," and "Fire-engine boat Hooghly." The total increase therefore is Rs. 138.

BURDWAN DIVN. 2	Bankoora „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Generally dry and hot, but there was some rain on the north-eastern border of the district. No change in the state and prospects of the crops. Rain is wanted especially for indigo. Cholera is abating.
BURDWAN DIVN. 3	Beerbhoom, „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Dry, with hot westerly wind. No change in the state and prospects of the crops. Rain is wanted.
BURDWAN DIVN. 4	Midnapore, „ 1, „	0·38	Weather—Seasonable. The rain is derived from partial thunder-storms, which are not general, and less in the south than in the north. Every fall is beneficial. Cholera and small-pox continue in certain portions of the district.
BURDWAN DIVN. 5	Hooghly, „ 1, „	Inappreciable.	Weather—Close and sultry. Cloudy at intervals. No sowings reported as going on. Land is being prepared for aous, rohur, and late indigo. Cucumbers, paulolls, early indigo, and jali dhan, still doing well. Mangoes indifferent from want of water. Rain greatly needed. Wheat and barley harvest almost over. Cholera is bad all over the district, especially in Hooghly and Serampore. Small-pox is abating. Fever ceased.
BURDWAN DIVN.	Howrah, „ 1, „	·10	Weather—Sky clouded with indications of rain. Heavy storm on Wednesday but an inappreciable fall of rain. Ground is still under preparation for sowings More rain would be appreciated.

The rubbee crops have suffered considerably from want of rain. Such as have been already cut have given scarcely half the average outturn. In Mandah, Janore, and Bagmara, the prospects of the boro dhan crop are decidedly unfavorable In other parts, such as Poothea and Burrigong, the crop is at present in a much better condition. Several cases of cholera have been reported in various quarters; also some cases of small-pox.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 13	Rungpore, Mar. 31, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot, with strong westerly wind. Sowings of rice delayed from continual drought.

Cooch Behar Divn. 16	Darjeeling, Mar. 31, '76	Nil.	Weather—Not a drop of rain, although the appearance of the sky has often been threatening. Rain is greatly needed. High winds at times. The young crops are doing well, but they will suffer if there is no rain soon.
Cooch Behar Divn. 17	Julpigoree, Apl. 1, „	Nil.	Weather—No rain. The want of it is very serious in the dryer parts of the district. The early dhan, which should now be in the field, cannot be sown till rain falls—the ground is so dried up; and in the dumper parts of the Dooars, where the bhadoe dhan is sown very early, it is now reported as being dried up in places.
Cooch Behar Divn.	Cooch Behar, Mar. 30, „	Nil.	Weather—No rain; it is getting hot. There has been west wind as well as east wind during the week. People have not yet been able to sow bitri dhan (aous) in all their fields for want of rain; the seeds sown have not germinated. The prospects of the cheena and the kaon crops continue unfavorable.
	Eastern Districts.
Dacca Divn. 18	Dacca, Apl. 3.* '76	0·8	Weather—Seasonable. State and prospects of the crops are good.
Dacca Divn. 19	Furreedpore, „ 1, „	0·72	Weather—Windy, with a storm and rain on one day. State of the crops is fair. Ploughs at work generally. Cholera is very prevalent, especially at Belgachi Station, Eastern Bengal Railway, and Goalundo.
Dacca Divn. 20	Backergunge, Mar. 30, „	·45	The crops are in a satisfactory condition. A good deal of cholera in a sporadic form prevails.
Dacca Divn. 21	Mymensingh, „ 31, „	Nil.	Weather—Dry and hot, with variable winds. Great want of rain, to allow of sowing of the early rice crop.
Dacca Divn. 22	Tipperah, „ 31, „	·01	Weather—Hot. High south wind. A few drops of rain. The spring rice is being reaped. Prospects are good.
Chittagong Divn. 23	Chittagong, „ 30, „	·43	Weather—Warm. Cold-weather crops getting on well owing to the recent rain. Cholera in the south of the district.
Chittagong Divn. 24	Noakholly, „ 30, „	0·41	Weather—Heat daily increasing. Mornings generally cloudy. On the 26th the morning was densely foggy. High winds. A little rain on the 23rd, and a thunder-storm on the night of the 28th. Chillies, pulses, linseed, &c., are in good order. Ploughing for the early rice crop, and sowing of early and late rice together, are now going on. Cholera is very bad in the town and out in the district, especially along the pilgrim route from Chandranath.
Chittagong Divn. 25	Chittagong Hill Tracts, „ 28, „	·6	Weather—Seasonable. Showers of rain on the 24th and 25th. Joom-cutting is nearly over; its burning has commenced. Both cholera and small-pox have broken out at Rangamatee.
Chittagong Divn.	Hill Tipperah, „ 29, „	0·55	Weather—Hot, with occasional storms. No change in the state and prospects of the crops.
	BEHAR.
Patna Divn. 26	Patna, Apl. 3.* '76	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. No rain. Crops are nearly all harvested. Yield is good. Sporadic cases of cholera and small-pox generally throughout the district, and a good deal of measles and chicken-pox.
Patna Divn. 27	Gya, „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot westerly wind in the beginning of the week. East wind and cloudy latterly, with a few drops of rain at Gya and Jehanabad. Highest reading of the thermometer is 101°. No crops on the ground. Cholera and small-pox reported from a few places.
Patna Divn. 28	Shahabad, „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Generally cloudy. Rubbee harvest is almost finished. The opium outturn is good. Small-pox is still prevalent.
Patna Divn. 29	Durbhunga, „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Mornings and evenings are pleasant. West wind during the day; cloudy skies. The rubbee is being harvested all over the district, but the character of the yield cannot be stated definitely for a week or ten days longer. It promises, however, to be an average crop in Tajpoor and the southern portion of the Sudder sub-divisions, about three-fourths of an average crop in the east of the latter sub-division, and scarcely half an average crop in Mudhoobunnee.
Patna Divn. 30	Mozufferpore, „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—It has been very cloudy for some days, and there is much hope of rain soon falling. The reaping of the rubbee harvest is nearly completed. The price of rice has risen, but other food-grains remain cheap. Some sporadic cases of small-pox and cholera have occurred.

* Telegrams of the 3rd April, received on the same day, show rainfall during the seven days immediately preceding.

No.	District, and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather, state and prospects of the crops, and state of health at date.
BEHAR.—(Contd.)
Patna Divn.—(Contd.) 31	Sarun, Apl. 1, '76	Nil.	Weather—Hot and dry, with high west wind blowing. Sky every day covered with clouds with no result. No change in the state of the crops. The rubbee crops have been harvested, and are being threshed and stacked. Opium has been collected, and the weighments have commenced. Cotton is doing well. Cheena and moong promise well. Indigo prospects are generally indifferent. Prices favorable. General health is good.
32	Chumparun, Mar. 31, „	Nil.	Weather—There have been continual west winds, which have done some damage, but the weather has been very cool. The crops are being reaped, and the produce is fair.
Bhagulpore Divn. 33	Monghyr, Apl. 1, '76	Nil.	Weather—Cloudy. No change in the state of the crops since last. The rubbee crop is now nearly all gathered in. Prices continue easy.
34	Bhagulpore, „ 3,* „	Nil.	Weather—Cloudy, with but little west wind. No crops on the ground now except some late rohur, newly planted sugarcane, and newly sown aghani rice and moong. Mango promises a good crop. Rain now would be of great value for agricultural operations. Condition of the people is good, though there are cases of cholera and small-pox here and there.
35	Purneah, „ 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Very high west wind. Mornings cloudy, threatening rain. Rain is much wanted for the ploughing and sowing of bhadoe crops and for the moong, kowni, and cheena, which is now coming on. Rice is getting dearer, but wheat and grain are cheapest The health of the district is bad. Small-pox and cholera are prevalent; the latter especially bad in the north.
36	Sonthal Perghs. „ 3, „	Nil.	Weather—Great promise of rain, though none has fallen. Mohwa being gathered with good outturn. Mango crop promises well. Both crops said to be slightly injured from want of rain in Rajmehal. Cholera appears to be stopping.

38	Pooree, „ 30, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot and cloudy. Three-fourths of the dalua paddy crop are being reaped, while the remaining fourth part is failing for want of rain. The state of crops in general fair. Mango crop is short. Cholera prevails, but the influence is less.
39	Balasore, „ 31, „	Nil.	Weather—Unsettled and wind variable. In spite of threatening appearances rain has held off; ploughing, however, proceeds. Cholera and small-pox cases much less frequent.
CHOTA NAGPORE.
	South-Western Frontier Agency.
40	Hazareebagh, Mar. 31, '76	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. No crops on the ground at present. Cholera and small-pox diminishing.
41	Lohardugga, Apl. 1, „	Nil.	Weather—Very hot for the time of the year. The mohwa is falling freely, and will probably be a full crop. Rain is now looked for, for ploughing. Small-pox, measles, and cholera, are still reported.
42	Singbhoom, Mar. 31, „	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. There are no crops to report about. The weather is warm, and if there is no rain soon, the Deputy Commissioner is afraid there will be sickness.

The mean barometer, as likewise the dry and wet bulb thermometer means, are derived from the twenty-four hourly observations made during the day.

The dew-point is computed with the Greenwich constants. The figures in column 10 represent the humidity of the air, the complete saturation of which being taken at unity. The receiver of the lower rain-gauge is 1½ feet, and that of the anemometer 70 feet 10 inches above the level of the ground. The velocity of wind, as indicated by Robinson's anemometer, is registered from noon to noon.

MOFUSSIL MUNICIPALITIES.

THE HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER moved that the Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to Municipalities be further considered in order to the settlement of its clauses.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER moved the substitution of the words "two hundred" for "fifty" in the proviso which was added as an amendment to section 49. He had received a letter from the Chairman of the Suburban Municipality objecting to that proviso, and pointing out that the limit fixed by the amendment was too low, and would apply to almost every se... municipality except menial servants. Mr. Wilson said the princ... which the limit was fixed was that Rs. 200 being accepted for Cal... Rs. 50 would be suitable for mofussil municipalities. But that analogy d... not apply to the suburbs of Calcutta and Howrah, where the salary of officers of the description to which the provision was intended to apply would be considerably higher. He hoped that, after seeing the effect of the amendment as adopted at the former meeting, the Council would allow him to add an exception in favor of the municipalities of the Suburbs and Howrah, by raising the proposed limit to Rs. 200.

The Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg said he entirely concurred in the opinion of the Chairman of the Municipal Commissioners of the Suburbs: it was on those grounds that he opposed the amendment which was moved on a previous occasion.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said with every deference to the Chairman of the Suburban Commissioners, he submitted that the officers of that municipality who received a salary of more than Rs. 200 a month might be counted on one's fingers. In fact he doubted whether they had more than two officers who received a salary of more than Rs. 200, and the same remarks would apply to the Howrah municipality. The limit of Rs. 200 was fair and reasonable for Calcutta, because here there was a large number of officers in the receipt of a salary exceeding Rs. 200. On that ground he submitted that the limit in mofussil municipalities should be Rs. 50, but if that minimum were considered too low for the Suburbs and Howrah, he was willing to raise it to Rs. 100. But the limit of Rs. 200 would exclude all officers under the Vice-Chairman of those municipalities, and the proviso adopted by the Council would practically become a dead letter. When the Council adopted that proviso, it assented to the principle involved in it, and he had seen nothing adduced which would make him change his opinion as regards the principle of the provision.

The Hon'ble Baboo Juggadanund Mookerjee said he did not see why an exception should be made in favour of the Suburbs and Howrah. There was another important municipality (Dacca), the income of which might not be so great as that of the other two, but which was in every respect as important. And with respect to the number of servants of municipalities who drew a salary of more than Rs. 200, in the Suburban Municipality there were not more than two now, and at Howrah there was only one, viz. the Secretary. Therefore in point of fact the Council was going to make an exception in favour of these two municipalities for the sake of two or three individuals, and he considered that the provision should remain as it now stood.

The Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg said that the proviso in the Bill was highly objectionable, as it struck at the independence of the executive. He considered it most inexpedient to empower the Commissioners at a meeting to appoint the subordinate officers of the municipality, as they might have persons connected with them whom they might desire to serve quite independent of their fitness for the offices to which they were to be appointed. The executive officers were responsible for the efficent discharge of the duties of municipalities, and he considered that the appointment of the subordinate officers should be left in the hands of those who were practically responsible.

His Honor the President felt it his duty to say that the appointment of particular individuals to particular offices was not one of those functions which ought to be vested in a body of gentlemen at a meeting. Experience very clearly showed that it was not desirable to confer such a power in a corporate body. His remarks more particularly applied to appointments which were sure to cause a certain sort of agitation. But he had no objection to impose a check on the dismissal of officers above a certain standing. He would suggest that the check of the Commissioners in meeting should apply to dismissals only, and if that were accepted, the present limit of Rs. 50 might be retained. He submitted to the Council that they ought not at one meeting to reverse the decision of a previous meeting without very good grounds, especially as there were one or two members absent at the present meeting who were present on the

If [illegible] occasion. But if the hon'ble member on whose motion the provision [illegible] carried, would consent to its being amended in the way in which His Honor suggested, it might perhaps be done.

After some conversation, it was ultimately agreed that in lieu of the proviso at the end of the section, a proviso to the following effect be substituted:—

"Provided that no officer shall be appointed to an office the salary of which is more than Rs. 200 per mensem, without the sanction of the Commissioners at a meeting, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the division; and provided also that no officer whose salary is more than Rs. 50 per mensem, shall be dismissed without the sanction of the Commissioners at a meeting."

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier the word "assessors" was inserted before the word "overseers" in line 5 of the same section.

Verbal amendments were on the motion of Mr. Dampier, made in sections 70 and 75.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said, as the Bill stood it provided that the tax was due on the first day of the first month of the quarter; but it was also provided by section 109 that no bill should be presented until one month had elapsed from the time when the tax became due. This would throw the whole collection of the tax into arrears; and he would therefore move that the words "and not less than one month" in lines 1 and 2 of that section be omitted; and that in the second clause, for the words "appended to such bill shall be a notice of demand in the form marked (A) in the second schedule" the following words be substituted:—

"If the amount in such bill be not paid on presentation thereof, a notice of demand in the form marked (A) in the second schedule may be served on the person liable to pay the same, and such notice of demand may be served either at the time when the bill is presented, or at any subsequent time, provided that no charge shall be made in respect of the service of such notice."

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said, if a person was not able to pay the tax immediately on presentation of the bill, he was to be served with a notice of demand. The practice in Calcutta was that a bill was presented two or three times before it was paid, then, if the tax-payer could not pay the tax, a notice of demand was served upon him. If that was the practice in Calcutta, it could not be said that persons in the mofussil were in a position to pay the bill at once, that was to say, the moment it was presented. He thought that if the bill was not paid within a reasonable time after presentation, then a notice of demand might be served. But as the two amendments were worded, he did not know whether such a practice would be allowed.

The Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg said that under this Bill the presentation of the bill and the service of the notice of demand were to be made simultaneously: the two processes ought, he thought, to be separate. If the bill was not paid within a reasonable time, then a notice of demand should be served.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said he would explain the effect of the second amendment. The practice was no doubt very much what the hon'ble member opposite (Baboo Kristodas Pal) had said. But it had struck him that the bill and notice of demand might be presented at the same time; that was to say, if the bill was not paid on presentation, notice of demand should be served at once, in which notice it would be stated that the tax-payer was required either to pay the amount of the bill within fifteen days, or if this was the first time he was assessed, or if he was assessed at a higher rate than before, he might come in and make his objections instead of paying. Since then Mr. Dampier had been in communication with persons who were practically acquainted with the matter, and it had been pointed out that there would be a good deal of trouble in filling up in all these notices of demand; therefore he proposed that the notice of demand should either be left at the time with the man who did not pay his bill, or it might be served upon him at any future time, provided that no charge should be made for such service.

After some conversation, Mr. Dampier's first amendment was agreed to, and the second was carried with the substitution of the word "shall" for "may" in the 4th line, and the omission of the words "either at the time when the bill is presented or"

On the motion of MR. DAMPIER a verbal amendment was made in section 110, and the position of sections 124 and 125 was transposed.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER moved the substitution of the following section for section 146:—

"The Commmissioners at a meeting, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, may establish a toll-bar and levy tolls on any bridge, or on any part of a road, which they may have constructed after the commencement of this Act, or at any place within the municipality adjacent to such bridge or part of a road, at which tolls may conveniently be levied on vehicles and animals passing over such bridge or part of a road, and the profits derived therefrom shall be carried to the credit of the municipal fund.

Provided that no such toll-bar shall be established or tolls levied, otherwise than for the purpose of recovering the expenses incurred in constructing such bridge or part of a road, and in maintaining the said bridge or part of a road in repair for the five years next after the construction thereof, together with interest on such expenses as hereinafter provided."

He said it was quite out of the question to abolish tolls on roads where they at present existed; one municipality got as much as 25 per cent. of their income from this source, and several got a very considerable sum. The Council had heard a great deal about the unfairness and injustice of this tax; of people being required to pay twice for the use of the roads, first in the shape of a municipal tax, and then in the shape of a toll. Here was the reverse of the medal. The municipality of the Suburbs had no toll-bars, and they complained very much of the whole of the traffic of Calcutta coming over their roads, and not contributing one pice to their funds. The proposed section would enable them and other municipalities to levy tolls on any bridge or road, or part of a road, which they might have constructed, and for the maintenance of the bridge or road for five years after its construction: as soon as the cost of construction and of such maintenance had been recovered, the tolls would cease.

The HON'BLE SIR STUART HOGG enquired whether there would be any strong objection to exempting kutcha roads from liability to tolls. He thought it would be a great hardship to levy tolls on such roads, as during the rains one might often see carts buried up to the nave, and it would not be fair to levy tolls where during certain seasons traffic was almost entirely impeded.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER explained that tolls were imposed on the authority of the Government; and under the Bill as it now stood the Government might make over to a municipality any tolls which were levied under the authority of Government at toll-bars established within the municipality. The municipality could not establish any toll-bar without the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor. The proposed section would not empower a municipality to set up any toll-bar except for works constructed by them, and then only until the cost of construction and of maintenance for a certain period had been recouped. And with regard to the special objection urged by the hon'ble member, to putting a toll-bar on a kutcha road, MR. DAMPIER would instance the case of a bridge connecting two portions of a kutcha road. The bridge might be a very great convenience. He had, however, no particular objection to inserting the word "metalled" before "roads," and would adopt the hon'ble member's suggestion.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL said he understood that the object of the Bill was simply to consolidate existing Acts and not to impose additional taxation; and when the discussion on this subject took place at a previous sitting, the hon'ble mover pointed out that tolls existed in several municipalities, and that it would not be wise to deprive such municipalities of the income they derived from that source. The hon'ble member also stated that it was not the object of the Government to allow additional taxation to be imposed. But the effect of the amendment now before the Council was to impose additional taxation; for instead of confining himself to securing the income now derived from this source, he proposed to give to municipalities where tolls were not now levied a power which they did not now possess. That was inconsistent with the avowed object of the Bill.

He was aware that tolls under the proposed section could not be imposed without the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, but practically the effect of the provision, when sanctioned, would be the imposition of additional taxation.

I entirely agreed with the hon'ble member on his right (Sir Stuart Hogg) that tolls should not be levied on roads which were not metalled. He had heard stories of the sufferings of the people who had been made to pay tolls on roads which were unmetalled, and over which carts could not pass without great difficulty during the rains. The objection which he took to the proposal for levying tolls on roads generally had not been invalidated by any arguments which had been brought forward. The only question left open for consideration was whether the income now derived by municipalities from this source could be abandoned. It appeared from enquiry that the existing revenue could not be surrendered without seriously crippling the resources of some municipalities. He was willing to accept that position. He therefore proposed that the levy of tolls should be continued in those municipalities only where it existed, but that no power to levy tolls on roads should be conferred on any municipality which did not now obtain an income from that source.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier observed that it was altogether straining words to say that this section provided means for additional taxation.

After some conversation the Council divided:

Ayes 5.	Noes 2.

„ Mr. Bell.	„ „ Juggadanund Mookerjee.
„ Mr Reynolds.
„ Sir Stuart Hogg.

The motion was then carried, with the addition of the word "metalled" before the word "roads" wherever it occurred.

A similar amendment was made in section 147; and the following section was introduced after section 147:—

"Whenever a toll-bar shall have been established, and tolls shall be levied as provided in section 145, the Commissioners shall at the end of each year publish, by causing it to be posted up at their office, an abstract account showing—

(1) the amount of expenses incurred in the construction of such bridge or part of a road, and in the maintenance of the same during the five years next after the construction of the same;

(2) the amount of interest which has accrued due thereon, at the annual rate of six per centum annually; and

(3) the amount which has been recovered from the profits of the said toll-bars; and whenever such expenses and interest shall have been recovered as aforesaid, such toll-bar shall be removed, and tolls shall no longer be levied on such bridge or part of a road."

An amendment rendered necessary by the foregoing amendment was made in section 77.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said, the hon'ble member opposite (Baboo Kristodas Pal) had at a former meeting proposed an amendment to the effect that if the Chairman required any person to do any particular thing, such person might, instead of doing such thing, state his objections to the Commissioners at a meeting; in fact, giving a kind of power of revision to them. To give effect to that proposal, it was necessary to make a verbal amendment in section 174, and to introduce the following new sections after section 174:—

174A. "Any person who is required by a requisition as aforesaid to execute any work or to do anything may, instead of executing the work or doing the thing required, prefer an objection in writing to the Commissioners against being required to comply with such requisition; provided such objection be preferred within five days of the service of the notice or posting up of the notification containing the requisition; or if the time within which he is required to comply with the requisition be less than five days, then provided that such objection is preferred within such less time.

Provided that in any case in which the Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall have certified his opinion as aforesaid, and the objection shall in consequence thereof have been heard and decided by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman, it shall be lawful for the person making the objection, if the requisition made upon him is not withdrawn on the hearing of his objection, to pay in the said sum of three hundred rupees to the Commissioners as the cost [illegible] the work or the thing required; whereupon such person shall be relieved of all liability and obligation in respect of executing the work or doing the thing required, and respect of paying the expenses thereof; and the Commissioners themselves shall execute such work or do such thing, and shall exercise all powers necessary therefor.

174D. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman, or the Commissioners at a meeting, as the case may be, shall, after hearing the objection and making any inquiry which they may deem necessary, record an order withdrawing, modifying, or making absolute the requisition against which the objection is preferred; and unless such order withdraw the requisition, it shall specify the time within which the requisition shall be carried out, which shall not be less than the shortest time which might have been mentioned under this Act in the original requisition.

174E. If the person making such objection be present at the office of the Commissioners, the said order shall be explained to him orally, and such explanation shall be deemed to be sufficient notice of the order made; and if such order cannot be so verbally explained, notice of such order shall be given to the person making the objection in the manner provided by section 350; and such explanation of or service of the notice of the said order shall be deemed a requisition duly made under this Act to execute the work or do the thing required."

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said when he proposed the amendment to which the hon'ble mover had adverted, he considered that the question at issue was not simply one of amount, but of principle. First, it was necessary to consider whether a person residing in a municipality should be required to execute a certain class of works without being allowed an opportunity of stating his objections; and secondly, whether the Chairman or Vice-Chairman should be empowered to compel a person to execute such works irrespectively of the value of the work. In the amendment proposed provision was made as to amount only, i.e., if the amount of the work required to be done exceeded Rs. 300, then the person required to execute the work might apply to the Commissioners at a meeting for the revision of the order of the Chairman, unless the Chairman undertook to carry out the work for Rs. 300, or unless he modified his own order. If the Chairman had to carry out the work with his own funds, Baboo Kristodas Pal could understand the principle upon which it was based. But as the proposed sections stood, if the Chairman exceeded the estimate, the loss would fall upon the municipality.

In the next place he thought that the most important question was about the classes of works to be done. The removal of nuisances and rubbish, and matters of that kind, did not come within the category of the works to which he referred, because those works were ordinary works, and ought to be done at once. But there were other works, such as the filling up of tanks, with regard to which an appeal should be allowed. He mentioned the other day the case of certain tanks in Calcutta in regard to which the Chairman and Health Officer differed in opinion. The Health Officer considered it necessary to have them filled up; the Chairman and the Engineer on the other hand were of opinion that such tanks were to be found all over the town, and if it was necessary to fill up these tanks, it would be equally necessary to fill up all the others. A case of that kind might occur. The Chairman might order a particular work to be done, and it might be open to question whether it was necessary to execute the work irrespectively of the cost; and the person required to do it should have an opportunity of laying his objections before the Commissioners at a meeting.

With regard to the limit of cost of these works, Baboo Kristodas Pal would suggest that it should be lowered to Rs. 100, because in the mofussil extensive works were rare, and the sum of Rs. 100 was heavy enough for people in the circumstances of mofussil residents.

After some further conversation, the motion was agreed to.

In section 184, line 6, the words "and rubbish" were, on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, omitted.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, the following proviso was added to section 188:—

"Provided that if for the purpose of effecting any drainage under this section it shall be necessary to acquire any land not being the property of the person who is required to drain his land, or to pay compensation to any other person, the Commissioners shall provide such land and pay such compensation."

section 195 the following proviso was introduced on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier:—

"Provided that if for the purpose of effecting any drainage under this section it shall be necessary to acquire any land not being the property of the person who is required to drain his land, or to pay compensation to any other person, the Commissioners shall provide such land and pay such compensation."

Verbal amendments were made in sections 199 and 213.

Section 213 empowered the Commissioners to enter upon possession of a house which they might have repaired.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said the consideration of this section had been reserved at the last meeting. He had since considered the point and had no objection to the principle as far as the repairs of unoccupied houses was concerned, but he objected to the mode of recovery of the cost of such repairs: he would affirm the principle of the section, and give power to recover the cost in the same manner as was provided for the recovery of other expenses under the Bill. But he objected to the special procedure provided for the recovery of expenses under this section, and would therefore move its omission.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said there was no express provision in the Bill authorizing the Commissioners to repair ruinous houses. But there were two sections, one of which provided that if a house was in a dangerous or ruinous condition the Commissioners might require the owner either to pull it down or to repair it; and there was the general section 174, which declared that if the Commissioners required a person to do anything, and he failed to do it, the Commissioners might do it and charge the expense to the owner. Then this section provided that when there was a ruinous house, and in consequence of the absence or inability of the proprietor the Commissioners repaired it, they might retain possession of the house until the expense of repairs was recovered. He thought it was better to provide this special procedure for the recovery of such expenses than that the Commissioners should be forced to pull the house down.

After some further conversation, the motion for the omission of section 213 was negatived.

Sections 217 and 218 were agreed to.

Section 219 authorized the Commissioners to maintain an establishment for the removal of offensive matter or rubbish.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said that there was a notice of amendment in the name of the hon'ble member opposite (Baboo Kristodas Pal) to insert the words "on the application or with the consent of the occupiers" in clause 2, line 2, after the word "time," so that occupiers should not be bound to avail themselves of the establishment of the Commissioners to remove offensive matter and rubbish from their premises, but might do it through their own servants or anybody else. The hon'ble member did not wish the provision to be made compulsory, but optional. It seemed to Mr. Dampier that this might be accepted, if after clause 2 were added the words "nothing in this section shall be deemed to restrict the powers which the Commissioners are authorized to exercise under section 184."

The Hon'ble Baboo Juggadanund Mookerjee observed that the word "rubbish" included broken bricks and mortar, and he thought this section ought not to apply to such things.

After some conversation the further consideration of the section was postponed.

Section 220 required mehters to give one month's notice before leaving service.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the substitution of the words "a fine not exceeding Rs. 20" for the words "rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months" in paragraph 2, line 4 of section 220. He did not believe that there was any law in the country which provided rigorous imprisonment for withdrawal from service without giving notice. The class of people to which the section referred was a very useful one, and they did a service which could not be rendered by other people, and he did not think it would be fair or just to visit desertion by rigorous imprisonment. They ought to be liable to the same punishment that other menial servants were subject to;

and if the law considered the punishment of fine sufficient for other [illegible] he did not see why a more severe punishment should be meted out to [illegible] very useful class of servants.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier observed that the hon'ble member seemed entirely to miss the point of this provision. He did not seem to consider how terrible would be the result of a strike amongst these people, and how much the comfort and health of the community would be jeopardized by a combination among them to strike work; it was therefore absolutely necessary for the protection of health and even life to make desertion by these men a criminal offence. Mr. Dampier would, however, be willing to reduce the punishment to one month's rigorous imprisonment

After some conversation the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier's amendment was agreed to.

In section 221 an amendment moved by the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier on behalf of the Hon'ble Nawab Syed Ashgur Ali, with the object of increasing the time allowed for the repair of drains, &c., from fifteen days to one month, was negatived, and so also was an amendment moved in section 222 for the purpose of exempting from punishment a person who "permits his servants to throw or put" rubbish, &c., into sewers.

Section 222 was then passed after a verbal amendment made on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier.

An amendment in section 223 moved by the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, on behalf of the Hon'ble Nawab Syed Ashgar Ali, for increasing the time allowed for enclosing privies from fifteen days to one month, was negatived.

Sections 224 and 225 were agreed to.

In section 226 the penalty for altering or making unauthorized drains leading into public sewers was, on the motion of the Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal, reduced from Rs. 200 to Rs. 50.

Sections 227, 228, and 229 related to the drainage of land or of a group or block of houses.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of these sections, which were taken from the Calcutta Municipal Bill. He observed that there was no underground drainage going on in mofussil municipalities, and he did not think that these provisions should apply to such places. The amendment to be proposed by the hon'ble mover would to a certain extent meet the objects sought to be attained; but he did not understand whether the outlet was to be maintained by the Commissioners or by private individuals.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier moved the substitution, for section 227, of the following, which he thought would meet the objections of the hon'ble member:—

"If any land, being within one hundred feet of a sewer, drain, or other outlet into which such land may, in the opinion of the Commissioners, be drained, is not drained to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, the Commissioners may require the owner within one month to drain the said land into such sewer, drain, or outlet, and the Commissioners shall at their own expense provide any land which may be required for such drainage, and shall pay any compensation which it may be necessary to pay to any person other than the person whose land is so drained in consequence of such drainage."

The Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg suggested that the section should stop at the word "outlet," so as to avoid possible complications as to compensation; if the Commissioners required a person to drain land, they must indicate the way in which it should be done.

After some conversation the Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg's suggestion was adopted, and the section as amended was agreed to.

An amendment rendered necessary by the previous amendment was, on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, made in section 228.

Sections 229 to 233 were agreed to.

Section 234 empowered the Commissioners to prohibit excavations.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier moved amendments which made the section run thus:—

"The Commissioners at a meeting may by a general order prohibit the making of excavations for the purpose of taking earth therefrom or for the purpose of storing rubbish or filth therein, and the digging of cesspools, tanks, or pits, without special permission previously obtained from them.

If any such excavation, cesspool, tank, or pit is made after the issue and publication of such order without special permission, the Commissioners may require the owners and occupiers of the land on which such cesspool, tank, or pit is made, within eight days, to fill up such cesspool, tank, or pit."

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said he could not accept the amendment, and was rather surprised that the hon'ble mover, with his knowledge of the condition of the country should seriously propose this section. It would practically prohibit the erection of any building with earth or bricks. He did not see why such a provision should find a place in the Bill; for if any person committed a nuisance by filling up a hole with refuse, he would be punishable under the general provisions of the law. To make the declaration under comment was simply to interfere with the commonest rights of the people: it was microscopic legislation, and would interfere with the daily wants of the people. The sanitary objects contemplated would be sufficiently met by the sanitary regulations of the law, and when such was the case, he would entreat his hon'ble friend to omit this and the following sections.

The Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg hardly thought this section should be passed. They were not proposing to deal with a town like Calcutta, but with municipalities and municipal unions in which several places at considerable distances would be grouped together, and therefore the whole intervening space between such places would be included; consequently the villagers would not be able to dig a tank or even a hole without permission.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier observed that it should be remembered that this was one of the provisions which could only be introduced into a municipality by the Government on the recommendation of the Commissioners at a meeting: he would, however, have no objection to modify the provision by empowering the Commissioners to restrict the operation of the section to particular portions of the municipality.

The Hon'ble Mr. Bell said he thought it was absolutely necessary that some provision of this sort should exist in the law. Every one who had had experience of mofussil municipalities must know that these tanks and holes in towns were the greatest source of disease: they were receptacles of the most filthy water and decayed vegetation, and any one who had experience of these municipalities would agree that these tanks and holes were a constant source of sickness. He thought that the sections as proposed were necessary, and that with the alteration suggested they were absolutely harmless.

After some further conversation, the Council divided:—

The motion was therefore carried, and the section as amended was agreed to.

Amendments to correspond with those in section 234 were, on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, made in section 235.

Section 236 related to the removal of existing projections from houses.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier amendments were carried to make it necessary that a hearing should be given before an order was carried out for the removal of an existing projection.

Sections 237 to 241 were agreed to.

Sections 242 to 245 provided regulations similar to those in the Calcutta Municipal Bill to be observed in the building of new houses in municipalities.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of these sections. He thought the time had not arrived to insist upon the observance of these building regulations in the mofussil: in Calcutta they were necessary because there was a system of underground drainage, and proper levels must be observed. In mofussil municipalities there was no prospect of an underground drainage; and even in the Suburbs of Calcutta that system was not contemplated, as far as he was aware. To require the inhabitants of mofussil municipalities to furnish plans and the like, would necessitate a large amount of expenditure which would be hard upon the poorer classes. Many of the conservancy and sanitary regulations of this Bill had been introduced chiefly with the view, as far as he understood it, of meeting the wants of two first class municipalities, Howrah and the Suburbs of Calcutta. He was of opinion that it would have been better had these two municipalities been separately dealt with. These sections, even if introduced into first class municipalities, would subject the inhabitants to great harassment, irritation, and annoyance; and even in the Suburbs of Calcutta and Howrah they ought to be very sparingly used, if at all. The object of the Bill was not to cause irritation and annoyance; and as in the absence of underground drainage there was no necessity to have such regulations, he thought it would not be detrimental to the interests of any municipality to omit these sections; in fact, to attempt to foist all the provisions of the Calcutta Municipal Bill on mofussil municipalities would be to put on very high pressure indeed.

The HON'BLE SIR STUART HOGG said the object of these sections was to take time by the forelock, so as to render conservancy arrangements possible. In Calcutta time was not taken by the forelock, and now the difficulty was how to make adequate provision for conservancy. It was for that reason that these sections were introduced.

After some further conversation the motion was negatived, and the sections were agreed to.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL moved the omission of the words "and at such a level as will admit of such drainage, and with a plinth of at least two feet above the level of the nearest street" at the end of section 246.

The motion was negatived, and the section was agreed to.

Section 247 was agreed to.

In section 248, the penalty for erecting a hut contrary to the provisions of section 246 was, on the motion of the Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal, reduced from Rs. 100 to Rs. 20.

The further consideration of the Bill was postponed.

The Council was adjourned to Thursday, the 23rd instant.

Thursday, the 23rd March 1876.

HIS HONOR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF BENGAL, Presiding,
The Hon'ble H. L. DAMPIER,

The Hon'ble H. BELL,
The Hon'ble BABOO JUGGADANUND MOOKERJEE, RAI BAHADOOR,
The Hon'ble BABOO KRISTODAS PAL.

The Hon'ble NAWAB SYUD ASHGHAR ALI DILER JUNG, C.S.I.

MOFUSSIL MUNICIPALITIES.

THE HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER moved that the Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to municipalities be further considered in order to the settlement of its clauses.

The motion was agreed to.

On the motion of the HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER the following section was introduced after section 158:—

"158A. The Lieutenant-Governor may at any time order that the Commissioners, or any person authorized by them, shall cease to levy any tolls under the last preceding section, and may at any time withdraw such order; provided that reasonable compensation shall be paid by the Commissioners to any farmer or other person who has entered into a legal contract with the said Commissioners for the collection of such tolls, and whose profits under such contract are diminished by an order of the Lieutenant-Governor passed under this section."

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER said that section 184 now related to the removal of offensive matter only and was applicable to all municipalities on the passing of the Bill. He suggested that "rubbish" should be dealt with in two separate sections as follows:—

"184A. The Commissioners at a meeting may from time to time, by an order published as prescribed in section 348, appoint the hours within which only every occupier of any house or land may place rubbish on the public road adjacent to his house or land in order that such rubbish may be removed by the establishment of the Commissioners, and the Commissioners may charge such fees as they may think fit in respect of the removal of such rubbish from such public road, or, with the consent of the occupier of any house or land, from such house or land.

184B. Whenever any order as provided in the last preceding section shall have been published in a municipality, every occupier of any house or land who shall place, or who shall allow his servants to place, rubbish on a public road at other than the appointed times, shall be liable to a fine of twenty rupees"

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL objected to that portion of the section which authorized the Commissioners to charge fees for the removal of rubbish. Hon'ble members were aware that one of the primary duties of a municipal body was to attend to the conservancy of the town; in other words, to remove the sweepings and rubbish, and clean the roads and drains This duty was now performed without any additional charge. The amendment did not confine the charging of fees for the removal of professional or business rubbish. The term "rubbish" had been used in such a comprehensive sense that it would include rubbish ordinarily thrown out from houses as well as rubbish thrown out by reason of any trade or business. He would therefore move the omission from section 184A of the words "from such public road or" so as to confine the operation of the section to rubbish removed from within private houses.

The HON'BLE SIR STUART HOGG said, in his view of the case it was no part of the business of a municipality to remove rubbish collected in private houses. Undoubtedly it was their business to remove the sweepings of the roads and the dust accumulated on them, but not to remove the filth collected in the houses of private individuals. It was true that it was so done in Calcutta, but it was certainly not so done in London or elsewhere; in those places the work was done by private contract. In Calcutta the Municipality raised high rates, and did the work, but the same observations did not apply to outlying towns in the mofussil. He thought the section as drafted should stand: it was left optional to municipalities in the mofussil to charge or not, as they thought fit.

The HON'BLE MR. BELL said his experience was contrary to that of the hon'ble member who had just spoken. The rubbish and sweepings from houses must be put upon the roads. In all mofussil municipalities with which he had been connected, conservancy carts went round and removed the the rubbish deposited on the roads, without any charge. It seemed to him that these were charges which the municipality ought to bear. He would retain the section, omitting from section 184A all the words from the words "and the Commissioners may charge" to the end of the section.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL withdrew his amendment in favor of that proposed by the HON'BLE MR. BELL.

The HON'BLE MR. BELL's amendment was then put and negatived.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER moved by way of amendment the omission from section 184A of the words "from such public road or" and the addition of the words "or in respect of the removal from such public road of any rubbish which has accumulated in the course of a trade or business."

The motion was carried and section 184A as amended was agreed to.

Section 184B was agreed to.

Section 219, empowering the Commissioners to maintain an establishment for the purpose of removing offensive matter, the further consideration of which was postponed, was on the motion of the HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER, omitted.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of sections 249 to 255 (the bustee sections) on the same grounds that he had urged at the last meeting for the omission of some of the sections which were called building regulations. These sections were mostly taken from the Calcutta Municipal Bill, and the reasons which applied to Calcutta did not, in his humble opinion, apply with equal force to mofussil municipalities. He thought that if there was a separate chapter in the Bill dealing with the Suburbs and Howrah, these provisions might apply. But as these sections might be enforced with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in any mofussil municipality, he thought it was placing too much power in the hands of the Commissioners. The necessity for bustee reform did not exist in the municipalities in the interior, where the population was not so dense, and the habitations of the people were not so unhealthy, as were to be found in some of the bustees in Calcutta. In the mofussil the habitations of the poor were generally in open places, and unhealthiness proceeding from overcrowdedness could not be said to exist. Besides, the means of drainage in mofussil towns was not such as to admit of the efficient draining of bustees: the water-supply there was very deficient and defective; and he thought that before the inhabitants of such places were called upon to improve their bustees, the municipalities should be required to provide the necessary means of improvement. In many of these towns good drinking water could not be had, and until the municipalities supplied the means for preserving health, it was to much to require the poor inhabitants to conform to those rigid sanitary rules which were applicable to the metropolis of the country.

On these grounds he objected to these sections. He believed that they might be applicable to some particular municipalities; but the Bill made no exception whatever. The provisions of these sections were very comprehensive, and he thought they ought not to find a place in this Bill.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said, the hon'ble member had observed that this Bill made no distinction as to places. The Bill enacted provisions to be used where they were required to be used. And it seemed impossible in matters of this sort to avoid leaving a discretion in the hands of the executive Government. He did not see why these provisions should not be required at Dacca and Moorshedabad, as well as Howrah and the Suburbs. He should be the last to expect that the Government would introduce these provisions into distant municipalities, rural municipalities so to say, in which the population was sparse and not crowded: he thought that the reason which made them good for Calcutta made them good for some of the mofussil municipalities, and he thought power should be given to the Government to extend them to such places.

The Council divided:—

So the motion was negatived.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier a verbal amendment was made in section 255.

Section 256 required markets, slaughter-houses, &c., to be properly drained.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of this section and of section 257 on the same grounds which he had urged for the omission of the bustee sections. He thought the general provisions of the law relating to nuisances would be sufficient to make people keep these places in good condition, but to require them to cause the floors and drains to be paved with stone or burnt brick, and to provide a sufficient water-supply where there was no supply of water, would be very expensive, and in many cases would lead to the closing of markets and slaughter-houses.

After some conversation the motion was put and negatived, and the sections were agreed to.

Sections 258 and 259 were agreed to.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier the second paragraph of section 260 was omitted as unnecessary.

Sections 260 to 264 were agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 265.

Sections 266 to 268 were agreed to.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal the following section was inserted after section 268:—

"The Commissioners at a meeting may from time to time out of the municipal fund provide for the burial and burning of paupers, free of charge, within the limits of a municipality."

In section 269 the following were omitted from the list of offensive or dangerous trades—

Yard or depôt for trade in "coal, charcoal, golpatta, bamboos;"

Shop for the sale of "fish."

And the provision for charging "an annual fee, not exceeding two rupees for each license" was also omitted.

Section 270 was agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 271.

Section 272 was agreed to.

In section 273 verbal amendments were made so as to exclude shepherds and persons keeping less than ten head of horned cattle, from the necessity of taking out a license.

In section 274 the word "shepherd" was omitted, and the penalty for omitting to take out a license was reduced from Rs. 100 to Rs. 50.

Sections 275 to 280 were agreed to.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said, he thought it was wrong on principle to allow the Municipal Commissioners to devote their funds to speculations of this kind. In most municipalities private markets were in existence in sufficient numbers, and it would necessarily cause conflict between private individuals and the Commissioners if these were permitted to establish markets with the aid of the municipal fund He was not aware if any complaint existed in mofussil towns in consequence of the want of a sufficient number of markets. It was certainly desirable to keep markets in proper condition, and sanitary provisions ought to be enacted for that purpose. But to enable the Commissioners to establish markets out of the municipal fund would be to arm them with power to fritter away their resources without adequate advantages to the people. On these grounds he moved the omission of sections 281, 282, and 283.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said, the subject of these sections had been so thoroughly discussed outside this Bill that he need hardly say anything by way of reply to the hon'ble member's motion. The whole question at issue was whether the establishment of good markets under the circumstances was a good or a bad thing. The Council had already affirmed the principle of these sections in the Calcutta Act. But in deference to the British Indian Association the Select Committee had introduced a provision which required the market fund to be kept entirely distinct from the municipal fund; so that any one could see in a moment how a market was getting on, and whether it was a charge upon the municipal fund or not. He might also point out that by section 267 the Commissioners were bound to license a private market unless there were sanitary objections against it.

The motion was then put and negatived, and the sections were agreed to, a verbal amendment being made in section 281.

Sections 284 to 288 were agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 289.

Sections 290 to 293 were agreed to.

Section 294 related to the framing of bye-laws.

After verbal amendments made on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr Dampier, the following proviso was on the motion of the Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal, added to the section:—

"Provided that no fee or toll shall be levied under the bye-laws which is not expressly sanctioned under this Act."

Sections 295 to 298 were agreed to.

Section 299 was as follows:—

"299. If the Commissioners of any municipality fail to maintain, within the limits thereof, any road which without such limits is maintained by a District Committee under the Road Cess Act, 1871, or to pay for the municipal police, or if the Commissioner of the division shall have reason to believe that the Commissioners are failing to fulfil any obligation imposed upon them by this Chapter, the Commissioner of the division in which such municipality is situated may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, convene a Committee consisting of—

(a) the Magistrate of the district, or the Magistrate of the division of the district.
(b) the Executive Engineer of the division,
(c) the Civil Surgeon of the district,
(d) and two members, one of whom shall be nominated by the Commissioner of the division, and the other by the Commissioners at a meeting; and such Committee shall inquire into and report on the state of the Municipality.

The Lieutenant-Governor may, on the report of such Committee, call upon the Commissioners by a requisition in writing forwarded to the Chairman, and published in the Calcutta Gazette, to raise the necessary funds and carry out the purposes of this Chapter;

And if the Commissioners neglect, for the period of three months from the date of such publication, to comply with such requisition, the Lieutenant-Governor may direct the Magistrate of the district to raise the necessary funds under the provisions of this Chapter, and carry out the purposes thereof in respect of roads, police, and the cleansing of the municipality; and for such purposes the Magistrate of the district shall have all the powers and rights conferred on the Commissioners and the Commissioners at a meeting, by this Act, and shall exercise such powers and rights until the said Lieutenant-Governor shall otherwise direct"

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier moved the omission of the words from the beginning of the section to the words "the Commissioner of the division in which such municipality is situated" in the beginning of the second paragraph, and the substitution of the following:—

"If the Commissioner of the division shall have reason to believe that the Commissioners have failed to pay for the municipal police as required by this Act, or have failed to maintain within the limits of the municipality any road which without such limits is maintained by a District Committee under the Road Cess Act, 1871, or have failed to maintain in proper order the roads within the municipality; or have failed to make adequate and suitable provision for the cleansing and conservancy of the municipality to an extent likely to be prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of any part thereof, the said Commissioners"

Also the insertion of the words "in respect of the objects mentioned in this section" after the word "chapter" at the end of paragraph 3; and the substitution of the words "the said objects" for the words "roads, police, and the cleansing of the municipality" in paragraph 4.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said he was sorry he could not agree to the amendment proposed. This section very much resembled the controlling sections of the Calcutta Bill, and it gave much more power to the Commissioner of the Division than the Government itself took in the Calcutta Bill. The tendency of the section was to keep the Municipal Commissioners continually and perpetually in the leading strings of the Commissioner of the division. If the Commissioner thought not only that the Commissioners did not pay for the police, but that the roads in the municipality were not kept in proper order, or that the Commissioners did not make adequate provision for the cleansing and conservancy of the municipality, then he might convene a Committee and carry out the provisions of the law. Baboo Kristodas Pal need not repeat that the funds of mofussil municipalities were so very limited, that they were not in a position to carry out the many improvements which were enjoined by this Bill, and it would therefore be most unjust to vest the Commissioner of the division with power to step in whenever he might think that the Commissioners had not done their duty: where the police were not paid, or where the Commissioners failed to maintain, within municipal limits, roads which without such limits were maintained by a Road Cess Committee, the Commissioners might justly be called upon to make suitable provision. But in other respects, he did not think it would be consistent with the principle of the Bill to vest these large powers over Municipal Commissioners in the Commissioner of the division. They might, he thought, be trusted to exercise their powers in other respects, especially as the Commissioner of the division, having practically a voice in the internal working of the municipality, would be necessarily acquainted with its affairs. The budget could not be passed without the sanction of the Commissioner of the division; no new work above a certain amount could be carried out without his approval; and he did not think it was necessary or desirable to vest him with further powers He therefore suggested that the provisions of this section should be limited to those two items, namely, the maintenance of the police, and the maintenance of such roads as were under the Road Cess Committee. He would therefore move the following amendments :—

The omission of the words "or if the Commissioner of the division shall have reason to believe that the Commissioners are failing to fulfil any obligation imposed upon them by this chapter" in the first paragraph.

The substitution of the words "provide for the roads and the police in the manner provided by this Act" for the words "carry out the purposes of this chapter" in paragraph 2.

And the omission of the words "and the cleansing of the municipality" in paragraph 4.

After some conversation, the Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal's amendments were negatived, and the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier's amendments were agreed to.

Sections 300 to 302 were agreed to.

Section 303 provided for the formation of Unions under Chapter III.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the addition to the section of the following words :—

"But no agricultural village intervening shall be included in such Union."

It had been affirmed at an early stage of the Bill that it was not the object to extend municipal taxation to agricultural villages; he therefore proposed the insertion of these words. It was true that these towns were not, properly speaking, municipal towns; they were in fact towns under the Chowkidaree Act XX of 1856; but agricultural villages were also not included in that Act. He found from a despatch of the Court of Directors on the passing of that Act that the object was to exclude agricultural villages.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said he must again explain that this Chapter of the Bill was really a consolidation and nothing else of Act XX of 1856 and the many existing laws which have been grafted on it; and this section 303 would be found to be an exact reproduction of Act XX of 1856. There was no such exception of agricultural villages in the Act, and it might be that there had been abuses; but it was out of place to bring in such an amendment as this when the provisions of this Chapter were only a re-enactment of the existing law.

After some conversation the motion was carried, and the section as amended was agreed to.

A similar amendment was made in section 304.

Section 305 provided that the Magistrate should raise in every town the expense of the police, and such sum in addition as he might think fit for "cleaning the town or in lighting or otherwise improving it."

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal thought that good drinking water was of much more practical importance than lighting, and he would therefore move that the words "in providing drinking water" be substituted for the words in lighting."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier explained that "lighting" had all along been one of the purposes to which the funds might be applied under Act XX of 1856; he would however have no objection to include "drinking water" as one of the objects in addition to lighting.

The motion as amended on the suggestion of Mr. Dampier was carried, and the section as amended was agreed to.

Sections 306 to 314 were agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 315.

Section 316 was agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 317.

Sections 318 to 320 were agreed to.

Section 321 provided a penalty for refusal to serve on the panchait.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of this section. The Chowkidaree Act was passed at a time when municipal institutions were just springing up into existence, and now that the Act had been in existence for twenty years, he thought the time had arrived for amending the law.

The Hon'ble Mr. Bell thought it would be unadvisable to omit this section. There might be districts in which there was a difficulty to get panchaits.

After some conversation, the motion was agreed to.

Sections 322 to 338 were agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 339.

Section 340 specified the purposes for which rules might be framed under the Chapter, and amongst other things authorized the levy of "town duties."

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of the word "or town-duties" in clause 2 of the section; he believed "town-duties" were not now levied anywhere.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier observed that this Chapter IV was a mere reproduction of the existing Act XXVI of 1850. That Act could not be introduced otherwise than at the wish of the inhabitants. He believed it was in force in two places only, Jamalpore and another, and there, under the existing Act, the mode of taxation by town duties might be adopted if it was desired. The law was considered well adapted to young towns which sprung up about railway stations, and it had been determined to reproduce its provisions in this Bill. Places under that Act had the right to make rules for defining "the persons or property within the town or suburbs to be taxed for raising the moneys necessary for the purposes of this Act, whether by house assessment or town-duties or otherwise."

After some conversation, the further consideration of the section was postponed.

Sections 341 to 354 were agreed to.

Section 355 authorized the sale of unclaimed holdings for money due.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of the section. He thought that if anybody had a right to unclaimed holdings it was the Government. If there were any holdings which were unoccupied, the conclusion was that any due which the Commissioners had in respect of such holdings ought to be written off as bad debts. But surely the Municipal Commissioners ought not to have the power of selling them off; for if nobody claimed the property within a year, the Commissioners under this section would carry the proceeds to the credit of the municipal fund. Such a power did not exist in the Calcutta Act. He thought the Government, and not the Municipality, ought to benefit in such cases, and that the ordinary law of limitation ought to apply.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said the section was introduced to meet a case of this sort. An epidemic came in and persons began to leave the place. Huts were deserted and fell to pieces. The Commissioners kept down the jungle, and kept clean the premises which had been deserted, as nobody else would move in the matter. Surely the Commissioners ought to be allowed to recover anything they could in such cases. With regard to the limitation of one year, the section simply provided that the proceeds were to be transferred to the municipal fund after the expiration of one year: there was nothing to prevent a person putting in his claim within the usual limitation of three years.

The motion was negatived and the section was agreed to.

Section 356 was agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 357.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier moved the introduction of the following section after section 357:—

"357A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, Bengal Act VI of 1870 (an Act to provide for the appointment, dismissal, and maintenance of village chowkidars), the provisions of Part II of the said Act, relating to chowkidaree chakran lands, shall be applicable to all such lands which have been assigned before the passing of the said Act for the benefit of any part of a municipality, town, or station in which this Act may from time to time be in force, and all duties and functions which the panchait of a village or any member thereof is required to discharge under the provisions of the said Part, and all powers which the panchait of a village or any member thereof is authorized to exercise under the said Part, shall be exercised in respect of any municipality by the Commissioners thereof."

He said hon'ble members were aware that Bengal Act VI of 1870 provided a system for securing the payment and the control of chowkidars in mofussil villages. And one of the Chapters of that Act was to the effect that chakran lands, which had been assigned to provide for the performance of police duties, might be assessed at half rates and given up to the zemindar entirely, the zemindar paying revenue on such lands at half the usual rates only, instead of their being held as before by a chowkidar who, as a condition of his tenure, was bound to give a certain amount of police service and a certain amount of service to the zemindar. It was assumed that the interest of the zemindar and the public in the chowkidar's services was half and half. There was a provision in the Act that Commissioners might be appointed to identify these chakran lands, and it enacted that the rent payable by the zemindar should be paid over to the panchait, who should devote it to the purpose of paying chowkidars. In the Burdwan district there had been a good deal of stir about this matter, and it had been found that there was a great amount of chakran lands within the limits of chowkidaree unions, and it was proposed that there the land should be assessed under the Act. But on looking at the law, Act VI of 1870, it was found that in section 3 there was a provision of which the effect was to prevent that being done within the limits of municipalities. The reason of the exclusion appeared to be this, that in framing Act VI of 1870 they were dealing with villages and not municipalities, and were providing that the rental of land should be dealt with by the panchaits who were called into existence as a part of the scheme of that Act. In municipalities and chowkidaree unions there were no such panchaits. In fact the Act was not dealing with towns at all but with rural villages; and therefore it expressly excluded from its own operation chakran lands which lay within the limits of municipalities. Section 3 of Act VI of 1870 ran as follows:—

"It shall be lawful for the Magistrate of the district by a sunnud under his hand and seal to appoint not less than three nor more than five persons to be a panchait in any village containing more than sixty houses, within the district of which he is in charge. Provided that no such panchait shall be appointed in any village to which the provisions of Act XXVI of 1850, or of Act XX of 1856, passed by the Legislative Council of India, or the provisions of Act III of 1864, or of Act VI of 1868, passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, shall have been extended."

Then the subsequent sections of the law said that the sections which dealt with chakran lands should not be applied in any place where there was not a panchait. But under section 3 you might not appoint a panchait in municipalities, and therefore you could not apply the chakran provisions to such places. He thought it was obvious that it would be very desirable to deal with chakran lands within the limits of municipalities in the same manner as they were dealt with in villages under Act VI of 1870; and as on the present occasion the Council were dealing with towns, he had at the instance of the Government drafted the section which he now moved should be introduced in the Bill.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said he was sorry that this important question was raised at the fag end of the discussion. The hon'ble member had given the Council his theory of the cause of the omission of the assessment of chakran lands within the limits of municipalities by referring to the fact that Act VI of 1870 provided a machinery for panchaits and for assessments, and as the Municipal Acts did not provide that machinery, therefore the chakran provisions of Act VI of 1870 did not apply to municipalities. Baboo Kristodas Pal appealed to his hon'ble friend to refer to the section which he had read, and let him say whether under Act XX of 1856 there was not a panchait in existence. Still it was enacted there that no such panchait should be appointed in villages which were under the provisions of Act XX of 1856.

In other words, the chakran clauses of Act VI of 1870 were not extended wherever Act XX of 1856 was in force, although a panchait was then in existence. Therefore the theory of his hon'ble friend did not hold good.

So there must be some other cause and some very weighty reason why the chakran clauses were not extended to such places as were under the operation of Act XX of 1856, or Bengal Acts III of 1864 and VI of 1868. Now, the controversy about chakran lands had a long history. Hon'ble members were aware that since the year 1831 the question of bringing chakran lands under assessment had been more or less under consideration, and Committee after Committee had been appointed and officer after officer had been called upon to report upon the subject. The last of these reports was that made by Mr. MacNeille. Upon the submission of that report a Committee consisting of official and non-official gentlemen was appointed to go into the whole question, and the result of its labors was the chakran clauses of Act VI of 1870. So that after many years of enquiry and deliberations the Government decided that chakran lands should be dealt with in rural villages in the manner provided by that Act. It was now proposed to extend the same provisions to municipalities.

Baboo Kristodas Pal asked whether his hon'ble friend was aware that these lands, like others, were liable to assessment: if they were, should they be subject to double assessment? The question ought to have been considered in Select Committee first. At the first blush of the subject he was inclined to think that they ought not to be brought under municipal assessment. He did not say that if they were brought under Act VI of 1870 they should be exempt from municipal assessment; but the subject was a very important one, and should be carefully considered before the Council was asked to introduce into this Bill an innovation of this nature.

The Hon'ble Mr. Bell said he happened to be one of the Committee on whose report Act VI of 1870 was passed; and he thought the hon'ble member labored under some slight misapprehension as to what was recommended by the Committee and embodied in the Act. The Village Chowkidars' Act merely referred to villages in which that Act was in force; and the provisions regarding chakran land were necessarily limited to those particular villages. One reason why the provisions of the Chowkidars' Act in regard to chakran land were not extended to municipalities was this, that the question of municipalities was not before the Council when that Act was discussed. Section 48 of the Act provided that:—

"All chowkidari chakran lands before the passing of this Act assigned for the benefit of any village in which a panchait shall be appointed, shall be transferred in manner and subject as hereinafter mentioned to the zemindar of the estate or tenure within which may be situate such lands."

The object of the Act was to utilize chakran lands by assessing them with rent and devoting the rent to the payment of the chowkidars. It seemed to him that the amendment was one of exclusive gain to municipalities. At present, if there was chakran land in a village the chowkidar who lived on that land was absolutely useless to the municipality. The object of the amendment was to allow the municipality to make over the land to the zemindar and receive rent for the land. Therefore, as far as the amendment went, it would be a great relief to the burden of the tax-payers.

The hon'ble member opposite (Baboo Kristodas Pal) objected that this land would be subject, first, to municipal assessment, and secondly, to chowkidaree assessment. But the service rendered by the chowkidar was paid in lieu of rent; and therefore there would be no double assessment. If we left the land as it stood, chakran lands in municipalities would be liable to no assessment at all. He quite agreed that the general question of dealing with chakran lands was a very difficult one, and if any new principle had been involved in the present proposition, he should have advised that the subject be postponed for further consideration. But as he understood it, the hon'ble member merely wished to introduce into municipalities an arrangement which had already been carried out in chowkidaree unions.

After some further conversation the Council divided:—

The motion was therefore carried.

On the motion of the HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER the following section was added to the Bill :—

Section 360.—"If any person employed under this Act (not being a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code) shall accept or obtain, or agree to accept or attempt to obtain, from any person for himself or for any other person, any gratification whatever, other than legal remuneration as a reward for doing, or forbearing to do, any official act, or for showing or forbearing to show, in the exercise of his official functions, favor or disfavor to any person, or for rendering or attempting to render any service or disservice to any person with the Commissioners or with any public servant or with the Government as such, he shall be punished with imprisonment, either simple or rigorous, as provided in section 53 of the Indian Penal Code, for a term which may extend to three years, or with a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees, or with both."

Penalty on officers, &c., taking unauthorized fees.

The first and second schedules were agreed to.

The third schedule prescribed the maximum rates of tax for houses and carriages.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL moved that the schedule annexed to Act III of 1864 be substituted for this schedule. He found on comparing the two schedules that material alterations had been made in this schedule from the existing law. For instance in Act III of 1864 the charge for every four-wheeled carriage on springs drawn by one horse or a pair of ponies was Rs. 1-8; in the schedule of the Bill the tax was raised to Rs. 3. Then for every four-wheeled carriage without springs the tax in the existing law was Rs. 1-8. These two classes had been amalgamated together in the new schedule, and the tax had been raised to Rs. 3. The present rate for a two-wheeled carriage on springs was Rs. 2-4; in the Bill it was Rs. 2-8. And the tax for a two-wheeled carriage without springs was at present 12 annas, whereas in this schedule it was raised to Rs. 2-8. The Bill appeared to make no distinction between carriages on springs and without springs. And as the principle of the Bill was to impose no additional taxation, he thought the schedule of the existing law should be substituted for the schedule in the Bill.

After some conversation, the Council divided :—

	„ SIR STUART HOGG.

The fourth and fifth schedules were agreed to.

CALCUTTA MUNICIPALITY.

THE HON'BLE SIR STUART HOGG said before proceeding to make the motion which stood in his name, he would ask leave to propose a verbal alteration in the 9th schedule, which referred to the registration of deaths in the town. After the 8th column of the form prescribed in that schedule, he proposed to add the following heads of information, "residence at the time of death," and "residence previous to last illness." The object of these two additions to the form was to enable the municipality to distinguish between persons who died in the town and were actual residents of Calcutta, and those who, although they died in Calcutta, were previous to their last illness residents beyond municipal limits. The alteration had been suggested by the Health Officer, Dr. Payne, who found it difficult to distinguish between those two classes of deaths.

The motion was agreed to.

The HON'BLE SIR STUART HOGG moved that the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the municipal affairs of Calcutta be passed. In doing so, he said that since the last publication of the Bill in the Calcutta Gazette, and indeed since it had been considered by the Select Committee, to whom it was referred with the view of considering how far it was possible to alter the control sections so as to meet the wishes of certain memorialists, the Council had only received one memorial in a general form from the Special Committee appointed by the Justices of the Peace. Previously to that the Council had received a memorial from the Justices, in which they at a very large meeting generally approved of the Bill. That was previous to the introduction of the sections which gave to Calcutta the elective system now contained in the Bill. Since then the Justices had appointed another Committee, who had not only remonstrated against the elective system, but had made suggestions as regards particular clauses of the Bill to which they had previously given their assent; as all that the Justices had said had been fully considered by the Select Committee of this Council before whom the Justices had been represented by Counsel, he need not take up the time of the Council by referring to those matters again.

Another memorial which had also been received was from Baboo Prannath Pundit, who prayed the Council to reconsider section 143, which provided that people residing outside the municipal limits and not paying municipal taxes, should not, without the express permission of the Justices, be permitted to take water from the stand-pipes in the town. Seeing that such people did not pay the water-rate, SIR STUART HOGG did not think that it could be any hardship to enact that, without express permission, such persons should not take the water which was paid for by the residents of the town. He did not think that the representation placed in his hands deserved the consideration of the Council. He would therefore now move that the Bill be passed.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL said before this motion was put to the vote, he desired to say why he considered it his duty to oppose the passing of the Bill. He would not take up the time of the Council by reiterating the objections which he had taken to several portions of the Bill. He readily acknowledged the patience and courtesy with which the Council had heard his arguments and objections, as well as the various suggestions which he had made for the improvement of the Bill. He would now simply sum up the reasons upon which he considered it his duty to protest against the passing of the Bill:—

Firstly.—Because the Bill, though it professes to concede self-government to the people of Calcutta, leaves the appointment and dismissal of the Chief Executive Officer in the hands of Government, and thus destroys one of the most essential characteristics of self-government.

Secondly.—Because the Bill sanctions the union of the functions of Chairman of the Commissioners and Commissioner of Police in the hands of one person, which is detrimental to efficiency, tends to divide responsibility, and opens a door to abuse of power. This centralization of authority is not required in the interest of the town, inasmuch as the experience gained in the sister capitals of Madras and Bombay shows that the separation of the two offices works there smoothly and satisfactorily.

Thirdly.—Because the Bill sanctions additional objects for municipal expenditure, which, though optional, may be enforced at the discretion of the Commissioners, and which, when enforced, are likely to result in additional taxation. The multiplication of municipal expenditure on objects of secondary importance, when the town is burdened with a heavy debt, and its primary requirements cannot be satisfactorily met from want of funds, is much to be regretted.

Fourthly.—Because the Bill reduces the hours of the supply of water at high pressure from 17 to 3 during twenty-four hours, though it enhances the water-rate from 5 to 6 per cent. The reduction of the water-supply will place the people at considerable disadvantage and imperil the success of the drainage system.

The Hon'ble Mr. Brookes said he also desired to record his protest against the passing of this Bill. He cordially agreed in the remarks which had fallen from the hon'ble member who had just spoken. Every argument which could possibly be made use of against the various sections of the Bill which had been objected to had been brought to the notice of the Council by the hon'ble member and himself, and it now only remained for them to record their protest against the passing of the Bill that day.

The Hon'ble Baboo Juggadanund Mookerjee referred to the petition which had been received from Baboo Prannath Pundit regarding section 143 of the Bill. His desire was to ask the Council to consider whether they could not modify the section in some way. The provision as it stood would be to some extent a hardship on persons who were not resident in Calcutta, but who, from their residing in proximity to the town, had enjoyed the benefits which the water-supply conferred upon the residents of Calcutta. Pure and good water was wholly a matter of necessity and not a luxury to those who had been accustomed to it.

The Hon'ble Sir Stuart Hogg said he would point out that the Bill in its present form absolutely accorded to the residents of the suburbs an advantage which they did not now possess. Under the existing law the Justices had no power whatever to grant permission to persons outside the town to take any water. But by section 143, with the view of meeting the convenience of people living outside the town, the Council had thought fit to declare that the Commissioners should have power to allow persons residing outside the town to take water from the stand-posts on such terms as the Commissioners might think fit. He did not think it was any hardship to declare by legislation that people who did not pay for the water had not the right to take water unless with the sanction of the people who did pay for it.

The motion that the Bill be passed was then put:—

Ayes—8.	Noes—3.

„ Sir Stuart Hogg.

So the motion was carried and the Bill was passed.

MOFUSSIL MUNICIPALITIES.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier the Council proceeded to the further consideration of the Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to municipalities.

Section 3 declared under what classes existing municipalities would fall.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said this section was intimately connected with sections 13, 303, and 304. It might be in the recollection of the Council that when the question of forming fresh municipal unions under this Act was under consideration, he called attention to the injustice of including outlying villages in these unions, and it was at last agreed that such villages should not be included in fresh unions which might be formed under sections 13, 303, and 304. The discussions of the Council on this point showed that it recognised the injustice of including such outlying villages in municipal unions. If the injustice of including such villages in fresh unions was admitted, he did not see why the injustice should be perpetuated in existing unions; and if the opportunity were given to the Municipal Commissioners and the Government, he did not doubt that they would rectify it. Section 3 was so worded that it would not be in the power of the Commissioners or the Government to exclude these outlying villages from such unions.

Several hon'ble members had testified from their own experience to the hardship and injustice of including these villages; and therefore, in accordance with the decision already arrived at, he would move the addition to the section of the following words—

"and within six months from the date on which this Act shall come into force, the Commissioners at a meeting, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, may exclude from the limits of the municipality such place or places as are described in sections 13, 303 and 304."

If the Council accepted the principle of the amendment, the words could be afterwards altered so as to fit into the legal phraseology of the Bill. But the broad question was that if it was unjust to include outlying villages in unions to be formed hereafter, surely the injustice was equally patent in refusing to exclude villages, already included in unions and municipalities, which ought not, according to reason and justice, to have been so included.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER said he must oppose this motion. No doubt the Council had by their decision in section 13 affirmed the principle that they thought the conditions imposed should be adhered to in bringing new places under municipal legislation. In so far he quite admitted that the Council had already done considerable good which the executive would, he hoped, follow in dealing with existing municipalities and municipal unions. But he must say that he thought some weight should be given to the fact of towns or tracts having been subject to a certain law for a number of years. We had said for instance that no place should be a municipality which did not contain at least three thousand inhabitants. Now, he believed that if a place had been a municipality for ten years, and it contained only two thousand inhabitants, it would not be right in effect to reduce it to the status of an agricultural village again after it had had the status and dignity of a municipality for ten years.

Then he wished the honorable gentleman to observe that the section as it was drawn left it quite open for the Commissioners to do what was proposed. It only provided that the machinery of such places should not come to a dead-lock on the passing of the Act. Everything would proceed in existing municipalities and towns according to present qualifications. But it had been specially provided that the local Government might impose other qualifications. The section provided that "unless and until the Lieutenant-Governor should otherwise direct by notification." There was therefore full power given to the Lieutenant-Governor; and the Commissioners might, and in extreme cases no doubt would, move the Lieutenant-Governor to exercise that power. At any rate it would be most dangerous for the Government to accept the amendment proposed, so far as MR. DAMPIER understood it, without ascertaining what the facts were. The Bill had now been weeks and weeks before the Council, and no notice of this amendment had been formally given. Not that he should press that ground at all, but he might say that the amendment could not be accepted by the Government without seeing how it affected the status of existing municipalities and townships.

The HON'BLE MR. BELL said he thought there were two very short objections to the amendment proposed. First, that it was opposed to the well-known principle that you ought not to change the status of a public body without giving that body notice. The effect of the amendment would be that you would alter the status of existing municipalities without giving the inhabitants any chance of being heard against the change proposed. The second objection was that it adopts the dangerous principle of giving retrospective effect to legislation. The only safe course was to apply the Bill prospectively to our municipalities, but if the amended Bill were adopted, the new principle would at once apply to all municipalities. He thought it would be very dangerous if the Council were to amend the section as proposed.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER said a great deal had been made of the point that this Bill was not intended to increase taxation; that was the way the argument was put. But he thought the fair way to state the case was that the Bill was mainly a Consolidation Bill, introducing minor amendments where they were desirable, but not introducing any radical changes in the law. Now, with regard to increased taxation, if an extra rupee was put on, the objection had been taken that the object of the Bill was not to increase taxation.

On the other side most sweeping innovations were introduced at the instance of hon'ble members without any objection being taken that this was mainly a Consolidation Bill.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL said he owed it to himself to offer an explanation on the point urged by the hon'ble mover. He said that this was a Consolidation Bill, with only a few minor alterations in the existing provisions of the law. The Council had now come to the end of the Bill, and BABOO KRISTODAS PAL would just state seriatim some of the subjects with which this Bill dealt. And he would appeal to the hon'ble member himself to say whether the many sections which had been introduced regarding conservancy, building regulations, bustees, slaughter-houses, markets, and other things, were not, to use his own expression, sweeping innovations; whether the provisions on these subjects were quite consistent with his statement of objects and reasons; and whether the single proposition which BABOO KRISTODAS PAL had ventured to advance for the purpose solely of rectifying the glaring injustice which was admitted on all hands, would materially alter the character of the Bill. Of course he was entirely in the hands of the Council; but he submitted that when an injustice was admitted, and when it was a glaring injustice, no technical objection ought to prevent the Council from doing justice to the poor people in outlying villages which were unjustly included in municipal unions.

The HON'BLE SIR STUART HOGG thought that the hon'ble member's object would be better attained by an amendment of section 9. He should therefore move that to that section be prefixed the words "On the representation of the Commissioners or by his own motion."

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL'S amendment was withdrawn, and Sir Stuart Hogg's amendment was agreed to.

The postponed sections 4 and 5 were agreed to.

Section 2, the interpretation section, was agreed to.

In Section 1, for the second paragraph the following clause, taken from the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Bill, was, on the motion of the HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER, substituted:—

"and it shall come into force as the local Government may direct, not being more than three months after the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General."

The preamble and title were agreed to, and the Bill as settled by the Council was ordered to be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

SETTLEMENT OF RENT DISPUTES.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER presented the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide for inquiry into disputes regarding land, and to prevent agrarian disturbances; and moved that the report of the Select Committee be taken into consideration in order to the settlement of the clauses of the Bill.

The motion was agreed to.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL enquired whether the settlement of the clauses of this Bill now was to be considered final, or only provisional. If it was not the object of the Council to proceed with this Bill in a hurry, without giving an opportunity to those interested to make known their objections, he had no objection to the settlement of the clauses at the present sitting of the Council. He was informed that persons interested in this Bill were desirous of expressing their views regarding it, and they had had no time to do so since the publication of the Select Committee's report.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT stated that the settlement of the clauses would be provisional; there was every desire to afford those interested an opportunity to submit any representations they might have to make, and it was therefore, he thought, better that the Council should consider the clauses of the Bill and settle them provisionally, so that the public might see the Bill in the shape in which it was likely to be passed.

Section 3 provided that if it should appear to the Lieutenant-Governor that a serious dispute existed in any tract of country as to any question in respect of the adjustment of rents, or as to arrears of rents, the Lieutenant-Governor might declare the provisions of the Act to be in force in such place.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of the words "in respect of the adjustment of rents or as to." His reason for making that motion was that the Bill did not provide any principle upon which the adjustment of rents was to be made. The hon'ble member had pointed out that this was merely a procedure Bill. Baboo Kristodas Pal had since carefully considered the Bill, and found that it was provided in section 13 that the Collector should, as far as possible, follow the procedure prescribed in Act X of 1859: he might therefore follow that procedure as far as he chose. There was nothing to show that he was to be guided by the principles laid down in that Act for the enhancement of rent.

[The Hon'ble the Advocate-General remarked that the hon'ble member was under a misapprehension. The Collector had no option, but was bound to follow the procedure of Act X of 1859 as far as possible—as far as he could go. Take the case of equitable rents; there the rule of proportion laid down in Thakooranee Dossee's case must be applied. But if the rule of proportion there laid down could not be applied, then the Collector was to be guided by his own judgment, and act according to equity and good conscience.]

None was better aware than the learned Advocate-General that the rule of proportion laid down by the High Court was not easily workable, and therefore suits would be decided according to the varying judgment of the Collectors.

It was to this wide discretion he objected. He thought the law should lay down a number of definite principles, because one principle might not be applicable to all parts of Bengal; but if certain principles applicable to the varying circumstances of different districts were adopted, the Collector would have some guide in regulating the adjustment of rents.

The Hon'ble the Advocate-General said, during the discussions of the Select Committee certain rules had been framed by him, in conjunction with the hon'ble mover of the Bill, to enable the Collector to follow certain lines in the adjustment of rents. But they were objected to by the majority of the Committee. He for one was quite willing to agree to the motion of the hon'ble member. The grounds of enhancement were mentioned in section 17 of Act X of 1859. For instance, if the "value of the produce or the productive powers of the land have been increased otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the ryot," then the Act said that a pottah should be given "at fair and equitable rates." The question in all cases was, what was the limit of enhancement. Thakooranee Dossee's case followed a certain rule of proportion, and practically one member of the proportion was not discoverable; and therefore the rule there given could not be followed. But inasmuch as the value of the produce had been increased, the Court must follow certain other rules to find out the rate of enhancement. Thakooranee Dossee's case was not exhaustive. The zemindar could not go without an increase, because the rule there laid down could not be followed. The rules which had been framed were proposed not with the view to compel the Collector to follow them, but merely to point to certain principles which he might adopt; always bearing in mind that these principles were subject to the broad principle in the Act, that the rate must be "fair and equitable." These rules would be objectionable if in point of fact they were a sort of amendment of the Rent Act. But they were not proposed in the way of amendment; and if the principles contained in them were worked fairly and practically, they might be of much assistance to the Collector in arriving at an adjustment of rent.

The Hon'ble Mr. Bell said he had a strong objection to embody these rules in the Bill, which was not one of substantive law, but merely of procedure and jurisdiction. The result of introducing such rules, or any similar rules, would be that we should have the whole of Bengal in a blaze. An irresistible inducement would be held out to every zemindar to enhance the rents of his ryots in order that he might try the effect of these new principles. The object of the Bill was to settle disputes, not to foment them. But if these principles were inserted in the Bill, we should foment disputes throughout the length and breadth of the land. One of the principles laid down in the proposed rules was, that a zemindar might enhance the rent of his ryots by taking as a standard what tenants-at-will in adjacent places paid for their land. What would be the result of such a principle? Why, the zemindar would only have to put up two or three fictitious ryots, and say, "these tenants are paying so much rent per beegha," and he would thus be able to enhance the rent of every ryot on his estate.

Again, MR. BELL would ask whether the three principles laid down in these rules were the only principles upon which the rates of rent could be adjusted. If rules were to be laid down, why should they not be laid down in the interest of the ryot as well as of the zemindar. But his objection was not only to the principles of these rules; he was strongly opposed to amending the substantive law of the land in a temporary measure of this sort. He felt confident that it would be most unadvisable to introduce new principles in a temporary measure of this sort, and he hoped the Council would not, when passing a temporary measure to settle disputes in regard to rent, allow a most important and substantive change in the law to be embodied as it were by a side wind in the Bill. He felt sure that these proposals would be received with great opposition throughout the country, and that it would not be within the ability of the the Council to pass the Bill without exciting the very feelings which the Bill was intended to allay.

The HON'BLE THE ADVOCATE-GENERAL said he did not think the hon'ble member who had just spoken had quite understood the principle upon which these rules were intended to be proposed. The object of the Bill was a summary enquiry for the purpose of adjusting disputes relating to rent; and until persons who were at issue with each other could have their disputes properly settled, they would resort to other means for settling their differences. The rules were intended for the purpose of enabling the settler of disputes to use his own judgment as to which should be the proper principle upon which the dispute should be settled. If these principles were not to be introduced, and the rule in Thakooranee Dossee's case was to be the sole standard by which the Collector should be guided, then in cases where it might be impossible to ascertain the first number in the rule of proportion there laid down, namely the rate of rent at the time of the last adjustment of rents, what principle was the Collector to follow in ascertaining the rate of rent? A man was entitled to a certain proportion of the increased value of the produce, and he brought a suit to obtain that increase of rent. It was impossible to determine the enhanced rent payable, and the suit was dismissed. Did that allay disputes? The ADVOCATE-GENERAL submitted that it rather fomented disputes. Therefore, so far from the principles proposed to be laid down by these rules being calculated to foment disputes, he thought they were likely to settle disputes.

With regard to the case put of the zemindar doing something by fraud, he submitted that every principle, however fair, might be defeated by fraud. Fraud was a fact in the case. If the zemindar gained a decree by means of fraud, he deceived the judge. But the ADVOCATE-GENERAL thought that such frauds would rarely be established if the Collector was vigilant and had experience of his district. Even the highest judicial tribunals miscarried sometimes in arriving at conclusions of fact. A case of fraud was exceptional: if it could be detected it would have no force.

The hon'ble member opposite (Baboo Kristodas Pal) had suggested that unless you had some principles upon which the adjustment of rents was to be made, what was the use of this Bill at all? Having seen the force of that objection, the ADVOCATE-GENERAL thought it his duty to embody some rules which might assist the Collector to determine the rate of rent in those cases in which the rule in Thakooranee Dossee's case did not apply. All that was intended was to introduce, in case of a difficulty in dividing the proportion of increase between the ryot and the zemindar in consequence of the inapplicability of the rule of proportion laid down, some principles, not as absolute rules of law, but to assist the Collector in determining in such cases what would be a fair and equitable rate of rent. He further intended that if it were found that the principles embodied in these rules worked satisfactorily, hereafter, when any proposal for the amendment of the law was before the Council, these rules might be taken into consideration. As the law stood, the Collector must decide what was a fair and equitable rent. He must first follow the ruling in Thakooranee Dossee's case; and if he could not find out the different members of the rule of proportion there given, he must then either dismiss the suit, or he must decide according to his own judgment on the principle of what was fair and equitable. Then which was best, that, what was fair and equitable should be described by fair lines for the Collector's assistance, or that it should be left entirely to his own discretion? The matter was unanswerable that the latter was preferable to the former; that the Collector's judgment should be guided by some principles, rather than that he should be left to his unfettered discretion. It was on these considerations that the ADVOCATE-GENERAL thought some rules should be put forward in this Bill; if he thought that the rules would have the effect of fomenting disturbances, he should have been the last to have proposed them. He suggested them because he thought that they would enable the Collector to give a modified ruling in those cases in which the ruling laid down by the High Court might not apply.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said, the third of the Rules which it was proposed to introduce (rule c) ran in this way —"by taking as the standard of comparison the rates which are generally paid by ryots having no right of occupancy in adjacent places, or in such places as the Collector may select, for lands of a similar description and having similar advantages." Now, he understood the hon'ble member on the right (Mr. Bell) to consider that this rule would induce the zemindar to set up tenants-at-will paying nominal rents, and by such nominal standard to endeavour to enhance the rents of the ryots. HIS HONOR was anxious to explain, in the first place, as the learned Advocate-General had remarked, that if a zemindar did so it would be an attempt to defraud, which he should hope would not be generally followed by gentlemen in the position of zemindars, and if the attempt were made, it ought to be found out. One could fancy the Civil Court being deceived by strong and skilfully prepared evidence; but the Collector, who had every sort of information of his district, ought not to be duped by any attempt of that kind. But be that as it might, HIS HONOR was anxious to explain to the Council what was a matter of great importance, that this was the very rule, and absolutely the very principle, on which all rents of occupancy tenants were adjusted in Northern India, in the Punjab, in Oudh, and in fact throughout Northern India. He ventured to say that there was no part of India in which this question was so minutely studied as in Northern India, and there was no province in which the variety of tenures was so great as in Northern India. You took first of all the average of what was called the pergunnah rate, which was what the landlord could get in the market in the shape of rent from a tenant-at-will. That was taken as the basis of the adjustment, and favorable rents were all calculated on that basis. One man had 5 per cent. advantage as compared with ordinary rates; another man had 10 per cent.; another had 25 per cent.; and some had even 50 per cent. Hon'ble members who had served in that part of the country must be aware of this; and if the Council would consult the Punjab Tenants' Act they would see exactly the same principle laid down there. He was sanguine that something of the same kind might answer in Bengal, and it was satisfactory to see that principle suggested by so competent and experienced an officer as the learned Advocate-General. HIS HONOR did not see that this principle was open to the objection taken by the hon'ble member on the right (Mr. Bell). When the substantive law declared that the Collector should determine the rent upon fair and equitable rates, it was not an amendment of the law for the Council to lay down certain principles which the Collector might take into consideration. If they should say that the Collector should not decide what he should consider fair and equitable rates, but upon some other principle, that would be an alteration of the substantive law. But what the learned Advocate-General meant was, that in arriving at what was fair and equitable, the Collector might adopt certain principles, which was nothing more than to give something for his guidance.

The HON'BLE MR. BELL observed that no one had a greater experience than himself of the value of any opinion which the learned Advocate-General might give. But he regretted that he could not, in the present instance, agree with the learned Advocate-General that these rules would not change the substantive law. It was said that the Collector need not avail himself of these rules unless he pleased. But it was surely a change in the law to allow the Collector to make use of rules which were novel and opposed to the existing law. Then again, rule (c) allowed the Collector to fix the rates by a comparison with rents obtained by competition. Yet that was the very principle which thirteen judges of the High Court condemned in Hills' case; and MR. BELL thought they rightly condemned it. The rule laid down in that case was that the rates should be fair and equitable customary rates, not that they should be determined by competition. The rates of rent could only be decided by competition in a country like England, where both sides were capitalists. Any attempt to fix rates by competition in a country like this would revolutionize the whole country. It was perfectly true, as pointed out by the learned Advocate-General, that fraud invalidated all proceedings; but his objection to this rule was that it would enable zemindars to enhance rents by setting up fictitious ryots, and that it would be almost impossible to detect fraud in such cases. If the zemindar placed three or four ryots on his land, and took from them kubooliyats at very high rates, how was the Collector to say that they were not boná fide ryots. Though MR. BELL, as he had said before, had great respect for anything that emanated from the learned Advocate-General, he must remind the Council that this principle of fixing rents by competition had been condemned by thirteen Judges of the High Court. He thought the Council should pause before introducing a rule which had been so unanimously condemned. He felt convinced that if any fresh principles were introduced into this Bill, it would lead to disputes, and to one general attempt to enhance rents throughout the country. The learned Advocate-General said that the Collector very often was in great difficulty in fixing what were fair and equitable rates. When the Civil Courts had to determine what were fair and equitable rates, they had to apply certain principles for ascertaining that rate [THE ADVOCATE-GENERAL.—Hence the disputes.] Then, MR. BELL said, alter the substantive law. If the disputes arose from the state of the substantive law, the proper course was to amend that law. Therefore he did hope that the Council would not accede to the suggestion of the learned Advocate-General, and introduce these new principles in the Bill.

The HON'BLE THE ADVOCATE-GENERAL said, in reference to the observations which fell from the hon'ble member who had just spoken in regard to the decision of the thirteen judges of the High Court, he would point out that the great objection to the decision taken by Sir Barnes Peacock, namely that under Act X of 1859, the equity attempted to be administered by the rule of proportion to the ryot who was fourteen years in occupation was the same as that which was dealt out to the ryot who held from the time of the permanent settlement, was not met by the other Judges. Surely a different rule should be applied to a khoodkhast kudeemee ryot from that which was applied to a man who was only fourteen years in possession. He did not propose to set aside the rule of proportion at all, or put forward a competitive system of letting land; he would leave it to the Collector to decide what was fair and equitable, only keeping his eye upon the rate of rent which was obtainable under the competitive principle. He merely asked the Collector to consider that broad fact; then having that fact before him, the Collector was asked to consider what was fair and equitable. The rules which were proposed were not hard-and-fast rules, but were proposed simply with the object that the Collector should take those principles into consideration in determining what was fair and equitable.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT observed that the law now left it absolutely to the Civil Court to decide what was fair and equitable in rent. It might go according to the rule of proportion, or any other rule. If it could not follow the rule of proportion given in Thakooranee Dossee's case, then it was to arrive at what was fair and equitable in some other way. But there was no rule laid down as to how the Court was to do so. Then did it amount to an alteration of the substantive law, if the Court were merely to follow one or other of three or four rules laid down for its assistance? These rules had been given to him by the hon'ble mover of the Bill. He thought them to be fair rules, and such as ought to be adopted. Some time or other the substantive law must be altered. But this was a tentative measure, and inasmuch as the Collector was left to his own discretion, and might adopt these rules or not as he thought fit, it appeared to him that

The HON'BLE THE ADVOCATE-GENERAL would freely admit that he had an object in view in the future. In case the decisions given under these rules came hereafter to be duly appreciated, and were found to allay any irritation that might exist, then they might form the groundwork of future legislation, which legislation, he thought, would be about the most important for Bengal that could be well imagined.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL said there was one point in the remarks of the hon'ble member opposite (Mr. Bell) which he thought ought not to pass unnoticed. It appeared that the hon'ble member took exception to the rules proposed by the learned Advocate-General, because they had a tendency, as he thought, to affect the substantive law. Now, as had been very clearly and forcibly pointed out by the hon'ble and learned Advocate-General, where the Collector found it difficult to work out the rule of proportion, he would be left absolutely to his own judgment in coming to a decision as to what was a fair and equitable rate of rent. The question was whether it was preferable to rely on the sole and unaided judgment of the Collector, or to lay down some definite rules to assist the Collector in arriving at his judgment. BABOO KRISTODAS PAL thought, with all deference to the hon'ble member, that if the Bill was passed in the form in which it stood, leaving everything practically to the discretion of the Collector, it would tend much more to foment disputes than the rules proposed by the Advocate-General were likely to do. The moment it was known in the mofussil that any number of ryots could petition the Lieutenant-Governor on the allegation that they were oppressed by the extortionate demands of zemindars, and any mookhtiar could work upon the imagination of the ryots and set up a "kingdom" or "raj," as was done in Pubna, they would flood the Collector with petitions for the enforcement of the law; and if the Collector were disposed to favor their views, BABOO KRISTODAS PAL would not be surprised if the ryots should go in en masse and avail themselves of this law to get a summary settlement of their rents. If the Collector were a pro-ryot collector, he would favor the ryots; but if he were a pro-zemindar Collector, he would favor the zemindar. The mischief of discretionary government of this kind was thus apparent. It would be far better not to pass any law on the subject than to pass one which would tempt the executive to favor the one class or the other according to their personal sympathies or antipathies. He would therefore strongly advocate the introduction of the proposed rules.

The HON'BLE MR. DAMPIER observed that the discussion had now got to the point as to whether, by introducing these rules, they would be changing the substantive law or not. The question was thoroughly discussed in committee. One party held that the words "fair and equitable" had a construction put upon them by the High Court. That construction was the law of the land, and if this Council should attempt to put any other construction which it considered that the law itself would bear—if this Council attempted to put by its legislation any other construction than what the High Court had put upon those words, then the Council would be altering the substantive law of the land.

The HON'BLE BABOO KRISTODAS PAL said the object of the Bill was to prevent disputes. How was that to be done? Practically, if the Collector was to act according to the principles laid down in Act X of 1859, then he must be guided by the rule of proportion laid down by the High Court, and if that rule was unworkable, he would be as helpless as the Munsif now was. He must decide according to what was "fair and equitable" and therefore would have to use his own discretion. It was true that the Bill provided an appeal to the Commissioner of the division; but the Commissioner would also have to exercise his own discretion, and we should then have the discretion of one officer pitted against the discretion of another. There would be no law for the guidance of either. It was this absence of law that led to the state of things for which this Bill was intended to apply a remedy.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said that was an admitted evil. The object of the Bill was limited: it did not propose to go such lengths as to provide a rule where there was none. Disputes of this nature could be better decided by the Collector than by the Commissioner. It would not be very creditable to the Collectors if they could not settle these things better than the Civil Court. Hon'ble members knew that they had settled them in the Dacca district, and in the Pubna district exactly the same thing would have happened if precautionary measures had not been taken: Therefore experience showed that the transfer of the jurisdiction in cases of this sort was beneficial.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier observed that there was a very material difference made in the Bill in Select Committee. As the Bill stood before, the Lieutenant Governor was to state the "matters" to be decided by the Board after a general enquiry. The majority of the Select Committee had inserted the words "of fact" after the word "matters." That made a very wide difference in the intention of the Bill as introduced by the mover; because the original intention was that the Board should lay down general instructions for the guidance of the Collector in the settlement of these suits, whereas now the Collectors would have to arrive at a finding at their own discretion.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal said he was quite aware of the change. Under the Bill as introduced, the Board of Revenue was empowered to lay down any principles they might think fit; now, they would be restricted to the finding of facts. So the discretion of the Collector was absolute with regard to the application of principles, with the exception of course of an appeal to the Commissioner, which was also allowed by the original Bill. Therefore the alteration made by the Select Committee made the Bill more objectionable than it was before.

The Hon'ble the Advocate-General observed—Suppose the Collector said, "I find that the rule laid down in Hills' case is unworkable, because I cannot find what was the value of the produce at the time the rate of rent was fixed; therefore I will follow one or other of these principles." Would it be said that he did not follow a good rule, if he followed one of the rules which were proposed to be laid down in the Bill? That was all the Advocate-General desired, namely, that there should be laid down certain principles for the assistance of the Collector in arriving at what was "fair and equitable." He was pretty clear in his own mind that if some such rules were not laid down the Bill would be useless. If the Government thought that a simple transfer of jurisdiction would be sufficient, he had nothing to say against such transfer. But when it was seen how utterly impossible it was in some cases to apportion the increased produce between the zemindar and the ryot, he doubted very much whether a mere transfer of jurisdiction was enough. Could it be expected that a sick person would be healed merely by calling in a new doctor: what was required was a new doctor with new appliances?

His Honor the President said it was true that the proposal was to call in a new doctor (the Collector) without any new appliances, except such as he possessed from his position as a revenue officer. But the one doctor was better than the other, as every zemindar knew and as was proved by what had happened in the Eastern districts.

His Honor the President said he should like, if he could, to insert some such rules as those proposed by the learned Advocate-General. They seemed to him not to go very far, and they were perfectly harmless: they could do no harm, and they might do good. They were worded with the hon'ble gentleman's usual skill and carefulness, combined with the knowledge and practical experience of the hon'ble mover. First the rules said that the Collector should fix the rate of rent upon a certain principle, which was the very principle which had been affirmed by the High Court as to the rule of proportion. But suppose the Collector was unable to determine the rent by the rule of proportion, then he might (not omit it) but go by one of the three rules here proposed. Rule (a) was a very harmless one. It provided that the rent should represent such portion of the gross produce of the land as should be considered "fair and equitable." The rule was not very definite, but it was perfectly harmless. Then rule (b) provided that the rent should represent such portion of the net profits of the land as should be "fair and equitable." That also was a very harmless rule. Rule (c) was no doubt very important. It provided that the Collector should take as the standard of comparison the rates obtained by competition, and adjust the rent by taking such proportion of such competition rates as he should consider "fair and equitable." That was the practice in other parts of India, where these things were more particularly considered. The rules appeared to HIS HONOR to be good rules, but there was this objection to them, that they might cause apprehension to arise that a change in the substantive law was being made: whereas the real object of the Act was a mere transfer of jurisdiction; and secondly, perhaps the majority of the Council would not agree to these rules being inserted in the Bill.

The question of trying to alter the substantive law was under separate consideration. HIS HONOR derived encouragement in pressing on the matter from what he heard from the learned Advocate-General, and if the Government succeeded in their endeavors, it would be one of the greatest boons which could be conferred upon the inhabitants of these provinces. He was not without hope of being able to frame some Bill, which he should submit separately for the consideration of the Council. But it was an objection to put in what he might call a jurisdiction Bill any rules of this description. Nevertheless, looking at the uncertainty of their being able to pass a larger law of that kind, he was personally in favor of these rules being introduced. But if these rules could not properly be inserted in the Bill, he was willing not to have the rules and to pass the Bill without them, as it would enable the Government to do by law what had been done in the Dacca district without law. They had done the thing to the satisfaction of both parties in Dacca; but in an old established province like Bengal they could not answer for being able to succeed again. That was an argument for passing this Bill, which provided for nothing more than a mere transfer of jurisdiction. Therefore if the Council were in favor of accepting these rules he should be glad; but if they did not approve of the rules being included in the Bill, he should be content to see the Bill pass without them.

The HON'BLE MR. REYNOLDS said, as a member of the Select Committee on this Bill he felt it his duty to say that he thought there were very strong objections to these proposed rules. They would have the effect of giving rise to serious apprehensions amongst the ryots that the law was being altered to their disadvantage, and he thought, with all deference to the learned Advocate-General, that they did to some extent alter the substantive law. It was true that the first clause declared that the Collector was to fix the rate of rent according to the rule of proportion laid down by the High Court; but the working of the rule of proportion was limited by the latter part of the clause to a period of five or ten years before the date of the institution of the suit. That MR. REYNOLDS believed was an entirely new provision.

Then it appeared to him that the tendency of these sections would be that the Collector would not fix his mind so entirely to the necessity of working out the rule of proportion. They gave him not exactly an alternative procedure, but one which was much easier to follow than working out the rule prescribed by the High Court. He feared that, under the temptation of these rules, some Collectors might be induced to say, more readily than they ought to do, that they could not apply the rule of proportion, and might therefore proceed to fix a "fair and equitable" rate of rent according to their own judgment of what was fair and equitable. He thought that such a result was very undesirable. It appeared to him that if they passed the Bill as it stood, the rule of proportion would have to be applied; and it seemed to him that the tribunals established under this Bill would have much better opportunities of applying that rule than the Civil Courts. Therefore he thought the Council ought to allow the tribunals established under this Bill to see whether they could not work out the rule of proportion, while the Government were considering how far they could work out an amendment of the law in a separate measure.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT said he for one did not believe that these rules would make any change in the substantive law. He believed it was perfectly within the competency of the Council to pass the Bill with these rules, and he was sure that if they could do so they would do a great deal of good. But whether they could do so he felt doubtful on account of the differences in the country. He greatly regretted the difficulty he feared would arise. He however felt bound to say, in justice to the learned Advocate-General, that every one of these rules would so far conduce to peace and quietness in the country. But still if the Council could not pass them, he was quite willing to do without them. He would rather take the Bill without these rules, than risk its safety by inserting them if there was no prospect of the Bill being so passed. He had to look of course not only to what his own opinion might be, but what he thought might be the opinion of the country generally and of the authorities into whose hands the Bill might fall.

The HON'BLE BABOO JUGGADANUND MOOKERJEE said it appeared to him to be of doubtful propriety to insert in the Bill any rules such as these. The rule of proportion as laid down by the High Court in Hills' case was found not to be workable, and could not be worked by the Civil Court, and the present attempt was to see whether the Collector would be able to work it out. He would be in a better position to do so than the Civil Court; he would be able to visit the place personally, and he would have more opportunity of settling disputes by his personal influence. The Civil Court, on the other hand, was only expected to send an amin to the spot, to find out how the rule of proportion should be worked, and the Court must rely upon the report made by the amin.

There was another reason why it appeared to BABOO JUGGADANUND MOOKERJEE objectionable to embody any rules in the Bill. It was provided that if the Collector failed to apply the present rule of proportion he might fall back upon one or other of these rules. That, he thought, would open a door to the litigant parties to dispute the Collector's judgment upon other points before the Commissioner in appeal. Therefore upon these grounds it appeared to him that it was not the province of the legislature to lay down any indefinite rules for the guidance of the Collector.

The question was then put that the following section be inserted in the Bill after section 14:—

"14A. Whenever in any suit instituted under the provisions of this Act it shall appear to the Collector that a ryot having a right of occupancy is liable to enhancement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been increased otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the ryot;

or whenever in any such suit it shall appear to the Collector that such ryot is entitled to claim an abatement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce of the productive powers of the land held by him have been decreased by any cause beyond the power of the said ryot, the Collector shall, if possible, fix the rate of rent payable by such ryot so that it shall bear the same proportion to the rent which he previously paid for the same lands as the present average gross value of the produce of such lands bears to the average gross value of the produce of such lands at the time when the rent of such ryot was last fixed, or at any subsequent time during the tenancy of such ryot (not being less than $\binom{\text{five}}{\text{ten}}$ years before the institution of such suit) in respect of which such average gross value can be ascertained;

but if in any such suit the Collector shall not be able to ascertain to his satisfaction the average gross value of the produce of such lands as it existed at the time when the rent of the ryot was last fixed, or at any subsequent time during the tenancy of such ryot, not being less than $\binom{\text{five}}{\text{ten}}$ years before the date of the institution of such suit, the Collector may determine the rate of rent payable by such ryot according to any of the following methods:—

(a) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the existing average gross value of the produce of the land held by him as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(b) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the average net profits of the land held by him (after deducting from the average gross annual value of the produce of such lands such a sum as may be deemed proper on account of costs of production and disposal of such produce) as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(c) by taking as the standard of comparison the rates which ryots having no right of occupancy pay in adjacent places, or in such places as the Collector may select for lands of a similar description and having similar advantages; and by fixing the rates of rent to be paid by the ryot having a right of occupancy at such percentage below the rent which would be paid for the same lands by ryots having no right of occupancy as the Collector may consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case."

PARTITION OF ESTATES.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier moved that the report of the Select Committee on the Bill to make better provision for the partition of estates paying revenue to Government in the lower provinces of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal be taken into consideration, in order to the settlement of the clauses of the Bill, and that the clauses of the Bill be considered for settlement in the form recommended by the Select Committee.

The motion was agreed to.

Sections 5 and 6 were agreed to.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, the following amendments were made in section 7:—

In paragraph 3, last time, for "shall be deemed to be the rental of the land, was substituted "may, if the Collector think proper, be deemed, &c."

In paragraph 5, line 5 of the same section, after "estate" was substituted "subject only to the payment of a fixed amount of rent."

Sections 8 to 10 were agreed to.

In section 11, lines 3 to 6, on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, the following amendment was made:—

For the words "no partition of an estate shall be made if the result of such partition would be to form any separate estate," were substituted "if the application shall have been admitted, no partition shall be carried out in accordance with such application if the separate estate of the applicant for such partition would be"

Sections 12 to 36 were agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 37.

Sections 38 to 46 were agreed to.

Section 47 provided for the formation of an Estates' Partition Fund, and declared what costs should be chargeable to such fund. Clause (c) of the section was as follows:—

"(c) the pay and allowances of any Deputy Collector who is employed exclusively in making partitions in the district, or such proportion as the Collector may think proper of the pay and allowances of any Deputy Collector who is partly employed in making such partitions."

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal moved the omission of this clause. Under the existing law the pay and allowances of Deputy Collectors employed in making partition were not charged to the proprietors. And the reason was obvious. There were many administrative acts performed by the Government for the benefit of different classes of the community. Inasmuch as the Government was the guardian of the public, it was bound to perform certain duties for the benefit of the public. Surveys were undertaken for the benefit of the community, but the Government did not charge the cost of surveys to the landowners. In the same way, in the management of wards' estates, the Collector, the Commissioner of the division, the Board of Revenue, all attended to the affairs of such estates, but no such charge was made to the proprietors. He did not see why any difference should be made in the case of butwarah proceedings. It was reasonable and just that all establishments entertained for butwarah proceedings should be paid by the proprietors interested—the ameens, the chainmen, peons and other subordinate establishment. But the Deputy Collector formed a link of the great chain of administration, and Baboo Kristodas Pal saw no reason why the Deputy Collector's services should be charged to the estates for superintending the work of partition. One great object of the Bill was to lessen the cost of butwarah proceedings. The Council was doubtless well aware that the great expensiveness of butwarahs was one of the chief obstacles in its way. But the charge proposed to be thrown on the estates on account of the pay and allowances of the Deputy Collector would be a serious charge; and as butwarah proceedings hung on for years, and although this Bill simplified the proceedings, still it would take many years to complete a partition, this charge would consequently amount to a very large sum. He would therefore move that, in accordance with the existing law, this clause be omitted, and that no charge be made to the estates on account of the pay and allowances of the Deputy Collector.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said this was almost the only important point on which the Select Committee did not come to an unanimous conclusion. It was first proposed that a portion of the Deputy Collector's salary should form a charge of the partition costs leviable from the proprietors in every instance; that was to say, if the Deputy Collector was engaged once a month in any butwarah proceeding, still some small portion of the Collector's pay should be charged as costs of the proceedings. Subsequently, after a good deal of discussion, the Committee adopted a sort of compromise, and it ended as was seen in the Bill. It would be observed that by section 42, in all ordinary sporadic cases of butwarah, this item of the pay of the Deputy Collector was not included, as it was proposed under section 47 to do in cases where the whole or any great portion of the Deputy Collector's time was given up. Then we came to section 43, which provided for the formation of an Estates' Partition Fund: instead of providing that the cost of each butwarah should be settled by itself, and paid by itself, section 43 provided that notwithstanding anything contained in the six last preceding sections, the Lieutenant-Governor may direct that in any district a fund to be called the "Estates' Partition Fund" should be formed. There were some districts, Tirhoot and Cuttack for instance, in which butwarahs were extremely numerous, and were sufficient fully to occupy the time of one Deputy Collector. Where butwarahs were so systematically made, and on such a large scale as to require the attention of a special Deputy Collector, a partition fund would be formed to which all receipts should be credited, and out of which all establishments and other expenditure should be paid. In the section to which an amendment was now proposed were given the items of cost which should be chargeable out of this estates' partition fund, i.e., should be chargeable to proprietors where partitions were numerous enough to make it worth while to make a joint stock concern of the funds; and to have a regular establishment for the purpose, instead of its being appointed ticca for each particular case as it arose. The majority of the Committee thought where butwarahs were effected in such large numbers, it would be quite fair that the pay of the Deputy Collector should be charged, inasmuch as his services were immediately and solely devoted to the benefit of the proprietors of estates and not for the general good of the country.

After some conversation the Council divided:—

The numbers being equal, the President gave his casting vote with the Noes.

So the motion was negatived, and the section was agreed to.

Sections 48 to 82 were agreed to.

A verbal amendment was made in section 83.

Sections 84 to 89 were agreed to.

Section 90 ran as follows:—

"Whenever the dwelling-house of one proprietor, with the offices, building, and grounds immediately attached thereto, shall have been included in the separate estate of another proprietor, and the annual rent to be paid in perpetuity in respect of the land occupied thereby shall have been fixed by the Deputy Collector and stated in the paper of partition, as provided in section 87, the proprietor whose dwelling-house, offices, and buildings have been included as aforesaid may apply to the Deputy Collector for permission to redeem the annual rent so fixed."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier moved the addition to the section of the following words:—

"And the Deputy Collector shall give such permission, unless he shall be of opinion that such redemption would endanger the safety of the land revenue for the payment of which the separate estate in which such dwelling-house, buildings, offices and grounds have been included will be liable."

The necessity of this amendment had forced itself upon his conviction since the Select Committee had reported upon the Bill. The point was considered in committee, and he with others then thought this precaution would be necessary, but since then he had reason to think differently. When the dwelling-house of one proprietor by the process of butwarah was placed within the separate estate assigned to another proprietor, the Bill provided that the owner of the dwelling-house should hold the land occupied by it at the jumma to be fixed by the Deputy Collector in perpetuity. Then this section went on to say, not only should the proprietor have the benefit of holding the land on which the house stood at a fixed jumma, but he might convert it into a rent-free holding by redeeming the fixed rent assigned to it by the Deputy Collector by the payment of a capitalized sum, as in the section described. The question was whether this provision was sufficient for the protection of the interests of the Government. Take the case of a small estate broken up into four separate estates, A, B, C, D, each very small. It might happen that in the particular separate estate A a considerable portion of the area was occupied by the dwelling-house and yard and immediate premises of another proprietor, not the proprietor of estate A but of estate C. In that case, on the land which was so occupied might be imposed a fixed jumma of say Rs. 5. It might so happen that the Government revenue of the whole separate estate A was only Rs. 8. Now, under the provisions of this Bill, C might redeem the rent of the land on which his dwelling-house was situated by a capitalized payment to the proprietor A, so that the separate estate A would remain with assets of Rs. 3 only out of which to meet a sudder jumma of Rs. 8; or in other words, the assets would be reduced to an amount below the amount for which proprietor A was liable. It could not be denied that this danger might exist. Mr. Dampier thought it would be better to give the Deputy Collector authority to refuse to allow the rent to be redeemed on this ground, if he thought it necessary to do so.

The motion was agreed to.

A similar amendment was, on the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier, made in section 91.

Sections 92 to 103 were agreed to.

Section 104 provided that lands held rent-free were not to be divided, but might be left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which were formed out of the parent estate.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Mr. Dampier the following words were added to the section :—

"Provided that such lands or any of them may be allotted among the different separate estates with the consent of all the proprietors of the parent estate, but not otherwise."

Section 105 provided :—

"Whenever the Deputy Collector shall find in the parent estate any lands which are held at a fixed rent on a patni or other permanent intermediate tenure created by all the proprietors of the parent estate or their predecessors, the Deputy Collector may either—

(1) Assign lands which are held on such tenure and the assets thereof entirely to one or more of the separate estates, the rental being calculated as provided in exception two or in exception three (as the case may be) of section 7; or

(2) Leave such lands unassigned to any separate estate, and specify in the partition papers and proceedings that the lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent estate."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said the question had been raised by Mr. Money of a case where nine out of ten proprietors admitted that the tenure was created by all the proprietors of the estate, and the tenth proprietor denied that it was so created. No procedure was provided by which the Deputy Collector should ascertain the facts of the case. To get over this difficulty, Mr Dampier proposed the substitution of the words "falling within exception 2 or exception 3 of section 7" for the words "created by all the proprietors of the parent estate or their predecessors" in line 5 of this section.

The Hon'ble Baboo Kristodas Pal submitted that the point raised by Mr. Money in connection with this section was not satisfactorily answered. He raised the question of what was to be the procedure where nine proprietors admitted the creation of the tenure and the tenth did not. Was he to reject the tenure because one proprietor out of ten did not acknowledge its reality; or was he to accept the acknowledgment of the nine proprietors and reject the objection raised by the tenth ?

The Hon'ble Mr. Dampier said he was decidedly of opinion that where a tenure was acknowledged by nine proprietors to have been created and to be valid against all the proprietors, and its creation and validity was denied by the tenth, the Collector should not recognize the tenure, but should divide the lands of such tenure between the different estates created by such partition. After all the only difference would be that the Collector would, on the papers, divide the ryottee rental of the lands, instead of the tenure-holder's rental, among the different separate estates. Rights would not be affected.

After some conversation the motion was agreed to.

Sections 106 to 109 were agreed to.

Section 110 was passed after an unimportant amendment.

Sections 111 to 137 were agreed to.

On the motion of the Hon'ble Baboo Ramshunker Sen a clause was inserted in section 138, giving an appeal from the decision of the Deputy Collector to the Collector, when fixing the rent to be paid under section 87 by one proprietor for the land and dwelling-house belonging to him but situate in the separate estate allotted to another proprietor. And a clause was inserted in section 139, giving a similar appeal from the Collector to the Commissioner.

The remaining sections of the Bill, with the schedule and the preamble and title, were agreed to.

The Council was adjourned to Saturday, the 1st April.

RESOLUTION ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AUTHORIZED LODGING-HOUSES FOR STUDENTS AT GOVERNMENT COLLEGES AND HIGHER ENGLISH SCHOOLS.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EDUCATON.

Calcutta, the 10th April 1876.

READ—

A Minute by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, dated the 30th August 1875, on the establishment of authorized lodging-houses for students at Government colleges and higher English schools.

A letter from the Director of Public Instruction, No. 1365, dated the 20th March 1876, reporting on the measures to be taken for carrying out the directions of the Minute.

THE Lieutenant-Governor's Minute of the 30th August 1875 referred to the establishment of hostels or lodging-houses as a matter subsidiary to higher education in which the Government might possibly be able to render help to students and their parents. The plan proposed was that the heads of colleges, high schools, and zillah schools should be authorized to establish lodging-houses, and to appoint some of the native masters to supervise them, each master so appointed receiving a capitation grant, varying according to circumstances, from four annas to eight annas per month for each student who might lodge with him. Thus, a master accommodating 50 students in his lodging-house might receive from Government Rs. 25 per month, of which part would be for the trouble of supervision, and part to assist in meeting the expenses which he would have to incur. This grant would be independent of the payments made by the students themselves, which would be arranged between the students and the master, and would vary according to the character of the accommodation provided.

2. The letter of the Director of Public Instruction reports on the applications which have been made for grants upon the system indicated in the Minute. From some districts replies have not yet been received, and in others it is found either that satisfactory arrangements already exist for the lodging and boarding of the pupils, or that none of the masters is willing to take the trouble and risk of establishing a lodging-house. But there remain a considerable number of districts which have expressed a wish to avail themselves of the assistance which the Minute offers to them.

3. Lodging-houses or hostels for Hindu students already exist in Calcutta, Hooghly, Berhampore, Patna, and Dacca. The Calcutta hostel was established about 15 years ago, chiefly through the exertions of the late Professor of the Presidency College, Baboo Peary Churn Sirkar. It is assisted by Government to the extent of Rs. 50 per month, which pays half the rental of the house; but the institution has not proved self-supporting, and the Director attributes this want of success to the situation of the building, which is at too great a distance from the Presidency College and from the Hindu and Hare Schools. Mr. Woodrow remarks that there is a piece of Government land on the west of the Senate House which would be an eligible site for a new lodging-house, and he proposes, if Government will give this land, to appeal to the public for subscriptions to erect a suitable building. The Lieutenant-Governor will direct enquiries to be made regarding the proposed site; and if the result of these enquiries should be satisfactory, he will have much pleasure in granting the land, and in authorizing the invitation of subscriptions for the erection of the building. He trusts that the liberality of native gentlemen, which has been so often shown in the carrying out of other works of public usefulness, will not be wanting in the realization of a scheme which is calculated to be of so much advantage to the best interests of education.

4. The hostel at Berhampore is supported partly by Government aid and partly by the interest of a fund locally subscribed. Its financial condition is reported to be satisfactory. At Hooghly the hostel receives a monthly grant of Rs. 44 from Government; but it is not self-supporting even with this assistance.

At Dacca and Patna grants of Rs. 200 were made for establishing the hostels, and advances were also given, which were to be repaid from the receipts. These advances, however, have not been refunded; and in the case of the Dacca hostel, the Lieutenant-Governor has agreed that repayment shall not be enforced.

5. The Director recommends that grants, not exceeding Rs. 500 per annum, should be made to each of the above institutions. It is not quite clear whether he intends this subvention to be in lieu of, or in addition to, the capitation grants proposed in the Minute. Considering the importance of maintaining these lodging-houses at the principal centres of education, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to sanction grants of Rs. 500 per annum to each of these hostels, and, in addition, to allow head-money at the rate of eight annas in each of the mofussil colleges, and at the rate of Re. 1 in the Calcutta hostel, in consideration of the greater expenses which attend a residence in the Presidency town.

6. At Midnapore and Ranchi the District School Committees propose to erect the necessary buildings from the surplus funds of the schools, and apply for head-money at the full rate of eight annas. These grants will be given as soon as it is certified to the Director that the buildings are ready for the accommodation of students.

7. The District Committees of Mymensingh, Tipperah, and Noakholly have applied for Government grants for the erection of buildings, in addition to the head-money sanctioned by the Minute. The Cuttack Committee also ask for a sum of Rs. 500 as a preliminary grant. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets that it is not in his power to comply with these additional applications, though quite willing to give the head-money according to the sanctioned scale. The object is one to which the surplus funds of a school may very properly and usefully be devoted; and the scheme indicated in the Minute did not contemplate any further assistance from Government than the amount of the capitation grant.

8. At Shahabad, Sarun, and Pooree the District Committees have expressed a desire to adopt the system, and have applied for head-money; but it is not explained how the necessary buildings are to be provided. As in the cases of Midnapore and Ranchi, the grants asked for will be made on a certificate being given that suitable buildings have been erected or rented for the purpose.

9. At Rungpore the District Committee have proposed to place the master of the normal school in charge of the lodging-house; but as the normal school at that station will not be permanently retained, this arrangement will require to be modified.

10. At the mofussil colleges the hostels will be under the supervision and control of the College Principals. The Calcutta Hostel, which is not attached to any special educational institution, will be under the supervision of the Inspector of the Presidency Circle. Hostels which may be opened in connection with zillah schools will be supervised by the circle inspectors. It will be understood that these officers are not called upon to exercise any minute interference with the details of management, or with the terms upon which students are boarded and lodged, but it will be their province to satisfy themselves that the hostels are conducted in such a manner as to justify the continuance of Government assistance to them.

11. The Director is requested to call for and submit proposals from those districts which have not yet replied to the Minute.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J. REYNOLDS,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

FORMATION OF A BOTANICAL GARDEN AT RUNGAROON, IN THE DARJEELING DISTRICT.

Minute by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, dated the 14th September 1875.

It seems to me that the time has come when a Botanical Garden should be established at or near Darjeeling for the cultivation of plants, shrubs, and trees suitable to the soil and climate of the Eastern Himalayas. Rich as are the hills around Darjeeling in many beautiful sorts of trees, they are yet destitute of one of the most remarkable natural orders of the Himalayan region, namely the Coniferæ, the cedars, firs, pines, larches, spruces, cypresses, and others which are such usual and striking objects in other parts of the mountainous country. The culture of these various and noble species has to a slight extent been commenced at Darjeeling, and will, I hope, be carried on perseveringly. The culture of many species of the Rhododendron genus, which are found in such magnificence in the higher parts of the Darjeeling district, and of the neighbouring State of Sikkim, is scarcely undertaken at all at Darjeeling, though it doubtless might be begun there under extraordinary advantages. The Erythrina and other flowering trees and shrubs which already grow there might be cultivated yet more extensively. The growth of a large tea industry in the surrounding districts, the approach of the railway, the proximity of the cinchona plantations, the presence of the head-quarters of the Forest Department of Bengal during several months in each year, and other material causes, combine to afford encouragement for an undertaking of this description on the part of Government, and to promise the successful issue of such efforts as might be made for the advancement of practical science and for the public benefit.

Thus many botanical experiments of much value might be, and ought to be, carried out in the Darjeeling district, a locality so highly favored by nature, if a good site were available. It is not, however, easy to find such a spot. After examining possible sites in various directions and at various altitudes in these hills, I arrive at the conclusion that the place known as the Rungaroon Gardens affords quite the best site for the purposes above indicated. It is situated on a slope at the lower edge of the great forest which clothes the Senchal Mountain; its altitude of about 6,000 feet, somewhat lower than that of Darjeeling (7,000 feet), constitutes an advantage; its distance, six miles from Darjeeling, is convenient; it is easily accessible from the road between Darjeeling and the Cinchona plantations at Rungbee; it has an excellent soil, watered during most months of the year by running streams; it has trees of the Coniferæ order, planted some years ago, and already flourishing. It is therefore proved by experiment to be well suited to one of the main objects of our botanical culture. It was originally cleared and laid out in 1863 by the Cinchona Plantation Establishment, and its general arrangement had the advantage of professional knowledge. I propose, therefore, that this spot should be devoted to the purpose of a Botanical Garden for the Darjeeling district. And I desire that the Commissioner will be pleased to take the earliest opportunity of considering the details of this project, for the carrying out of which I greatly rely on his good offices and exertions.

The land and the buildings erected by the Cinchona Department, but now unused, are the property of Government, but they, together with other lands, the whole amounting to about 800 acres, have been temporarily made over to a private gentleman on a lease which is terminable on the giving of three months' notice before the end of the official year. I request that due notice be given before the end of the current official year 1875-76 for the termination of the lease in respect to so much of these lands as may be required for the Botanical Garden, that is, in respect to an area not exceeding one hundred acres round about the existing buildings. This much of area, or as much less as the Commissioner may consider expedient, must be resumed by Government for its Botanical Garden.

Within the abovementioned area of 800 acres, there is situate a valuable forest of about 300 acres, regarding which separate instructions have been given that it be included in the adjoining reserved forests and placed under the Conservator of Forests. Due notice regarding the termination of the lease in respect to these lands also should be given by the proper authority. The Conservator will, however, determine the exact amount of land to be taken over by his department. Thus 100 plus 300, in all 400 acres, or thereabouts, will be reserved for Government.

Regarding the remainder of the area, namely 400 acres, the Commissioner is authorized either to continue the lease to the present lessee, or to make such other arrangements as he may deem best. I would place the Botanical Garden under the sole control of the Commissioner, who will work through the Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling.

For the repair of the existing buildings on the gardens, I will allow the sum of Rs. 2,600 from "Provincial Services." For the remainder of the expenses, that is, for the stocking and keeping up of the gardens and the current repairs of the buildings, I shall expect local resources to provide. The expenditure required in the first instance for the improvement and extension of the existing garden may be defrayed from the balance of the Local Improvement Fund. The annual cost of maintaining the garden may be met from the resources placed at the disposal of the district authorities under my Minute of the 9th November 1874. Such charges will be fixed as the Commissioner may deem expedient for the admission of visitors and for the sale of plants, &c., to individuals. Any sums realized from these sources might be credited to the local revenue referred to above.

I am sure that the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner, with his subordinates, will appreciate the value of this garden as a local institution, and will do their best to extend its usefulness to the whole neighbourhood.

RICHARD TEMPLE.

No. D2, dated Darjeeling, the 7th March 1876.

From—F. R. COCKERELL, ESQ., Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

WITH reference to your letter No. 2636T, dated the 14th September last, on the subject of the formation of a Botanical Garden at Rungaroon near the Darjeeling station, I have the honor to forward, for the information of the Lieutenant-Governor, the accompanying copy of a letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling, showing the progress that has been made up to date in carrying out the project for the formation of the garden.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor by his Minute sanctioned the appropriation of a portion of the Local Improvement Fund to this work, but did not specify the amount up to which it might be drawn upon. Mr. Edgar estimates his full requirements at Rs. 5,000, and I have authorized a gross expenditure from the fund for the purposes of the garden not exceeding that amount. I have directed the Deputy Commissioner to sell a portion of the securities in which the capital of the Improvement Fund is invested to realize the amount required.

3. I believe, however, that the confirmation by Government of the permission to realize this property is needed, and I request early orders on the subject.

4. I would also draw especial attention to paragraph 6 of Mr. Edgar's letter. It certainly was understood at the time that this project of resuming possession of Rungaroon, theretofore assigned in lease for agricultural purposes, was under discussion, that the Forest Department would, in consideration of the advantages accruing thereto from this transaction, forego all claim to the cost of timber. I have now to request that the Government in its Revenue Department will now ratify that implied compact, and order the remission of the amount of the bill submitted by the Assistant Conservator, which amounts to Rs. 330. The timber was used in the repairs of the two bungalows, the cost of which is met from the Lieutenant-Governor's assignment (Rs. 2,000) from provincial resources.

No. 283, dated Darjeeling, the 23rd February 1876.

From—J. W. EDGAR, ESQ., Deputy Commissioner, Darjeeling,

To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar Division.

WITH reference to your letter No. 87 of the 1st October 1875, and previous correspondence, I have the honor to submit a report on the measures since taken with regard to Rungaroon, together with rough estimate for the formation of the Botanical Garden.

2. The entire estate was surveyed by Captain Sandeman before his party was removed, and it was found that the area of the land contained within the boundaries fixed by us for the Botanical Garden is 75 acres 1 rood and 35 poles, of which rather more than 26 acres is under forest.

The area of the land to be included in the forest reserve is 423 acres 1 rood and 4 poles; the Reverend Mr. Wilson has accepted my offer of a lease for 388 acres and 12 poles, the area of the remainder.

3. The season has not yet permitted us to take any steps towards forming the garden, and we have agreed to allow Mr. Wilson to keep such plants as he may not sell to us on the ground till the season allows of their removal. Meantime we are repairing the buildings and roads; the roof and floor of the lower bungalow have been renewed, and work on the upper bungalow has been commenced. The road to the garden from the ridge has been repaired, and it is now fairly rideable; but the gradient is so steep that it will always be an unpleasant road during the rains. I therefore propose to make an alternative road, with an easier gradient, from a point near the Senchal jhora.

4. It is to be hoped that in a short time the weather will be mild enough to permit Mr. Wilson to remove his flowers, and us to begin work at the Botanical Garden. I should like to have some professional advice and assistance at the first start, both in laying out the garden and in forming nurseries.

I understand that Mr. Jaffray, of the Cinchona Department, is entitled to three months privilege leave, which he might be induced to spend in starting the Botanical Garden. As he is an excellent gardener, and laid out the Rungaroon grounds in the first instance, this arrangement would be better than any other I can think of, and I have written to Dr. King, the Superintendent of the Howrah Garden, to ask whether he would permit Mr. Jaffray to give his services in the manner proposed. If Dr. King assents, as I have no doubt he will, I should, with your permission, offer Mr. Jaffray Rs. 100 a month for three months, and the use of one of the bungalows, on condition of his residing at Rungaroon for the time, starting the garden, and drawing up a scheme for its working. I should allow him at least fifty coolies daily, at the rate of Rs. 6 per month, for the three months, and let him make his own temporary arrangements for under-gardeners. For this purpose and contingencies, I should put down Rs. 300. In consequence of the absence of Mr. Wilson and myself, no arrangement has been yet come to about the plants and seedling claimed by him. I propose to appoint Mr. Gammie, of the Cinchona Department, as arbitrator on our behalf, and I think Mr. Wilson will nominate Mr. C. B. Clarke; but I do not know where that gentleman is at present. I have not been able even to make a guess at the amount these gentlemen are likely to assess the value of the plants at, but I think it cannot possibly exceed, or even approach to, Rs. 1,000. Still I shall put down that sum for the sake of safety. In estimating for the repairs of the bungalows, I intentionally left out the forcing house, as I was not satisfied that it is advisable to repair it, while the repairs, if undertaken, will be very costly. I understand Mr. Gammie to think its construction so faulty as to make it not worth keeping up. Mr. Wilson, on the other hand, thinks well of it, and he has used it much. I am at present inclined to think it worth while to repair it, but in this I shall be guided by Mr. Jaffray, in whose practical knowledge I have much confidence. The cost of repairs, &c., would be about Rs. 1,500.

The cost of making new roads and repairing old ones will be under Rs. 1,000, but I estimate it at that sum.

5. The rough estimate for starting the garden, apart from repairs of the bungalows, is therefore as follows:—

	Rs.
Mr. Jaffray's pay for three months	300
Under-gardeners and contingencies	300
50 coolies for three months, at Rs. 6 each	900
Roads	1,000
Possible compensation to Mr. Wilson for seedlings and plants ..	1,000
Repairs to forcing house	1,500
Total ...	5,000

Under the orders of the Lieutenant-Governor, contained in the Minute of the 14th September, the expenditure required in the first instance for the improvement and extension of the Botanical Garden is to be met from the balances of the Local Improvement Fund. If therefore you sanction the estimates given above, I can begin work at once.

6. I take this opportunity of forwarding a bill received from the Forest Department for trees made use of in the repairs of the bungalows, and would solicit the remission of the demand. Before going on leave, I had some conversation with Dr. Schlich on the subject of the timber required for the repairs, and I understood from him that the price could be remitted by the Government of Bengal in the Revenue Department.

I believe that some, if not all, of the trees were cut in the forest which was included in the Rungaroon estate, and which we now propose to make forest reserve. The officers of the Forest Department will of course enjoy the use of the bungalows which we are repairing, and when I undertook to repair them for the sum of Rs. 2,000, it was on the understanding that I should not have to pay anything to the department for trees cut down for the work. Under these circumstances, I hope that the claim may be remitted.

From—J. S. GAMBLE, Esq., Assistant Conservator of Forests, Darjeeling Division,
To—The Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling.

I HAVE the honor to enclose a number of receipts for the following trees made over to you for the use of the Rungaroon bungalows, and request a transfer receipt in payment of the amount at your earliest convenience:—

No. 1114, dated Calcutta, the 10th April 1876.

From—H. LEE, Esq., Acting Assistant Secretary to the Government of Bengal,
To—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. D2, dated 7th March 1876, forwarding copy of a report from the Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling on the measures taken for the formation of a Botanical Garden at Rungaroon near that station.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor approves of your action in having authorised the expenditure, on account of this garden, of a sum not exceeding Rs. 5,000 from the Darjeeling Local Improvement Fund. His Honor also approves of your instructions to realise the required amount by a sale of a portion of the Government securities in which the capital of the Fund is invested. The Forest Department will be instructed to forego their claim for payment of Rs. 330, being the cost of timber supplied for the repairs of the bungalows at Rungaroon.

3. With regard to Mr. Edgar's proposal to employ Mr. Jaffray while on privilege leave) at Rungaroon for the purpose of starting the garden, I am to say that it has since been ascertained from the Superintendent of the Botanical Garden that Mr. Jaffray does not wish to take leave, but an arrangement has been made by which Mr. Jaffray will be employed for some time on public duty at Rungaroon, and that his services will be available during that period for assisting in the laying out of the garden.

4. In conclusion, I am to express to you and to Mr. Edgar the Lieutenant-Governor's thanks and satisfaction at the progress made towards the formation of the garden.

BURDWAN DIVN. 3	Beerbhoom, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Westerly winds continue. No change in the state of the crops. Rain is wanted for early ploughing.
BURDWAN DIVN. 4	Midnapore, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. Boro paddy is the only crop on the ground at present. Its prospects are good Small-pox continues in certain portions of the Tumlook sub-division.
BURDWAN DIVN. 5	Hooghly, „ 8, „	3 0	Weather—Very hot. Slight hailstorm with rain on the first instant. Foggy on the morning of the 7th Onions being planted in some places. Sowings of sessamum and sugarcane retarded from want of rain. Jhinga and potole lands are being irrigated. Cucumbers, &c., doing well. Rain is greatly needed. Rubbee harvest is over. Result is very good. Cholera is still very bad in Hooghly and Serampore.
BURDWAN DIVN.	Howrah, „ 8, „	·16	Weather—Warm and bright. No change in the state and prospects of the crops.
	Central Districts.
PRESIDENCY DIVN. 6	24-Pergunnahs, Apl. 10,† '76	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable No crops on the ground; the land is being prepared for cultivation. Health is generally good except at Barripore, where prevalence of cholera and fever is reported.
PRESIDENCY DIVN. 7	Nuddea. „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Slight rain in Bongong and a storm at Ranaghat, but generally there has been no rain. No crops on the ground except October indigo, which is doing well. Rain is much required for early rice and spring sowings of indigo. Cholera is prevalent in Kooshtea and part of Meherpore sub-division.
PRESIDENCY DIVN. 8	Jessore, „ 8 „	·81	Weather—Hot. Spring rice and millet are being gathered, and are giving good crops. Rain is wanted for the sowing of early rice and indigo. The rice sown in the low lands is doing well.
PRESIDENCY DIVN. 9	Moorshedabad, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Cooler than usual at this time of the year, especially at night. Boro dhan and mulberry are promising. Price of rice is nearly stationary. Outturn of the cold weather crops is nearly up to the average. Cholera is still prevalent in the Rampore Haut, Jangypore, Nulhattee, and Jellinghee thanas.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 10	Dinagepore, „ 7, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot in the day and cool at night. State and prospects of the crops are the same as in last week.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 11	Maldah, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Very dry. Rain is urgently needed. Matters will soon get serious if some rain does not fall soon. Rubbee has suffered and boro is suffering. Cholera is spreading, and there have been sixteen deaths this week. Timely rain would stop a good deal of this.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 12	Rajshahye, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—No rain during the week. Very hot in the day time, but nights are particularly cool. No change for the better in the prospects of the crops, which need rain more than ever. The rubbee crops have been nearly all gathered in, the outturn taken all round being about half of the average. A large number of cases of cholera have been reported in many parts of the district.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 13	Rungpore, „ 7, „	Nil.	Weather—Cooler; rain is badly wanted. Sowings are going on for the next harvest, but nevertheless partially deferred for want of rain. Wheat is still being cut; the outturn is less than an average one. Tobacco has been cut. Its fermentation has been spoiled by the dryness of the atmosphere. The prospect for Rungpore tobacco this year is decidedly bad. Cholera has decreased.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 14	Bogra, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot and heavy. Rain much wanted. Cheena and til have just begun to flower. Cultivation of sugarcane has commenced. The state of other crops continues the same as last week.
RAJSHAHYE DIVN. 15	Pubna, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Days hot and nights cool. State and prospects of the crops are fair, but rain is much needed. Cholera continues.

* Telegram of the 10th April, received on the same day, shows rainfall during the seven days immediately preceding.

† Report of the 10th April, received on the same day, shows rainfall during the seven days immediately preceding.

Cooch Behar Divn. 16	Darjeeling, Apl. 7, '76	Nil.	Weather—Most unusual. Not a drop of rain. The ground is looking parched and dry. The young crops do not seem to have suffered yet for want of rain, but rain is greatly needed.
Cooch Behar Divn. 17	Julpigoree, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Still no rain, and the want of it begins to be very serious. It is most unusual. Wind westerly; atmosphere very thick; so much so that till near 9 A.M., and from 4½ P.M., the sun appears like a red ball with little heat. The result is that the mornings and afternoons are dark and gloomy, though there are no clouds about. This the Deputy Commissioner believes is greatly due to jungle-burning in the Dooars, and rubbish-burning in the fields all over the district, and owing to there not being the usual rain, which ordinarily at this season clears the atmosphere of the smoke and dust now in it. Price of rice is rising all over the district. Bhadoe dhan sowing retarded for want of rain. General health of the district is pretty good.
Cooch Behar Divn.	Cooch Behar, „ 6, „	Nil.	Weather—No rain. It has grown hot. People are giving up hopes of getting any bilri dhan this year. For want of rain this crop will fail. The prospects of cheena and kaon continue unfavorable.
	Eastern Districts.
Dacca Divn. 18	Dacca, Apl. 10,* '76	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. Cloudy. State and prospects of crops are good.
Dacca Divn. 19	Furreedpore, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Warmer. Less wind. Ploughing and sowing on the late rain going on all over the district. Prospects of crops so far as visible are good. Cholera is still prevalent, but a little less.
Dacca Divn. 20	Backergunge, „ 6, „	1·03	The crops are good, but there has been rather a serious outbreak of sickness all over the district. Cholera is present in almost every thana, and there have been many deaths.
Dacca Divn. 21	Mymensingh, „ 7, „	Nil.	Weather—Mornings up to 8 A.M. cool, days very hot. Prospects of crops are unfavorable owing to want of rain, which is much needed for the sowings of aous.
Dacca Divn. 22	Tipperah, „ 7, „	1·10	Weather—Fair and hot, with one heavy shower on Sunday. The boro rice is doing well. No other crops of importance on the ground.
Chittagong Divn. 23	Chittagong, „ 6, „	A few drops.	Weather—Hot, with no prospect of more rain just at present. No change in the state of the crops since last report. Cholera is still prevalent in the south of the district.
Chittagong Divn. 24	Noakholly, „ 6, „	0·87	Weather—Heat daily increasing. There has been an occasional breeze from the south. Thunder and lightning on the 30th. The heat became less oppressive afterwards. The cold weather crops are in good order. Ploughing for the early rice crop, and sowing of early and late rice together, are now going on. Cholera is bad in Amirgunge and Nalcheera. In the town it has somewhat abated.
Chittagong Divn. 25	Chittagong Hill Tracts, „ 4, „	1·33	Weather—Some showers of rain on the 30th and 31st ultimo. Owing to the fall of rain during the last two weeks joom-burning has been delayed this year. Cholera has broken out at Rangamattee.
Chittagong Divn.	Hill Tipperah, „ 5, „	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. No change in the state and prospects of the crops since last report.
BEHAR
Patna Divn. 26	Patna, Apl. 10,* '76	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. Hot during the day, but still cool at night. All the crops have now been harvested, and the yield has been fairly good. No rain. Sporadic cases of cholera and small-pox throughout the district, with a good deal of measles and chicken-pox.
Patna Divn. 27	Gya, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot westerly winds prevailed during the week. The highest reading of the thermometer 99°·6'. No crops on the ground. Public health on the whole is good. A few cases of cholera and small-pox are reported.
Patna Divn. 28	Shahabad, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot. Rubbee crops are harvested and the outturn is moderate. Cholera is reported from Buxar and Bhubbooah sub-divisions. Sporadic instances of small-pox are still reported.
Patna Divn. 29	Durbhunga, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Cloudless skies. Westerly winds. The rubbee harvest is nearly completed. Preparation for ensuing sowings have been commenced, but the want of rain, now much felt, retards them. Prices slightly higher than last week. The supply of food-grain is sufficient. Importations have not increased in quantity, neither have they diminished. The necessity of employment for the poorer classes in Mudhubani is increasing. The health of the district is generally good.

* Telegrams of the 10th April, received on the same day, show rainfall during the seven days immediately preceding.

No.	District, and date of return.	Rainfall at Sudder Station in inches.	Character of the weather, state and prospects of the crops, and state of health at date.
BEHAR.—(Contd.)
PATNA DIVN.—(Contd.) 30	Mozufferpore, Apl. 8, '76	Nil.	Weather—Very clear and bright, with cool mornings and evenings. All signs of rain have disappeared. The rubbee crops have nearly all been cut. The price of common rice is rising steadily, and is now 15 seers per rupee at Mozufferpore; but pulses and millets remain cheap. Numerous fires—all accidental—have lately occurred, causing much loss of property. Cholera and small-pox are increasing.
31	Sarun, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Very cool for the time of the year. The Joint-Magistrate of Sewan gives a very favorable report of the general crop outturn of his sub-division estimating it at more than 14 annas all round; the Deputy Collector of Gopalgunge estimates it at but little less.
32	Chumparun, „ 7, „	Nil.	Weather—Westerly winds still continue to blow daily, and will do much damage if they last much longer. Unless rain falls soon, the prospects of the Indian-corn crops will be injured, as owing to the prevalent westerly winds, the soil is becoming too hard for ploughing or digging. The rubbee crops are being harvested and the yield is fair.
BHAGULPORE DIVN. 33	Monghyr, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Fair. The rubbee crop is all harvested. The mango and mohwa prospects continue good, and prices are unusually low, although the district is in the seventh month without rain.
34	Bhagulpore, „ 10,* „	Nil.	Weather—Mornings still cool. Westerly winds have apparently ceased. Rain would be most beneficial for all agricultural operations. Condition of the people is good. General health is very good, but cholera seems to be increasing.
35	Purneah, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—The high winds have subsided, and it is getting hotter. Rain is urgently wanted. The sowing of bhadoe rice is going on, and in the low lands there is still a good deal of moisture. Mangoes promised well, but are falling off in consequence of the drought. Cholera is very bad in the north.
36	Sonthal Perghs. „ 9, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot westerly winds blowing. Mohwa crops are good. Mango crop is promising well. Cholera is decreasing, but has not disappeared.
ORISSA.
ORISSA DIVN. 37	Cuttack, Apl. 1, '76	Nil.	No rain in the Sudder station. A few slight showers in the interior. Weather very hot and sultry for the time of the year, with occasional high winds. Rain is much wanted to soften the earth for ploughing. No crops of importance on the ground. A little small-pox and cholera have appeared.
38	Pooree, „ 6, „	Nil.	Weather—Hot and cloudy at intervals. Rain is much needed throughout the district. Dalua paddy crop is being reaped. The state of other crops is good. Mango crop is short.
39	Balasore, „ 7, „	·80	Rainfall at Bhudruck 0·72. The weather continues very unsettled, and the absence of the south wind, usual at this season, is remarkable. In the north of the district the earth has been sufficiently moistened and ploughing is general; in the south ploughing has commenced. Cholera and small-pox have not yet disappeared, and still cause occasional deaths.
CHOTA NAGPORE.
	South-Western Frontier Agency.
40	Hazareebagh, Apl. 7, '76	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. It is very warm. No crops on the ground. Mohwa promising a full crop. Cholera and small-pox still continue.
41	Lohardugga, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. The mohwa is plentiful. Rain is much wanted for ploughing. A few cases of cholera and small-pox are still reported.
42	Singbhoom, „ 7, „	Nil.	Weather—Seasonable. No crops to report about. Rain is much wanted for the preparation of land. The mohwa and jungle fruits are reported very plentiful, but the mango is very deficient. The Deputy Commissioner reports that as yet the district is healthy, but that, if the rain keeps away much longer, the water in the tanks will get low and unwholesome, and unhealthiness will follow.
43	Manbhoom, „ 8, „	Nil.	Weather—Too dry for want of rain. Ploughing has not commenced, and the early rice crop, reaped in Bhadur, will suffer. Mohwa has turned out tolerably good.

* Telegram of the 10th April, received on the same day, shows rainfall during the seven days immediately preceding.

The mean barometer, as likewise the dry and wet bulb thermometer means, are derived from the twenty-four hourly observations made during the day.

The dew-point is computed with the Greenwich constants. The figures in column 10 represent the humidity of the air, the complete saturation of which being taken at unity. The receiver of the lower rain-gauge is 1½ feet, and that of the anemometer 70 feet 10 inches above the level of the ground. The velocity of wind, as indicated by Robinson's anemometer, is registered from noon to noon.

Rule 96.—The space measured off for emigrants shall be fitted along the sides of the vessel with (a) a boarding three feet high, rising from the plank sheer of the vessel; and (b) thick and sound canvas curtains, hanging from roof to deck, with ventilating space under the eaves, and fastening closely to the deck below. But from the month of October to March, both inclusive, the three-feet boarding shall completely enclose the emigrants' deck space, and, besides the side curtains, there shall be similar curtains hung, one at each end of the deck, so as to convert the entire space allotted to emigrants into a thoroughly sheltered compartment, with ventilating spaces near the roof for the exit of heated and unwholesome air. This large compartment, moreover, shall be sub-divided into three smaller compartments by means of similar boarding and curtains placed right across the deck space from one side of the vessel to the other; only that each such intermediate boarding shall be so constructed as to admit of its removal when necessary at the discretion of the Medical Officer in charge, and each such intermediate curtain, instead of being hung almost from the roof as the curtains at the sides and ends, shall be hung at a height not exceeding six feet, measuring from the deck upwards, the space above being left clear and open for the purposes of free ventilation.

1. As soon as the Act has been extended to any district under section 1, the District Registrar shall nominate a sufficient number of persons to be licensed as Mahomedan Registrars under section 3. He shall also specify the limits within which each of the persons so nominated shall exercise the functions of Mahomedan Registrar.

Form of application.

2. The District Registrar's nomination shall be submitted to the Inspector-General of Registration, and shall be accompanied by the original application of each nominee in the form below, and also by a certificate of good moral character signed by three Mahomedan gentlemen of known respectability and position, and countersigned by the District Magistrate:—

Father's name and profession.	Present family residence of candidate.	Distance of residence from proposed Registry Office and Sudder Station.	Whether candidate has a masonry house for office.	If previously employed under Government, details of past service; if ever dismissed from any post, particulars of the fact.	Names and addresses of persons recommending the candidate.	Whether candidate can write Arabic, Persian, Urdu, Bengali, and English.	Whether candidate is acquainted with Mahomedan law and holds a certificate from any Government Madrasa.	Remarks of District Officer or Inspector-General of Assurance, which, if favorable, may include the limits to form the jurisdiction.	REMARKS

Who may be nominated.

3. In the selection of Mahomedan Registrars, preference shall ordinarily be given to ex-kazis and Government pensioners, being Mahomedans, who reside at a convenient place within the limits of the proposed jurisdiction; but no person shall be appointed a Mahomedan Registrar merely by reason of some supposed hereditary right. A Sub-Registrar of Assurances may be nominated as Mahomedan Registrar, provided he be a Mahomedan, and is otherwise qualified.

Jurisdiction.

4. The limits within which a Mahomedan Registrar shall be licensed to act shall for the present coincide with the limits of a sub-district under the Indian Registration Act, or with the jurisdiction of a police station. The head-quarters shall be at some convenient place within those limits.

5. The District Registrar's nomination, with the accompanying applications and certificates, shall be forwarded to Government by the Inspector-General of Registration with his remarks and recommendation.

Liability to examination.

6. Should such a course appear expedient hereafter, all Mahomedan Registrars who may have been appointed under these rules, and all future applicants for licenses, shall be liable to examination in the following subjects:—

(1.) Arabic and vernacular of the district.

(2.) Mahomedan law of marriage and divorce.

(3.) Act I of 1876 (B.C.), and the rules.

And if any person who has been appointed a Mahomedan Registrar fail to pass such examination, his license will be liable to be cancelled. Such examination may be held at such times and places and by such examiners as the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time appoint.

Form of license.

7. Licenses to qualified persons who have been approved of as Mahomedan Registrars will be granted in the following form:—

License under Section 3, Act I (B.C.) of 1876.

Calcutta, the 187 .

By virtue of the authority conferred upon His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal by Act I (B.C.) of 1876, you are hereby authorized to register, in the manner prescribed by the above Act, all Mahomedan marriages and divorces which shall be effected within on application being made to you for such registration.

2. It will be your duty carefully to observe the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, and such rules as may from time to time be prescribed by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, in pursuance of the power conferred upon him by the above Act.

3. This license shall continue in force until it is revoked or suspended by the said Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

By order of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Registration of license.

8. When a Mahomedan Registrar desires to give up his license, or is about to leave the place or district in which he has exercised the functions of Mahomedan Registrar, he shall report the circumstances through the District Registrar to the Inspector-General of Assurances for the orders of Government.

Change of officers.

9. When a Mahomedan Registrar makes over charge of his office to a licensed successor, a certificate shall be jointly given of the date on which the office is made over, and of the safety and correctness of the records; and this certificate shall be forwarded by the District Registrar to the Inspector-General.

Leave.

10. Mahomedan Registrars shall not be entitled to leave as of right under the rules in force for Government servants. The District Registrar may, however, grant leave in cases of urgency, but no leave exceeding one month shall be granted without the previous sanction of the Inspector-General. All leave shall be at once reported to that officer, together with the arrangements made for carrying on the duties of the Mahomedan Registrar.

11. In cases of leave or absence from duty, the next nearest Mahomedan Registrar shall ordinarily be appointed to carry on the duties of the absentee in addition to his own.

Not entitled to pension.

12. It is not intended that service as a Mahomedan Registrar shall count as Government service, so as to give rise to any claim for pension or gratuity, or to leave allowances of any kind; but it is not intended by this to preclude the appointment of Sub-Registrars or retired Government servants to be Mahomedan Registrars.

General control.

13. The general control and supervision of the working of the Act shall be exercised by the present inspecting staff attached to the Department for the Registration of Assurances.

Books and stationery.

14. The registers, forms, and seal to be used by a Mahomedan Registrar shall be such only as are supplied by Government under section 5 of the Act. The Government shall also supply writing ink; and no ink shall be used for making entries in the registers and indexes other than that supplied. The Government may also supply such other articles of stationery as are requisite. All such registers, forms, seals, ink, and other articles shall be charged at cost price, and shall ordinarily be paid for by the Mahomedan Registrar at the time they are supplied. But in any case, when the District Registrar thinks it necessary, he may defer the realization of the charge for a term not exceeding three months. In case of failure to pay at the prescribed period, the District Registrar should report the case for orders to the Inspector-General of Registration.

Custody of seals.

15. The seal shall always remain in the personal custody of the Mahomedan Registrar, and shall be made over with the records to the officer appointed to receive the same whenever a Mahomedan Registrar ceases, either temporarily or permanently, to exercise his functions.

16. A printed table of fees in the vernacular of the district shall be suspended in some conspicuous place in every Mahomedan Registrar's office.

Disposal of fees.

17. The fees received by a Mahomedan Registrar under sections 9 and 16 of the Act, and rules 21 and 30, may be retained by him as his lawful remuneration, provided that he duly pays for the registers and other articles supplied to him under rule 14. All fees received by a District Registrar shall be credited to Government in the same way as fees realized under the Indian Registration Act.

Attendance at marriages.

18. When the attendance of a Mahomedan Registrar is required at the celebration of a marriage, the party requiring his attendance may make a written application to the Mahomedan Registrar, specifying the place and time of the marriage, and that officer may attend, provided the prescribed fees and expenses have been paid.

19. It shall be lawful for a Mahomedan Registrar to travel on circuit within his jurisdiction for the purpose of attending at the celebration of marriages, provided that at least 15 days before the beginning of each month he affix at his office a public notice specifying the dates on which he will be at the several places which he proposes to visit, and on a written application made by any resident of such place, not less than one week before the date so fixed, he shall be bound to attend at the house of such resident at the time fixed for the celebration of the marriage.

20. Priority of application shall in all cases determine the order in which the Mahomedan Registrar shall be bound to attend such marriages in case any question of precedence arise.

21. The following fees are prescribed for the attendance of a Mahomedan Registrar attending at the celebration of a marriage:—

(1.) For attending a marriage under rule 18 at a place and time fixed by the parties, Rs. 10, plus travelling expenses at the rate of four annas a mile.

(2.) For attending the celebration of a marriage under rule 19 at a place and time fixed by the Registrar himself, Rs. 2. In such cases no travelling expenses will be chedarg.

22. The fees, together with the travelling allowance, must be deposited by the applicant at the time of applying for the attendance of the Mahomedan Registrar.

23. When a Mahomedan Registrar is present at the celebration of a marriage, he shall make an entry of the fact in the Register of Marriages (A), and a copy of such entry shall be included in the copies to be made under sections 12, 15, and 22 of the Act.

Procedure on application to Registrar in absence of any of the parties.

24. If all the persons who, by section 11 of the Act, are required to sign the entry of the marriage or divorce in the proper register are not present, registration shall be deferred until they are all present; provided that no marriage or divorce for registration of which application has been made within one month as required by section 9, shall be registered after the expiration of three months from the date on which the marriage or divorce was effected.

25. The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself whether or not a marriage was effected by the persons by whom it is represented to have been effected in the following manner:—

Procedure before registration.

(1) by examining the parties to the marriage or, if either or both of them are minors, their lawful guardians. If the woman be a purdah-nishin, her duly authorized vakil shall be examined, instead of the woman;

(2) by examining the two witnesses who were present at the marriage.

26 The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself whether or not a divorce, other than the kind known as khula, was effected by the man by whom it is represented to have been effected by examining that man; and if he be of the Sheah sect, by also examining the two witnesses to the divorce being effected.

27. The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself that a divorce of the kind known as khula was effected by the persons by whom it was represented to have been effected in the following manner:—

(1) by examining the parties to the khula, provided that if the woman be a purdah-nishin, her duly constituted vakil shall be examined instead of the woman;

(2) if the man be of the Sheah sect, by also examining the two witnesses to the divorce being effected.

28. The Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself of the identity of persons appearing before him as witnesses of a marriage or divorce, unless they are otherwise personally known to him, by examining at least one witness to the identity of each person so appearing.

29. In the case of any person appearing as the representative of the man or woman (whether he appears as guardian or vakil), the Mahomedan Registrar shall satisfy himself of the right of such person to appear by examining such person. If a vakil so appear, the Mahomedan Registrar shall further examine witnesses to the fact of the vakil having been duly authorized to appear.

30. When the entry of the marriage or divorce has been made in the proper register, it shall be read over by the Mahomedan Registrar to the persons who, by section 11, are required to sign such entry. If they admit its correctness, the entry shall then be signed by them.

31. When a person who cannot write signs his name by means of a mark, his name shall be recorded at length, and the writer shall also sign his name in attestation that the mark was affixed in his presence.

32. If a Mahomedan Registrar discovers any error in the form or substance of any entry of a marriage or divorce made by him, he may within one month next after the discovery of such error, in the presence of the persons married, or, in case of their death or absence, in the presence of two other credible witnesses, correct the error by entry in the margin, without any alteration of the original entry, and shall sign the marginal entry and add thereto the date of such correction, and he shall also make the like marginal entry in the copies thereof.

Correction of errors.

And every entry made under this section shall be attested by the witnesses in whose presence it was made.

And, in case a copy has been already sent to the Registrar, such person shall make and send another copy thereof, containing both the original erroneous entry and the marginal correction therein made.

33. No erasures shall be made with a knife in any register book or record, but mistakes shall be corrected, when necessary, with the pen, and shall be invariably attested by the registering officer. Corrections are not to be obliterated or blotted out, so as to be illegible; but a line is to be drawn through erroneous words with the pen, so that they may remain legible.

34 The circumstances under which registration of a marriage or divorce should be refused are as follows:—

(1.) If the marriage or divorce was not effected within the jurisdiction of the Marriage Registrar to whom application for registration is made.

(2.) If the application is not made by the persons specified in section 8 of the Act.

35. In cases 2 and 8 the order of refusal shall ordinarily be deferred till one month has elapsed from the date on which the marriage or divorce was effected; but if the parties declare their inability to comply with the requirements of the law, or for any other reason wish that registration should at once be refused, this may be done.

Refusal deferred.

36. The reasons for refusal to register to be recorded under section 20 shall be concisely and clearly stated in each particular case. When registration is refused under clause 5, 6, or 7 of rule 34, the Mahomedan Registrar shall record the grounds of his decision.

In what cases fees may be refunded.

and shall place the amount so fixed by him in deposit, there to be held on account of the persons interested, and shall issue a notice to the persons believed to be interested, informing them that the said amount has been deposited as required by this section, and that, should no application be made to the Court (as provided in the next succeeding section) within six weeks of the issue of the notice on the last of the persons named therein, the Collector will pay the amount to any persons legally authorized to receive and to give an acquittance for the same.

And to place the amount of compensation in deposit.

19. Any person on whom notice may be served under the last preceding section, and any person interested in any property in respect of which such notice has been issued, may, within six weeks of the service of such notice, apply to the Court stating his objection to the amount of compensation as fixed by the Collector under the last preceding section, and the amount which he claims as compensation. Provided that instead of the last clause of the said section twenty-six, the following shall be read: "The provisions of this section and of section eleven of the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876, shall be read to every assessor in a language which he understands, before he gives his opinion as to the amount of compensation to be awarded."

22. Where there are several persons interested, if such persons agree in the apportionment of the compensation, the particulars of such apportionment shall be specified in the award, whether such award be made by the Collector or by the Court, and as between such persons the award shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the apportionment.

Particulars of apportionment to be specified.

23. When the amount of compensation has been settled under section sixteen, if any dispute arises as to the apportionment of the same or any part thereof, the Collector shall refer such dispute to the decision of the Court.

Disputes as to apportionment.

All costs entailed by such a reference and the proceedings of the Court thereon shall be paid by the parties who dispute the apportionment of the compensation, in such proportions as the Court may direct, and the Collector shall not be required to disburse any such costs, nor shall any such costs be recovered from the Collector.

24. When the amount of compensation has been settled by the Court, and there is any dispute as to the apportionment thereof, or when a reference to the Court has been made under the last preceding section, the Judge sitting alone shall decide the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in such amount.

Determination of proportions.

An appeal shall lie from every such decision to the High Court, unless the Judge whose decision is appealed from is not the District Judge, in which case the appeal shall lie in the first instance to the District Judge.

Appeal.

Every appeal under this section shall be presented within the time and in manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure for regular appeals in suits.

25. Payment of the compensation shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the award made by him under section sixteen ; or the proceeding held by him under section eighteen, if no application be made to the Court as provided by section nineteen ; or the award made by the Court or the decision of the Judge under section twenty-one ; or, in the case of an appeal under section twenty-four, in accordance with the decision in appeal, as the case may be.

Payment of compensation.

26. The amount of compensation fixed by any award, proceeding, or decision as specified in the last preceding section, shall be deemed to be the full amount payable by the Government in respect of the claim dealt with therein ; and the Government shall not be liable for any further claim to any person whatever in respect of any matter which was the subject of such award, por-

Liability of person receiving compensation not affected.

27. Nothing contained in the last preceding section shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of any compensation awarded under this Act, to pay the same to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

Abatement of rent on interruption of water-supply.

28. Every tenant holding under an unexpired lease, or having a right of occupancy, who is in occupation of any land at the time when any stoppage or diminution of the supply, in respect of which compensation is allowed under section eleven, takes place, may claim an abatement of the rent previously payable by him for the said land, on the ground that the interruption reduces the value of the holding; provided that no part of the said compensation shall have been received by the said tenant in respect of such reduction in the value of his holding.

Enhancement of rent on restoration of water-supply.

29. If a water-supply increasing the value of such holding is afterwards restored to the said land otherwise than at the cost of the tenant, the rent of the tenant may be enhanced, in respect of the increased value of such land due to the restored water-supply, to an amount not exceeding that at which it stood immediately before the abatement.

Such enhancement shall be on account only of the restored water-supply, and shall not affect the liability of the tenant to enhancement of rent on any other grounds.

Compensation when due.

30. All sums of money payable for compensation under this Part shall become due three months after the claim for such compensation is made in respect of the stoppage, diminution, or damage complained of, and simple interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be allowed on any such sum remaining unpaid after the said three months, except where the non-payment of such sum is caused by the wilful neglect or refusal of the claimant to receive the same.

Interest.

Collector may invest amount deposited or awarded in Government securities.

Provided that the Collector may at any time invest the whole or any portion of the amount payable as compensation under this Act in any Government securities, and such securities shall be held by the Collector for the benefit of the persons interested, and the persons interested shall be bound to receive such securities with any interest which may have accrued upon them as full payment of the sum which the Collector paid for such securities, and of any sum which he may have paid as expenses incurred in purchasing the same, and of any interest which might otherwise have accrued on such sums.

Compensation not claimable in respect of works executed before Act came into force.

31. No compensation shall be claimable under this Act in respect of any works executed before it came into force, or of any damage, injury, or loss caused by such works.

Service of notice.

32. Service of any notice under this Part shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof signed by the officer therein mentioned.

Whenever it may be practicable, the service of the notice shall be made on the person therein named.

When such person cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him; and if no such adult male member can be found, the notice may be served by fixing the copy on the outer door of the house in which the person therein named ordinarily dwells or carries on business; and if such person has no ordinary place of residence within the district, service of any notice may be made by sending copy of such notice by post, in a registered cover addressed to such person at his usual place of residence.

PART III.

Of the Maintenance of Canals.

Entry for inquiry.

33. Whenever it shall be necessary to make any enquiry or examination in connection with a projected canal or with the maintenance of an existing canal, or with a projected flood-embankment or with the maintenance of an existing flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or other person acting under the general or special orders of a Canal Officer, may enter upon such lands as he may think necessary for the purpose, and may exercise all powers and do all things in respect of such lands as he might exercise and do if the Government had issued a notification under the provisions of section four of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, to the effect that land in that locality is likely to be needed for a public purpose; and may set up and maintain water-gauges, and do all other things necessary for the prosecution of such enquiry and examination.

Power to inspect and regulate water-supply.

34. Such Canal Officer or other person may also enter upon any land, building, or village-channel on account of which any water-rate is chargeable, for the purpose of inspecting or regulating the use of the water supplied, or of measuring the lands irrigated thereby or chargeable with a water-rate, and of doing all things necessary for the proper regulation and management of the canal from which such water is supplied.

Power to enter for repairs, and to prevent accidents.

35. In case of any accident being apprehended or happening to a canal or flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or any person acting under his general or special orders in this behalf, may enter upon any lands adjacent to such canal or flood-embankment, and may execute all works which may be necessary for the purpose of preventing such accident, or repairing any damage done.

36. When such Canal Officer or person proposes, under the provisions of either of the three last preceding sections, to enter into any building or enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling-house not supplied with water flowing from any canal, and not being adjacent to a flood-embankment, he shall previously give to the occupier of such building, court, or garden such reasonable notice as the urgency of the case may allow.

Notice to occupier of building, &c.

37. In every case of entry upon any land or building under section seven, section thirty-three, section thirty-four, or section thirty-five, the Canal Officer or person making the entry shall ascertain and record the nature of any crop, tree, building, or other property, to which damage has been done, and the extent of the damage done to any such property, and shall tender compensation to the proprietors or occupiers for all damage done to the same by the entry or by any works executed. If such tender is not accepted, the Canal Officer shall refer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon give notice in writing to the persons interested in such land and to the Canal Officer, requiring them to attend before him, on a date to be fixed in the notice, for the purpose of making enquiry as to the amount of compensation.

Compensation for damage to land.

38. After such enquiry as he may think necessary, the Collector shall decide the amount of compensation payable; and such decision shall be subject to an appeal to the Commissioner of the Division, provided that such appeal be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the decision appealed against.

Appeal from Collector's decision to Commissioner's.

If no such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Collector, or if such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Commissioner, shall be final and conclusive.

39. Suitable means of crossing canals constructed or maintained at the cost of Government shall be provided at such places as the Lieutenant-Governor thinks necessary for the reasonable convenience of the inhabitants of the adjacent lands; and suitable bridges, culverts, or other works shall be constructed to prevent the drainage of the adjacent lands being obstructed by any canal.

Government to provide means of crossing canals and of drainage.

On the completion of any canal, or of any convenient section of any canal, the Collector, after causing such inspection to be made as may be necessary, shall certify to the Government that suitable and sufficient means of crossing the canal, and suitable and sufficient means of drainage, as aforesaid, have been provided; or shall report in what respects the provision made for the above purposes is defective; and if at any time after he shall have given such certificate it shall be brought to his notice that the provision made as above has proved insufficient, the Collector shall cause inquiry to be made into the circumstances of the case, and if the statement is established, shall report his opinion thereon for the consideration of the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Lieutenant-Governor shall cause such measures in reference thereto to be taken as he thinks proper.

Collector to certify to the Government that means of crossing canals and drainage have been provided.

PART IV.

OF DRAINAGE.

40. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that injury to the public health or public convenience, or to any canal, or to any land for which irrigation from a canal is available, has arisen or may arise from the obstruction of any river, stream, or natural drainage-course, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, prohibit, within limits to be defined in such notification, the formation of any such obstruction, or may, within such limits, order the removal or other modification of such obstruction.

Lieutenant-Governor may prohibit formation of obstructions within certain limits.

Thereupon so much of the said river, stream, or natural drainage-channel as is comprised within such limits shall be held to be a drainage-work as defined in section three.

41. The Canal Officer or other person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in that behalf, may, after such publication, issue an order to the person causing or having control over any such obstruction, to remove or modify the same within a time to be fixed in the order.

Canal Officer may issue notice to person causing obstructions.

42. If, within the time so fixed, such person does not comply with the order, the Canal Officer may cause the obstruction to be removed or modified, and if the person to whom the order was issued does not, when called upon, pay the expenses of such removal or modification, such expenses shall be recoverable as a demand under the provisions of section one, Bengal Act VII of 1868 (an Act to make further provision for the recovery of arrears of land revenue and public demands recoverable as arrears of revenue).

Canal Officer may cause obstructions to be removed.

43. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that any drainage works are necessary for the public health or for the improvement or proper cultivation or irrigation of any lands in districts to which the provisions of the Bengal Embankment Act 1873 do not apply, or that protection from floods or other accumulations of water, or from erosion by a river, is required for any lands,

When drainage works are necessary Lieutenant-Governor may order a scheme to be drawn up and carried out.

the Lieutenant-Governor may cause a scheme for such works to be drawn up and carried into execution, and the persons authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor to draw up and execute such scheme may exercise in connection therewith all or any of the powers conferred on Canal Officers by sections thirty-three, thirty-four, and thirty-five, and shall be liable to any or all of the obligations imposed upon Canal Officers by sections thirty-six and thirty-seven.

44. Whenever, in pursuance of a notification made under section forty, any obstruction is removed or modified; or whenever any drainage-work is carried out under the last preceding section, all claims for compensation on account of any loss consequent on the removal or modification of the said obstruction or the construction of such work, may be made before the Collector, and he shall deal with the same in the manner provided in Part II; but no compensation shall be allowed for any damage arising from increase of percolation.

Disposal of claims to compensation.

Limitation of such claims.

45. No such claim shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from the occurrence of the loss complained of, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

PART V.

OF VILLAGE-CHANNELS.

Definition of person.

46. "Person" in this Part includes any number of persons acting jointly

Register of village-channels to be kept.

47. The Canal Officer shall keep a register of all village-channels, whether already existing or constructed under this Act, and shall note thereon in respect of every village-channel whether it is a public channel maintained at the cost of the Government, or a private channel maintained at the cost of the owners; and shall register the names of the owners of every such private channel.

Extension or branch of village-channel to be registered.

A village-channel made as an extension of, or a branch to, an existing village-channel shall be registered as a separate village-channel; and so much of the length of any village-channel as lies within the limits of any one village or mouzah shall be entered on the register as a separate village-channel. Every section of a village-channel so separately entered on the register shall be deemed to be a separate village channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Canal Officer may register as one village-channel a section including portions lying within two or more villages.

Provided always that whenever it shall seem fit to the Canal Officer for any special reason to enter upon his register as one village-channel a section of a village-channel which includes portions lying within two or more villages or mouzahs, the Canal Officer may, with the consent of the Collector obtained in writing, register such section as one village-channel, and such section shall be deemed to be one village-channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Any person may acquire an existing village-channel by agreement.

48. Any person may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, acquire the property in an existing village-channel for the purpose of improving or maintaining it—

(a) by taking over any village-channel belonging to Government;

(b) by transfer of a village-channel from the owner thereof by private agreement.

Any person may construct a new village-channel with consent of owners or occupiers.

49. Any person may, with the permission of a Canal Officer, construct a new village-channel if he has obtained the consent of the owners and occupiers of the land required therefor.

Any person may construct village-channel by applying to Canal Officer.

50. Any person desiring the construction of a new village-channel, but being unable or unwilling to construct it under a private arrangement with the owners and occupiers of the land affected, as mentioned in the last preceding section, may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating that he desires the said Canal Officer, in his behalf and at his cost, to do all things necessary for constructing such village-channel;

that he is ready to defray all costs necessary for acquiring the land and constructing such village-channel.

Procedure when Canal Officer considers construction of village-channel expedient.

51. If the Canal Officer considers the construction of such village-channel expedient, he may call upon the applicant to deposit any part of the expense such Officer may consider necessary, and upon such deposit being made, shall cause inquiry to be made into the most suitable alignment for the said village-channel, and shall mark out the land which, in his opinion, it will be necessary to occupy for the construction thereof, and shall forthwith publish a notification in every village through which the village-channel is proposed to be taken, that so much of such land as is situated within such village has been so marked out, and shall send a copy of such notification to the Collector of every district in which any part of such land is known to be situate for publication on such land.

Person wishing to be joint owner must make his application within thirty days.

Such notification shall also call upon any person who wishes to be admitted a joint owner of such village-channel to make his application in that respect within thirty days of the publication of such notification. If any such applicant appears, and his application is admitted, he shall be liable to pay his share in the construction of such village-channel and in the cost of acquiring such land, and shall be an owner of such village-channel when constructed.

Collector to acquire land.

52. On receipt of copy of such notification, the Collector shall proceed to acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, as if a declaration had been issued by the Government for the acquisition thereof under section six of that Act, and as if the Government had thereupon directed the Collector to take order for the acquisition of such land under section seven of the said Act, and (if necessary) as if the Government had issued orders for summary possession being taken under section seventeen of the said Act.

Procedure after construction of village-channel.

53. On being put in possession of the land the Canal Officer shall construct the required village-channel; and on its completion shall give to the applicant notice thereof, and of any sum payable by him on account of the cost of acquiring the land and constructing the village-channel. On such notice being given, such sum shall be due from the applicant to the Canal Officer. On receipt of payment in full of all expenses incurred the Canal Officer shall make over possession of such village-channel to such applicant.

Canal Officer may direct transfer of a village-channel.

54. Whenever a Canal Officer considers that the transfer of a village channel from the owner is necessary for the proper management of the irrigation from such village-channel, he may cause a notice to be served on the registered owner to appear on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after service of notice, and to prefer any objection to such transfer. After hearing such objection the Canal Officer may order that such village-channel shall be transferred to such person as he may think fit, and that such person be registered as owner of the said village-channel:

Provided that no person shall be registered as the owner of a village-channel under this section, unless he has expressed in writing his willingness to be so registered, and until he has paid to the Canal Officer such sum as may be fixed by the Canal Officer under section fifty-six.

A person may be admitted joint owner of an existing village-channel.

55. Any person wishing to become the joint owner of an existing village-channel may petition the Canal Officer to that effect, and on receipt of such petition the Canal Officer may, if he think fit, issue a notice as provided in the last preceding section, upon the registered owner, and after hearing any objection which the registered owner may prefer against the admission of such applicant to be a joint owner, may direct that the applicant shall be registered as such joint owner.

Canal Officer shall determine compensation to be paid for transfer or acquisition of joint ownership.

56. When deciding the question of transfer or of admission to joint ownership under either of the two last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall also determine what amount shall be paid—as the costs of the proceedings;

as compensation to the previous owners;

and the amount so determined shall be due by the transferee or the person admitted to registry as a joint owner, as the case may be; and on payment of such amount, the village-channel shall be transferred, or the applicant shall be registered as owner or as a joint owner thereof, as the case may be.

Canal Officer may fix rent for a village-channel transferred.

57. Instead of awarding payment of compensation under the last preceding section, the Canal Officer may fix an amount of rent to be paid annually to the previous owners by the persons to whom the village-channel is transferred.

Ownership of village-channel.

58. Every person

(a) acquiring a village-channel as provided in section forty-eight; or

(b) constructing a village-channel as provided in section forty-nine; or

(c) receiving possession of a village-channel as provided in section fifty-three; or

(d) acquiring a village-channel by transfer, as provided in section fifty-four, or

(e) being admitted to registration as joint owner in a village-channel, as provided in section fifty-five, shall be deemed to be an owner of such village-channel.

Obligations and rights of owner of village-channel.

59. Every owner of a village-channel shall be bound—

(a) to construct and maintain all works necessary for the passage across such village-channel of canals, village-channels, drainage-channels, and public roads existing at the time of its construction, and of the drainage intercepted by it, and for affording proper communications across it for the convenience of the occupants of neighbouring lands;

(b) to maintain such village-channel in a fit state of repair for the conveyance of water;

(c) to allow the use of it to others on such terms as may be declared equitable by the Canal Officer as hereinafter prescribed;

and shall be entitled—

(d) to have a supply of water by such village-channel at such rates and on such terms as are prescribed by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine;

(e) to receive such rent for the use of the village-channel by other persons as the Canal Officer may award him.

If owner of village-channel fails to execute works or make repairs, Canal Officer may execute them on his behalf.

60. If the owner of a village-channel fails to fulfil the obligations mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of the last preceding section the Canal Officer may require him by notice to execute the necessary works or repairs within a period not being less than fifteen days, and in the event of failure, may execute them on his behalf; and all expenses incurred by the execution of such works or repairs shall be a sum due by such owner to Government; and if any such owner who has already failed on one occasion to execute such works or repairs when required to do so, and has left them to be executed on his behalf by the Canal Officer, shall again fail to execute any such works or repairs when required to do so; or if any such owner shall refuse in any respect to fulfil the obligation mentioned in clause (c) of the last preceding section, after having been required to fulfil the same by a notice in writing from the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer may strike such village-channel off the register, and so disqualify it to be any longer a medium for the conveyance of canal water.

Resignation of ownership.

61. Any owner may resign his interest in a village-channel, provided such resignation be duly registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Owner may transfer interest.

62. Any owner of a village-channel may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, transfer his interest to any other person, provided that the liabilities of the person so transferring shall not cease till such transfer is registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Procedure on death of owner of village-channel.

63. If any owner of a village-channel dies, his legal representative may apply for registration in his stead. If no such application for registry be made within six weeks from the death of the said owner, the remaining registered owners of the village-channel, if any, shall be deemed to be owners of the entire interest in the village-channel, until some other person shall have established his claim to be registered as owner in place of the deceased. If the deceased shall have been the sole registered owner, the Canal Officer shall be deemed to be his representative for the purposes of this Part, and shall exercise all rights and be bound by all liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of his ownership of the said village-channel, until some person shall have established his right to be registered as owner thereof in place of the deceased; and the Canal Officer shall account to such person for all sums received and expended in the exercise of the rights and discharge of the liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of such ownership.

Procedure when any person applies for registration in lieu of deceased owner.

64. When any person applies for registration under the three last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the other registered owners to prefer any objection to the resignation, transfer, or succession within fifteen days, and if no such objection shall be made, or if the objections made be deemed invalid, shall order such resignation, transfer, or succession to be registered.

Interest of owners equal, unless unequal interests registered.

Person other than owner may have supply of water through village-channel under certain conditions.

66. Any person not an owner of a village-channel, desiring to have a supply of water through such village-channel, may make a private arrangement with the owners for the conveyance of water, or may apply to the Canal Officer for authority to use such village-channel.

Canal Officer may authorize supply.

67. On receipt of such application, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the owners to show cause why such permission should not be granted, and if no objection be raised, or if any objections be raised, and found invalid, shall authorize the conveyance of such supply on such conditions as may appear to him equitable.

Canal Officer to fix a sum as rent of village-channel.

68. The Canal Officer shall also fix a sum as rent to be paid for the use of such village-channel to the owner. Such rent may be in the form of a percentage on the water-rate of the person using the village-channel, or otherwise, as may be fixed by the Canal Officer.

Owner of a village-channel receiving supply through another village-channel.

69. The owner of a village-channel which receives its water through another village-channel may, at the discretion of the Canal Officer, either be declared a joint owner of such other village-channel, or may be required to pay rent for the use of the same to the owner thereof, as provided in the last preceding section.

Instalments in which rent is payable.

70. All rent payable under either of the two last preceding sections shall be deemed to be due in the same instalments and at the same periods as the water-rate is due, or in such other instalments and at such other dates as the Canal Officer may direct, and may be collected by the Canal Officer on behalf of the person entitled to it, if the Canal Officer thinks fit.

Canal Officer not to pay more than amount actually collected as rent.

Every sum declared to be due under this Part shall be recoverable by the Canal Officer on behalf of the Government or of the person entitled to receive the same, and shall be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, or any other similar Act for the time being in force.

Time and manner of election.

17. The first election shall take place at any time, not being less than two, or more than three months from the commencement of this Act; and until such election has taken place, and until the appointment of members by the Local Government takes effect under section six, this Act shall be read as if all the Justices of the Peace for the Town of Calcutta had been respectively appointed or elected Commissioners under this Act.

The order of such Magistrate made under this section shall not be appealable.

Erroneous omission or entry does not affect election.

21. No election shall be deemed to be invalid, or shall be in any way affected, by reason of the name of any person duly qualified as aforesaid being omitted from the said list, or by reason of the name of any person not duly qualified as aforesaid being inserted therein; and no election shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of any defect of form in the conduct thereof.

At the expiration of the term for which the members of the said Corporation may be appointed or elected respectively, they shall cease to be members of the said Corporation, but shall be eligible to be again appointed or elected members of the said Corporation for a further term or terms.

The Commissioners shall, in all cases in which any house or land is for the first time assessed, or in which the valuation or measurement of any house or land previously assessed is increased, give special notice thereof to the owners or occupiers of the same, and when the valuation is increased as aforesaid, the said notice shall state the grounds of such increase.

Appeals.

114. Appeals against any assessment made by the Commissioners under this Chapter shall lie

(a) to not less than three Commissioners, other than executive officers of the Commissioners; or (b) to the Court of Small Causes.

In any case of an appeal to the Court of Small Causes under this section the said Court may follow the procedure laid down in sections three hundred and fifty-four and three hundred and fifty-five.

Notice to be given by person appealing.

115. Any person desiring to appeal against any assessment made under this chapter, shall, within fifteen days of the publication of the notice referred to in section one hundred and twelve deliver at the office of the Commissioners a notice in writing, stating the grounds of appeal, and also informing the Commissioners whether he intends to appeal under clause (a) or (b) of the last preceding section.

No appeal shall lie as hereinbefore provided unless the amount of the house-rate for one quarter, under the assessment about to expire, has been deposited with the Commissioners; and unless the appeal is preferred by the person who, at the time the appeal is made, shall be recorded in the said book as the owner of the house or land to which the appeal refers, or by the occupier thereof, or by the agent of either of them.

Notice of day for hearing appeals.

116. The Commissioners shall give notice of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the publication of such notice, when they will proceed to hear the appeals under clause (a) of section one hundred and fourteen.

Every appeal under clause (b) of the said section shall be presented to the Small Cause Court within seven days from the date of the delivery of the notice at the office of the Commissioners under the last preceding section.

Assessment by Commissioners when to be final.

117. The assessment by the Commissioners of any rate, when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under the two last preceding sections, shall be final and conclusive.

Assessments to be entered in assessment book.

118. The assessments made by the Commissioners, subject to such alterations as may from time to time thereafter be duly made on appeal, shall be entered in the assessment book, and the rate calculated on the said assessment shall, subject to such alterations as aforesaid, be deemed to be the rate for the whole period for which the assessment is made, and this period shall be calculated from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which any such amendment shall be so authenticated; and until such date the old assessment shall continue in force, notwithstanding that the period for which the old assessment was made may have expired.

Alteration or amendment of assessment.

119. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may at any time amend the assessment book by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted, or by inserting any house or land liable to the rate, after giving notice, to any person interested in the making of the amendment, of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, when such amendment is to be made; or by striking out the name of any person or any house or land not liable to the rate, or reducing the amount of the assessment, without notice:

and if any amendment shall be made, in cases where notice is required, the same shall be deemed to have been made on the expiration of fifteen days after service of the said notice; and any person interested in such amendment may appeal by application in writing to the Commissioners, to be left at their office three clear days before the day fixed in the said notice for such amendment; and the provisions of sections one hundred and fourteen, one hundred and fifteen, one hundred and sixteen, and one hundred and seventeen, shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to such appeal.

New assessment book need not be prepared every six years.

120. It shall not be necessary to prepare a new assessment book at the expiration of each period of assessment, but the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, may adopt the valuation or measurement and assessment contained in any assessment book for any previous period, with such alterations as may in particular cases be deemed necessary, as the valuation, or measurement and assessment for the period next following;

Provided that sections one hundred and ten to one hundred and eighteen (both inclusive) shall, as far as may be practicable, be applicable to such valuation or measurement and assessment, and to the assessment book or books in which it is contained.

CHAPTER VI.

OF LEVYING THE RATES.

Bills to be presented.

121. When any rate is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be presented, to the person liable to the payment thereof, a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period, and a description of the property, for which the rate is charged.

Provided that whenever any rate is payable by the owner of the land, and the said owner is not the owner of the house situated on the said land, the assessment on the land and on the house shall be separately entered in the said bill.

Notice of demand.

122. If the bill is not paid by the person liable to pay the same within seven days from the presentation thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand, in the form contained in the fourth schedule, or to the like effect; and if he shall not, within seven days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, or show sufficient cause, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, for non-payment of the same, such sum, with all costs, may be levied by distress and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter, or if the defaulter be the occupier of any house or land in respect of which a rate is due, by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, under a warrant in the form contained in the fifth schedule, or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners.

Distress.

For every notice of demand under this section which the Commissioners shall cause to be served upon any person, a fee, not exceeding one rupee, shall be paid by such person.

Such fee shall be added to the amount of the rate in respect of which the notice is given, and, if not duly paid, shall be levied in the same manner as such rate may be levied.

Inventory—notice of distress.

123. The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress under the last preceding section shall make an inventory of the moveable property seized under such warrant, and shall at the time give a notice in writing, in the form contained in the sixth schedule, or to the like effect, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said moveable property will be sold as therein mentioned.

Sale.

124. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the moveable property seized shall be sold under the orders of the Commissioners, who shall apply the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned, on demand, to the person in possession of the moveable property at the time of the seizure.

All sales of property under this section shall, so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure now in force or hereafter to be in force in the Court of Small Causes with respect to sale after distress.

Fees shall be payable upon distraints under this Act according to the rates set forth in the Table of Fees in the sixth schedule.

All officers and servants of the Corporation are prohibited from purchasing any property at any such sale.

Goods of defaulter, wherever found, may be distrained.

125. The moveable property of any person from whom any rate is due may be distrained, wherever the same may be found, for default in payment of the money due from him.

Rate due from owner may be recovered from occupier and deducted by him from his rent.

126. If the sum due on account of any rate from the owner of any house or land remains unpaid after notice of demand has been duly served, the Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier for the time being of the house or land, and, on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, and, in such case, the occupier may deduct, from the next and following payments of his rent, the amount which may be so paid by, or recovered from, him.

Provided that no arrear of rate, which has remained due from the owner of any house or land for more than one year, shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

Distress not unlawful for want of form.

127. No distress levied under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser on account of any irregularity committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for any special damage sustained by them in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Commissioners may sue, instead of proceeding by distress.

128. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress and sale the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE WATER-SUPPLY.

The Commissioners to provide water-supply.

129. The Commissioners shall provide a supply of water within the Town, and shall for that purpose cause such mains and pipes to be laid, and such tanks, reservoirs, or other works to be made and constructed, as shall be necessary for the supply of filtered water in all the chief public streets of the Town, and shall also erect, in all such streets, sufficient and convenient stand-pipes or pumps for the gratuitous use of the inhabitants of the Town for domestic purposes.

The said stand-pipes or pumps shall be so placed that there shall not be any portion of any such chief street at a greater distance than one hundred and fifty yards from some such stand-pipe or pump.

What are not domestic purposes.

130. A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply of water for animals, or for washing carriages, where such animals or carriages are kept for sale or hire, or a supply for any trade, manufacture, or business, or for fountains, or for watering gardens or roads, or for any ornamental or mechanical purpose.

Pressure at which water must be kept.

131. The Commissioners shall, between the hours of six in the forenoon and nine in the afternoon, so far as may be reasonably practicable, keep and maintain in their pipes and mains a sufficient supply of filtered water under a pressure of not less than ten feet for the domestic use of the rate-payers, and shall daily, from the hour of seven in the forenoon to nine in the forenoon, and from the hour of five in the afternoon to six in the afternoon, maintain a pressure of water in the service pipes and mains sufficient to raise the water in all houses and places in which the same may be introduced, to a height of not less than fifty feet.

Supply for business.

132. The Commissioners may supply water through a meter, for purposes other than domestic purposes, provided that the person requiring such supply make application to the Commissioners in writing, specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

The Commissioners may thereupon, subject to such charges or rates as may have been fixed by the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, lay down, or allow to be laid down, the necessary communication-pipes and works, of such dimensions and character as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

Householder entitled to certain supply of water for domestic use.

133. The occupier of every house shall be entitled to have, free of further charge, fifteen hundred gallons of filtered water for every rupee paid to the Commissioners as water-rate on account of such house, to be supplied from the service pipes of the Commissioners for domestic use through a ferrule of such size as the Commissioners may determine. If the Commissioners have reason to believe that the occupier of any house consumes more filtered water than he is entitled to as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide a water-meter at their own expense, and attach the same to the water-pipes of the said house; and any water which may be used over and above the quantity to which the occupier is entitled as aforesaid shall be paid for by him at the rate of one rupee for every fifteen hundred gallons.

Provided that no charge shall be made by the Commissioners for unfiltered water supplied under the next succeeding section.

Nothing contained in the first clause of this section shall apply to houses assessed at less than twelve hundred rupees per annum.

Commissioners may provide filtered or unfiltered water for latrines.

134. It shall be at the option of the Commissioners to provide filtered or unfiltered water for all latrines and water-closets; and wherever filtered water has been already supplied to such latrines or water-closets, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners at their own expense, and not otherwise, to stop the supply of filtered water, and in lieu thereof to provide unfiltered water for such latrines and water-closets.

All latrines to be provided with cistern.

135. All latrines and water-closets now supplied, or hereafter to be supplied, with water, filtered or unfiltered, shall be provided with a cistern of such size and description as the Commissioners shall direct; and all such cisterns shall be put up at the cost of the owner of the house or land so supplied with water.

Communication-pipes, &c., to be made of required dimensions and at expense of householder.

136. Every person paying the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned shall be entitled to lay down communication-pipes from the service pipes of the Commissioners, for bringing into his house or land a reasonable supply of water for domestic use: provided that the Commissioners shall be at liberty to cut off the supply of water to any house or land during the time the said house or land is unoccupied.

The communication-pipes leading the water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into the house of any rate-payer, and the pipes and works within the house connected therewith, shall be of such character, dimensions, and material as the Commissioners shall fix and approve; and shall be made and constructed at the expense of the person requiring the same.

Communication-pipes, &c., must be made to satisfaction of Officer of the Commissioners.

137. The communication-pipes and all fittings thereon leading water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into any house or land, and the pipes, works, and fittings inside the house or land, must in all cases be executed subject to the inspection and to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

Such communication-pipes, works, and fittings may be made by the servants and workmen of the Commissioners, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and the person requiring the supply, or subject to such charges as may be fixed by the Commissioners; and the Commissioners may require the amount necessary for the execution of such works to be paid or deposited before such works are executed; and such charges and expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as the water-rate.

Power to enter premises.

138. The Officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioners may, between the hours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon, enter into or on any house or land supplied with water as aforesaid in order to examine all pipes, works, and fittings, connected with the supply of water, and to ascertain if there be any waste or misuse of such water; and if such Officer at any such time be refused admittance into such house or land for the purposes aforesaid, or be prevented from making such examination as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith turn off the water from such house or land.

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall authorize an entry into any room appropriated for the zenana or residence of women, which by the custom of the country is considered private, unless a notice in writing of not less than four hours be given.

When pipes are out of repair, Commissioners may turn off water.

139. In the event of any pipes, works, or fittings connected with the supply of water to any house or land, being at any time found on examination by any officer of the Commissioners authorized in that behalf to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off from such house or land, after giving notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours, and may recover the expense incurred for turning off the water from the occupier of such house or land.

Water may be cut off on neglect to pay the rate.

140. If any person supplied with water shall neglect to pay the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned at any of the times of payment thereof, or the charge made for the said water when supplied for other than domestic purposes, the Commissioners may turn off the water from the house or land in respect of which such rate or charge is payable, by cutting off the pipe to such house or land, or by such means as the Commissioners may think fit, and may recover the expenses of turning off the water from such person;

Provided that the stopping or cutting off the supply of water shall not relieve any person from any penalties or liabilities which he may otherwise have incurred.

Occupier in whose house water is wasted liable to penalty.

141. The occupier of any house or land in which water supplied by the Commissioners under this Act is, from negligence or other circumstances under the control of the said occupier, wasted, or in whose house or land the pipes, works, and fittings for the supply of water shall be found to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Person causing waste of water liable to penalty.

142. Any person causing waste of water supplied by the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Commissioners at their discretion may allow person outside the Town to take water

143. It shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners to allow any person, not residing within the limits of the Town, to take or be supplied with water for his domestic use on such terms as the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, may from time to time prescribe. And any person taking or causing to be taken for use outside the limits of the Town water supplied by the Commissioners without the permission of the Commissioners, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty.

Person executing any work for laying on water must hold a license from the Commissioners.

144. It shall not be lawful for any person to execute any work in connection with the laying on of water from any service pipes of the Commissioners to any house or land, unless he shall hold a license from the Commissioners authorising him to act as a plumber under such rules and regulations as the Commissioners may from time to time lay down, and which shall be printed on the back of his license. Any person licensed by the Commissioners as a plumber, who shall infringe or break any rules or regulations under which he holds his license, shall be liable to have his license at once cancelled by the Commissioners, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Penalty.

Owner or occupier when not entitled to demand a connection with the Commissioners' service pipes.

145. Any owner or occupier of any house or land who shall cause or allow works, pipes, or fittings for the supply of water from the service pipes of the Commissioners to be executed by any person other than a plumber licensed by the Commissioners, shall not be entitled to demand a connection with the Commissioners' service pipes.

Before connection, Engineer of the Commissioners to cause all works and pipes to be inspected.

146. Before a connection for the supply of water from the service pipes of the Commissioners to any house or land is sanctioned by the Commissioners, the Engineer of the Commissioners shall cause all the works, pipes, and fittings within the said house or land to be inspected by a duly qualified officer; and the cost of such inspection shall be payable in advance at such rates as the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, shall from time to time direct, by the person applying for the said connection; and until the Engineer of the Commissioners shall have certified that the said works, pipes, and fittings have been executed and put up in a satisfactory manner, a connection with the Commissioners' service pipes shall not be permitted.

Connection with service pipes to be executed only by an officer of the Commissioners.

147. The connection with the service pipes of the Commissioners, as also the laying of supply pipes under any public road or thoroughfare, shall be executed by an officer of the Commissioners authorized in that behalf and by no other person; and the expense of making such connection shall be payable in advance by the person applying for the same, at such rates as the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, shall from time to time direct.

Penalty on licensed plumber who executes worksebadly.

148. If any licensed plumber shall execute any works or put up any fittings within any house or land for the supply of water from the pipes of the Commissioners in a careless and negligent manner, or make use of bad materials or fittings, the said licensed plumber shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, and upon a third conviction shall be liable to have his license cancelled at the discretion of the Commissioners.

Obstructing or diverting water.

149. Any person who shall unlawfully flush, draw off, divert, or take water from any water-works belonging to or under the management or control of the said Commissioners, or from any water or streams by which such water-works are supplied, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Power to require owner to provide works for water-supply.

150. Any occupier holding direct from the owner of any house may, by notice in writing signed by him, require the owner of such house to perform all such necessary works as may be required for bringing into such house a supply of water for domestic use.

Every such notice shall contain an agreement on the part of such occupier to pay interest at the rate of one per centum per mensem, calculated from the date of the completion of the works, on the cost of such works during the residue of his term of occupation.

Provided that, if the house and the premises belonging thereto shall not abut upon some street in which there is a supply-main, such occupier shall, in the agreement, undertake to pay the cost of connecting the house with the nearest supply-main.

Power to occupier to make works in default of owner.

151. If any owner shall not, within the space of three months from the service of such notice as is mentioned in the last preceding section, cause such necessary works as aforesaid to be completed, the occupier, who shall have given such notice, may cause the same to be completed, and may deduct from the rent payable by him the cost of such works, save so much of such cost as may be incurred in connecting with a supply-main any house and premises belonging thereto which may not abut upon a street in which there may be a supply-main; and such deduction shall be made by six equal monthly instalments.

Interest on each such instalment shall be payable to the owner by the occupier at the rate of one per centum per mensem, from the time when it shall have been so deducted.

What works to be made for a house.

152. The supply of water to a house shall not be deemed sufficient for domestic use unless it provides two taps in each floor of such house, one other such tap in the cookroom of or attached to such house, and one other such tap in the premises, or in or near the stables belonging to such house, and the necessary works for such taps.

But if the annual rent of such house, with the land attached thereto, shall be less than three hundred rupees, it shall be sufficient to provide one tap only within the said premises, and the necessary works for the same.

Estimate and specification of works to be sent.

153. No works for introducing a supply of water to any house shall be commenced by the owner without sending a specification and estimate of the cost thereof to the occupier, nor by the occupier without sending such specification and estimate to the owner.

Power to refer to arbitration.

154. In case there shall be any difference between the owner and the occupier respecting the cost or the sufficiency of the proposed works, either the owner or the occupier may refer such difference to the Commissioners, and the written award of the Engineer of the Commissioners, or of any officer authorized by them in that behalf, shall be binding on the owner and the occupier.

Fee on reference.

155. There shall be payable to the Commissioners in respect of every such reference a fee at the rate of two rupees for every hundred rupees of the monthly rent of the house or land in respect of the water-supply to which the difference may have arisen:

Provided that such fee shall in no case exceed ten rupees, and shall be paid by the person making the reference.

Owner to keep works in repair.

156. Except in the case of a special agreement to the contrary, the owner of any house or land shall bear the expense of keeping all works connected with the supply of water to such house or land in substantial repair.

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the liabilities of parties under leases executed or made previous to the commencement of this Act.

Power of recovery by owner of sums payable.

157. Any owner to whom any sum is payable under sections one hundred and fifty and one hundred and fifty-one, may recover such sum from the person liable to pay the same as if the same were rent payable by such person for the house in respect of which the expenses have been incurred.

Tanks, &c., vested in the Commissioners.

158. All public tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, wells, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, pipes, pumps, and other water-works, whether made, laid, or erected at the cost of the Commissioners or otherwise, and all bridges, buildings, engines, works, materials, and things connected therewith, or appertaining thereto, and also any adjacent land (not being private property) appertaining to any public tank, shall become vested in the Commissioners.

Water fouled by offensive trades.

159. If any person, being the proprietor of any gas-works, or being engaged or employed in the manufacture or supply of gas, or being the occupier or owner of any place where an offensive trade or manufacture is carried on, wilfully does any act connected with the said business whereby the water in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, aqueduct, or other water-works belonging to the Commissioners is fouled or corrupted, the Commissioners may, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing, lay open and examine any pipes, conduits, and works belonging to such person; and if, upon such examination, it appears that the water has been fouled or corrupted by anything proceeding from, or contained in, the pipes, conduits, or works examined, the expenses of such examination shall be paid by the person to whom such pipes, conduits, or works belong, or under whose management or control they may be;

but if it appear that the water has not been so fouled or corrupted, then such expenses, and all damages occasioned by the examination, shall be paid by the Commissioners.

Application of rates and monies received from the supply of water.

160. The water rate and all monies collected, received, or recovered for or in respect of the supply of water or the execution of works, and all fines connected therewith, or in any respect relating to the water-supply, shall be applied by the said Commissioners in defraying the expense of making, extending, or maintaining the water-works, in paying the interest of money borrowed for the water-works, and in the liquidation of debts incurred in connection therewith, or for some other purpose connected with the supply of water.

CHAPTER VIII.

161. The Commissioner of Police shall, on or before the first day of September in each year, transmit to the Commissioners a Budget or Estimate of the expense of the Police Force for the year commencing on the first day of January then next ensuing.

163. The Chairman shall forthwith, upon the receipt of any such Budget, cause the same to be printed, and a copy thereof, as far as may be practicable, sent by post or otherwise to each of the Commissioners resident within twenty miles of Government House; and shall lay every such Budget before the Commissioners at the next quarterly meeting of the Commissioners, or at a special general meeting.

The Commissioners shall thereupon forward such Budget to the Local Government, with such remarks as to them may seem fit, and it shall be in the discretion of the Local Government to pass, or to reject, or to modify, the estimates of all or any sums entered in the same.

Power to bring in a supplemental Budget.

164. If during any period for which a Police Budget shall have been passed and submitted as aforesaid, it shall appear that the amount provided by such Budget is insufficient to defray the necessary expense of the Police Force for such period, the Commissioner of Police may prepare a supplemental Budget for such period, and the provisions of the three last preceding sections shall apply to such supplemental Budget.

Amount of estimates to be paid to Government.

165. The amount of the estimates passed shall, after deducting therefrom such amount as may from time to time be allowed by the Government from the General Revenues towards the maintenance of the Police Force, be paid to the Local Government, or to such Officer as the Local Government may from time to time direct, by the Commissioners out of the annual proceeds of the Police rate; and it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to expend from the said proceeds any sums for purposes other than those provided in the Budget of the Commissioner of Police and duly sanctioned by the Local Government under section one hundred and sixty-three.

Commissioner of Police to give accounts of Police expenditure.

166. On or before the first day of April in every year, the Commissioner of Police shall present to the Chairman, to be laid before the Commissioners at their next monthly meeting, an account of the expense of the Police Force for the year ending the thirty-first day of December then next preceding, and in case the amount, which shall during such year have been paid to the Local Government under the provisions hereinbefore contained, shall not have been expended in the maintenance of the Police Force, the balance remaining unexpended shall be deemed to have been paid by the Commissioners in or towards discharging the expense of the Police Force during the ensuing year.

Local Government may declare environs within the drainage system.

168. The Local Government may determine what portions, if any, of the environs of the Town shall be included in the said system of sewerage and drainage, and may declare the boundaries thereof in the Calcutta Gazette, and for the purposes of the Drainage-rate the land within such boundaries as aforesaid shall be deemed to be part of the Town.

CHAPTER X.

OF THE REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

Commissioners may keep a Register of births and deaths, and appoint Registrars.

169. The Commissioners shall keep in their office a Register of all births and deaths in the Town, and for this purpose shall divide the Town into such and so many districts as they shall think fit, and for every such district shall appoint a person to be a Registrar of births and deaths within such district; and the Commissioners shall at each burning ghât and native burial-ground appoint a Sub-Registrar for the registration of all corpses brought to such burning ghât or burial ground for cremation or interment.

172. Every Registrar shall inform himself of every birth and of every death which shall happen in his district, and shall ascertain and register, as soon as conveniently may be after the event, without fee or reward, the particulars required to be registered according to the forms in the eighth and ninth schedules respectively, touching every such birth and every such death, as the case may be, which shall not have been already registered, every such entry being made in order from the beginning to the end of the book.

Information of birth to be given within eight days.

173. The father or mother of every child born in the Town, or in the case of the death, illness, or absence, or inability of the father and mother, the occupier of the house in which such child shall have been born, shall, within eight days after the day of the birth, give information to the Registrar of the district, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, of the several particulars by this Act required to be known and registered touching the birth of such child.

Provided that, in lieu of the information hereinbefore stated, in the case of persons dying in any hospital it shall be the duty of the Medical Officer in charge forthwith to send a notice in writing to the Commissioners in the form prescribed in the ninth schedule of the occurrence of any death in the hospital under his charge.

Penalty.

175. Any person whose duty it shall be to give information to a Registrar or Sub-Registrar under the two last preceding sections, who shall refuse or neglect to give such information, or who shall give false information, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Person giving information to sign the Register.

176. Every person by whom the information contained in any Register of births or deaths under this Act shall have been given, shall sign in the Register his name, description, and place of abode; and no such registration shall be deemed to be complete or of any effect until such person shall have so signed it:

Provided that the Registrar may fill up and sign the Register for any person who is unable to write:

Notice to objectors.

48. In case such notice cannot be served in any of the ways hereinbefore mentioned, it shall be served in such way as the Collector issuing such notice may direct.

No fees or other costs shall be payable by the applicant in respect of the service or publication of the notice prescribed by this and the last preceding section.

Irregularity in publication or service of notice not to affect validity of proceedings.

51. No irregularity or omission in the publication or service of notice as required by the three last preceding sections shall affect the validity of any proceedings under this Act, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Collector that some material injury was caused by such irregularity or omission.

Inquiry by Collector.

52. On the day fixed in the notice issued under section 48, or as soon thereafter as possible, the Collector shall consider any objections which may be advanced, and make such further inquiry as appears necessary to ascertain the truth of the alleged possession of, succession to, or transfer of the estate, revenue free property, or interest therein, in respect of which registration is applied for; and if it appears to the Collector that the possession exists, or that the succession, or transfer has taken place, and that the applicant has acquired possession in accordance with such succession or transfer,

the Collector shall order the name of the applicant to be registered in the proper Registers as proprietor or manager of the said estate, revenue-free property, or interest therein.

Provided that any person to whom any proprietary right in an estate has been mortgaged, may be registered as mortgagee, whether he be in actual possession or otherwise.

53. For the purpose of the inquiry mentioned in the last preceding section, and of every inquiry held under this Act, the Collector may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and compel them to give evidence, and compel the production of documents by the same means, and, as far as possible, in the same manner, as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure.

Payment of costs.

54. All costs of any enquiry or proceeding held before the Collector under this Act shall, except as provided in section 50, be payable by the parties concerned, and the Collector may pass such orders as he shall think fit in respect of the payment of such costs.

Dispute as to succession.

55. If the applicant's possession of, succession to, or acquisition by transfer of the extent of interest in respect of which he has applied to be registered, is disputed by or on behalf of any person making a conflicting claim in respect thereof, and if the possession of the applicant in accordance with his application is not proved to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector shall determine summarily the right to possession in respect of the interest in dispute, and shall deliver possession accordingly, and shall make the necessary entry in the registers accordingly, subject to any orders which may subsequently be made by any Civil Court; or if, in the opinion of the Collector, the dispute be one which can more properly be determined by a Civil Court, the Collector shall refer the matter in dispute to the principal Civil Court of the district for determination as hereinafter provided.

Provided that if the applicant's possession of any extent of interest in accordance with his application be not disputed, or if such possession be proved to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may register the said applicant's name in respect of such extent of interest, and may at the same time make a reference as hereinafter provided to the Civil Court for determination of any dispute as to any further extent of interest in respect of which the applicant has applied to be registered, but in respect of which the right of the applicant to be registered is disputed, and is not proved to the satisfaction of the Collector.

Effect of Collector's order.

56. Every order of a Collector passed under the first clause of the last preceding section shall be of the same force and effect as an order passed by the Judge under section 4 of Act XIX of 1841, determining summarily the right to possession and delivering possession accordingly; and no proceedings shall be taken by any Civil Court under the said Act in respect of any claim or dispute which has been determined by an order of the Collector as aforesaid.

Procedure on making a reference under section 55.

57. In making a reference to the Civil Court under section 55, the Collector shall state for the information of the said Court in writing under his hand

(5) the circumstances of the case as far a they are before the Collector, and the reasons which have led him to make the reference.

Procedure on receipt of reference.

58. On receipt of such reference the said principal Civil Court of the district may either proceed to determine the matter, or may transfer the matter for determination to any other competent Civil Court in the district. The said principal Civil Court, or the Court to which the matter is transferred, shall cite the parties concerned, and give notice of the time at which the matter will be heard; and after expiration of the time so fixed, shall determine summarily the right to possession in respect of the interest in dispute (subject to regular suit), and shall deliver possession accordingly.

Judge may appoint curator.

59. If it shall appear to the Judge of the Court by which the matter is heard that danger is to be apprehended of the misappropriation or waste of the property before the summary suit can be determined, such Judge may appoint curators for the care of the property, and may exercise all or any of the powers mentioned in sections 5 to 13 (both inclusive) of Act XIX of 1841.

Costs.

60. The said Court may make such order as it shall think fit with regard to the payment by the parties of the cost of the enquiry and proceedings.

Provided that no costs shall be recoverable from the parties on account of the issue of notices citing the parties and fixing a date for the first hearing of the case.

Summary decision of Court to be final.

61. The summary decision of the Court under section 58 shall have no other effect than that of settling the actual possession; but for this purpose it shall be final, not subject to any appeal or order for review.

Civil Court to certify its determination to Collector.

62. The Court shall certify to the Collector its determination as to the right of possession, and the Collector shall thereupon make the necessary entries in the proper Registers.

Fees for mutations and entries.

63. The Lieutenant-Governor may prescribe proper fees for changes or entries in the Registers; provided that no fee for a single change or entry shall exceed one hundred rupees.

Such fees shall be levied from the person in whose favor the change or entry is made.

Any two or more persons may join in one application for the registration of their names under this Act in respect of one estate or revenue-free property; and such joint application shall, for the purpose of levying fees under this section, be deemed to be one application.

All fees levied under this section shall be expended in such manner as the Lieutenant-Governor may think fit.

Penalty for omitting to comply with provisions of Act.

64. Whoever, being required by this Act to apply for the registration of his name and the extent of his interest in any estate or revenue-free property, voluntarily or negligently omits to make such application within the prescribed time, shall be liable to such fine as the Collector may think fit to impose, not exceeding one hundred rupees for such omission, and to such further daily fine as the Collector may think fit to impose, not exceeding fifty rupees, for each day during which such person shall omit to apply for such registration after a date to be fixed by the Collector in a notice requiring such person to apply for registration.

Such notice shall be served in the manner prescribed in section 50, and the date before which such person is required to apply for registration shall not be less than one month after service of such notice.

Fine may be levied notwithstanding appeal.

65. The Collector may proceed from time to time to levy any amount which has become due in respect of any such fine, notwithstanding that an appeal against the order imposing such fine may be pending.

Provided that whenever the amount levied under any such order shall have exceeded five hundred rupees, the Collector shall report the case specially to the Commissioner of the Division, and no further levy in respect of such fine shall be made otherwise than by authority of the said Commissioner.

No penalty on person who applies suo motu.

or on the ground that such person has failed to apply for registration of his name within the time prescribed by section 42.

if such person shall, at any time after the expiration of the time fixed or prescribed as aforesaid, of his own motion, and otherwise than after the issue of a requisition by the Collector in that behalf, present such application as is required by this Act for the registration of his name, and of the character and extent of his interest.

Liabilities of proprietors and managers.

67. All the recorded proprietors and managers of an estate or revenue-free property shall be deemed to be jointly and severally liable for the discharge of any duties and obligations which are by any law for the time being in force imposed upon the proprietors of such estate or property; and all persons who are required by this Act to apply for registration shall, from the date on which the obligation so to register is imposed on them respectively by this Act, be deemed to be liable for the discharge of any duties and obligations which are by any such law as aforesaid imposed upon the proprietors of the estate or property in respect of which they are required to apply for registration respectively.

PART V.

OF THE OPENING OF SEPARATE ACCOUNTS IN RESPECT OF SHARES.

No separate account to be opened otherwise than in accordance with registered interest.

68. Notwithstanding anything contained in Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of land, &c.), from the commencement of this Act no separate account shall be opened under the provisions of section 10 or of section 11 of the said Act in respect of the share of any applicant under the said sections otherwise than for a share corresponding with the character and extent of interest in the estate in respect of which such applicant is recorded as proprietor or manager under this Act.

Proprietor holding undivided interest in specific lands may apply for separate account.

69. When a proprietor of a joint estate who is recorded as proprietor of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, but not extending over the whole estate, desires to pay separately the share of the Government revenue which is due in respect of such interest, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the land in which he holds such undivided interest and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of Government revenue heretofore paid on account of such undivided interest. On the receipt of this application the Collector shall cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in section 10 of Act XI of 1859.

In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector shall open a separate account with the applicant, and shall credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it.

The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Sections 12, 13, and 14 of Act XI 1859 applicable.

70. Section 12 of the said Act XI of 1859 shall apply to every application made under the last preceding section; and the effect and consequences of opening a separate account under the last preceding section shall be such and the same as are described in section 13 and in section 14 of Act XI of 1859.

Application to close a separate account.

71. Whenever any share in respect of which a separate account has been opened by the Collector under section 10 or section 11 of the said Act XI of 1859, or under section 69, shall no longer correspond with the character and extent of interest held in the estate by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, any proprietor or manager whose name is borne on the General Register under this Act as proprietor or manager of any interest in the share in respect of which such separate account is open, may submit to the Collector a written application setting out the circumstances under which such share no longer corresponds with the extent of interest held in the estate by any one or more recorded proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more recorded proprietors or managers, and specifying the manner in which such share has become broken up and distributed among the proprietors of the estate, and praying that the separate account standing open in respect of such share shall be closed, and, if he so desire, praying that another separate account be opened in respect of any other share or shares which were wholly or partly included in the share in respect of which the previous separate account was open.

Illustration.

In a certain estate separate accounts have been opened under section 10 of Act XI of 1859 for the 4 annas share of A, and also for the 5 annas share of B, the accounts of the remaining 7 annas share being kept jointly in the names of the remaining proprietors C, D, and E.

In course of time X has inherited A's 4 annas share, and also C's interest in the 7 annas share, which amounted to 3 annas; X has also acquired by purchase 2 annas out of B's 5 annas share, so that the interests in the estate are now distributed as follows:—

X	... ...	9 annas.

X, if a recorded proprietor of the estate, may apply to the Collector to close the separate account which is open in respect of A's 4 annas share, and also the separate account which is open in respect of B's 5 annas share, as neither of these shares corresponds with the extent of interest held by any one proprietor, or held jointly by two or more proprietors in the estate;

and in the same application X may apply for the opening of a separate account in respect of the 9 annas share which he now holds.

Any of the other proprietors might also make a similar application.

Separate account may be closed and another opened.

72. On receipt of such application the Collector shall cause a copy of the same to be published in the manner provided in section 10 of Act XI of 1859; and if within six weeks from the date of such publication no objection is made by any other recorded proprietor of the estate, the Collector shall close the separate account which then stands open, and shall open a separate account with the applicant as required by him, under section 10, or section 11 of Act XI of 1859, or under section 69, as the case may be.

Effect of objection.

73. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the share in respect of which any separate account is open as aforesaid has not been broken up, and does still correspond with the character and extent of interest held by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers,

or, (when the application is in respect of a specific portion of the land of an estate or in respect of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate), object that the amount of Government revenue stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land, or on account of the applicant's undivided interest therein, is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the Government revenue thereof,

the Collector shall refer the parties to the Civil Court, and shall suspend proceedings until the question at issue is judicially determined.

PART VI.

79. Whenever any sum of money shall be payable by the Collector to the proprietors of any estate or revenue-free property jointly, it shall be lawful for the Collector to pay to any one or more recorded proprietors or managers thereof respectively, such portion of the said sum as may be proportionate to the extent of the interest in respect of which each such proprietor or manager is registered, and the receipt of each such proprietor or manager shall afford full indemnity to the Collector in respect of any sum so paid, unless an application for registration under this Act relating to the interest in respect of which any such proprietor or manager is registered, is pending before the Collector, or on a reference by the Collector before a Civil Court.

Saving of written contracts and recovery from person receiving money.

80. Nothing contained in the three last preceding sections shall be held to interfere with the conditions of any written contract, or to prevent any person deeming himself entitled to any sum of money from recovering such sum by due process of law from any other person who has received the same.

and there shall be no further appeal from any order so passed in appeal confirming the order appealed against, but an appeal shall lie to the Commissioner of the Division against every order so passed in appeal which modifies or reverses the order appealed against.
